

ALABAMA COMES TOMORROW NIGHT

Drama Class of P. U., Assisted by E. L. Perkins, Hillsboro

SOUTHERN ROMANCE AT CRESCENT

A Delightful Story of Sectional Prejudice Overcome

"Alabama," one of the strongest dramas ever presented on the American stage, will be at the Crescent Theatre, Friday evening, Feb. 27.

The plot is laid in Alabama about 18 years after the Civil War. The scenes take place, with one exception, on the plantation of a Colonel Preston.

Mr. Armstrong and Capt. Davenport appear on the scene as agents for a proposed railroad, and are refused permission for a right of way across the plantation.

A reception in honor of Rev. E. P. Hughes and wife will be given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wall, Friday evening, Feb. 27, at 8 o'clock.

For sale: Span of mares, 2400; set nearly new work harness; Tiger drill, new, 14-hoe; practically new Winona wagon, 3-in; Osborne mower, 3-section steel narrow; milk cart.

The Hillsboro orchestra, which has assembled very fine talent, will furnish music. Don't fail to be there. The cast: Col. Preston, an old planter, E. L. Perkins; Col. Moberly, a relic of the Confederacy, Edw. Dibble; Squire Tucker, a Justice, Ivan Donaldson; Capt. Davenport, a Northern Ry. Man, Jos. McCoy; Mr. Armstrong, his agent, Chas. McNeill; Lathrop Page, a Southern boy, Oscar Axelson; Raymond Page, a party of business, Nelson Frost; Deatur, an Anti-bellum servant, Zenas Olson; Mrs. Page, a widow who thinks twice, Alice Smith; Mrs. Stockton, another widow, Jennie Miller; Carey Preston, an Alabama Blossom, Elizabeth Hope; Atlanta Moberly, Col. Moberly's daughter, Edith Swanson.

Director, Prof. Wm. G. Harrington.

German Speaking Society

The German Speaking Society of Washington County will hold a meeting at the Moose Hall, Washington Street, Saturday, March 7, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

BROWN WRITES OF CHICKEN INDUSTRY

Gives His Experience for the Year Just Closed—1913—With Figures

SAYS NOT FINE—BUT TRIES AGAIN

Letter From Sewell Station Resident on Poultry Keeping

"Editor Argus: As this is the time of the year people get the chicken fever, and tell what money they have made, or can be made, I will give you my figures for 1913—my second year in the chicken business.

Stock on hand Jan. 1st, 1913, 135 chickens, worth $104; sold eggs, $171.35; chickens, $89; total income, $280.35.

This gave me $8.95 clear profit. My time was reasonably worth $165, at 25 cents per hour. My buildings, fence, etc. were good, but cheap, costing about $225.

GRAND JURY REPORTS

The grand jury reported 42 true bills last Saturday, and retired to their labors.

Circuit court: Kaminiski vs. Wunderlich, dismissed.

Mable vs. Watrous, tax title case, argued and submitted, and briefs will be filed.

Peters vs. Forest Grove, personal injury case, demurrer overruled and defense given 5 days to answer.

The case of Peder Jacobsen vs. R. Puhols, litigation over a strip of land in the Lenox domain, was argued yesterday morning and is still at bar.

Charles Davis and Frank Stiehler, two men who were charged with stealing 25 chickens and some tools down near Middleton, pleaded guilty and were given one year each in the county jail.

These were the quartet who were caught and sent to jail from Sherwood. The boys are minors, and the lecture given the fathers by Judge Campbell would have humiliated and shamed any one with any considerable degree of intelligence.

Both men promised to make good in the future, go home to their wives and families, and "sin no more." Each claimed that he was out of work and admitted stealing the chickens, and also the mill feed for their horses.

Notice is hereby given that the 1913 tax roll for Washington County, Oregon, will be open for the collection and payment of taxes on Monday, February 2, 1914.

All taxes are due and payable before the 1st day of April, 1914. Half payments can be made before the 1st day of April, 1914, but a penalty of 1 per cent per month will be charged on remaining half payment to be paid prior to September 1st, 1914.

Where no payment is made before the 1st day of April, 1914, the tax becomes delinquent and a penalty of 1 per cent per month is charged from that date to prior to September 1, 1914. After September 1, 1914, a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per year will be charged on all delinquent taxes.

E. B. Sappington, County Treasurer and Tax Collector of Washington County, Oregon.
