Judge Goodin says that the Pythian Lodge at Glencoe has bought property over at North Plains, and last Thursday night voted to erect a brick building on the lot, not to cost less than $3,500. It will be two stories, and the lower floor will be rented as a store room. The lodge can get a contract for a lease before starting to build. This lodge was one of the first in the county to own its own home, and when the base of business shifted from Glencoe to North Plains, a half mile distant, it was thought best to have their home in the new town.
