E. S. BARNES DEAD AT FOREST GROVE

Has World Reputation as Expert Bow Maker in Archery Circles

In Oregon Nearly Thirty Years

Familiar Figure on College Campuses Passed Away Last Friday

Friend S. Barnes, Forest Grove, died Friday, Feb. 27, 1914, after an illness of several months. Mr. Barnes was a well known figure at Forest Grove for nearly thirty years, and he had a great reputation as a manufacturer of archery bows, which he constructed from Oregon yew, and shipped to archery circles all over the world. Every archery club of prominence in the United States endorsed his bows, which he made with a strength and symmetry unequalled by any other. Mr. Barnes was a student of archery, himself, and was a good shot.

He was born at Rose, New York, 25 years ago, and came to Oregon in 1885. He first settled at Forest Grove, but later spent a few years in Portland, where he was engaged by the Friedlanders as expert jeweler. Returning to Forest Grove, he became interested in politics, and for a number of years was prominent in campaigns. He was a great supporter of the late Senator John H. Mitchell, and was at the legislature every year, so that the gentleman was up for election.

He was strong in his friendships, generous to a fault, and had many friends in Washington county.

Mr. Barnes was a veteran of the Civil War, and was enlisted in the New York regiment.

The funeral was conducted Sunday, and a large crowd assembled to pay their last respects. He had lived continuously at the Grove since 1893.

Mr. Barnes is survived by Mrs. Barnes, and a married daughter, residing at the Grove.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been 1721 calves, 20 hogs, 24 sheep, 5264.

This week cattle trade showed soft spots, but was generally good. The big Monday run of steers clipped about 10 cents former prices. Since Monday the receipts have been light.

Other stock on the other hand is firm throughout. Best cows eight 7 and 9, bulls 6, and best 9. Killers have not been supplied on the stuff, and market appears very steady.

Prices dropped back to 870 Sunday, which is 15c under today's price at 885. It is very probable that March receipts will be on a par with February, but so many unexpected occurrences have occurred in the swine market this year the dopesters are gone to cover. Market looks with outlook good.

L. J. Holtz, the Blooming thresherman and baler, was in the city Monday. He looks for good crops again, this year, and has bought a new 18 H. P. engine, and is thinking of buying a new separator, so he will have two threshers, besides the baler and clover huller. L. J. evidently does not want the Blooming and South Tualatin farmers to wait long on their harvest work.

When in Portland stop at the Hotel Eaton, West Park and Morrison Streets, located in the heart of the theatre and shopping districts with all the conveniences of a modern hotel, at reasonable rates.—Glen Hite, Manager.

Geo. Ledford brings a newspaper clipping from a responsible medium, showing that John D. Rockefeller must pay six millions dollars income tax in New York. The Ohio law made him pay twelve millions, so your Uncle John moved to New York, thus saving six millions a year. You or I would move to Zanzibar for six millions.

The North Side Dairy will deliver you milk on city route. Pure milk and cream. Try us. Our product is first hand—we milk and then deliver. Tel. Farmer 436.—D. M. Gillenwater. 41-0

Chas. Follett, the premier locomotive engineer on the P. R. & N., has moved back to Hillsboro, and taken the freight run out of this city to Tillamook. He says the Timber sawmill, the Schofield mill, and the Wheeler mills will all soon be running, and this will mean a great deal of traffic on the line this season.

H. H. Hall, of Shady Brook, was in town Monday.

ALABAMA PLAYS TO FAIR HOUSE FRIDAY EVE

Drama Class of P. U. Render Southern Play Creditably

FINE "AFTER-THE-WAR" ROMANCE

Story of Victory of Hearts Over Prejudice Skillfully Portrayed

A good-sized audience heard the P. U. Drama Class, assisted by E. L. Perkins, present "Alabama" at the Crescent Theatre, Friday evening, and the rendition of the play was excellent. E. L. Perkins, as the Southern planter who held sectional prejudice years after the close of the war, because his son had gone into the Union Army, was the lead in the drama, and he was good more than good. Edwy Dibble, as a relic of the Confederacy, Col. Moberly, attorney and suitor to two widows, was excellent. Too much can not be said for Ivan Donaldson in the comedy part of Squire Tucker, who mixed his justness with affairs of the heart, and finally ended by remaining a bachelor for the Squire was there with bells, all the time. Jos. McCoy, as the railroad man, Capt. Davenport, who was really the son of the old planter, carried his part in a clever manner, and his final reconciliation with his father, acting, both Perkins and McCoy, won the audience from the start, and held it to the finish. Oscar Axelsson, a young man yet in his teens, made a fine impression as Lathrop Page, son of Mrs. Mildred Page, who at the end wedded Capt. Davenport, alias Harry Preston. Zenas Olson, as the ante-bellum negro servant, was a fine character.

Miss Alice Smith, who narrowly lost her home through villainy, was exceptionally good, and her clever acting was a surprise to those who had not heretofore heard her. Miss Jenness Miller, as Mrs. Stockton, the widow who won Col. Moberly, won laurels along lines of vivacity, while Miss Elizabeth Hope, as Carey Preston, who won the young right of way man, nicely represented the Southern Miss of eighteen. Miss Edith Swanson, as Atlanta, the daughter of Col. Moberly, was good.

Nelson Frost portrayed the villain and was in bad with the audience, surely that he was the man for the lines.

Taken all in all the rendition was a credit to the entire cast.

The music furnished by the Hillsboro orchestra, Vincent Engeldinger, piano; Earl Donelson, violin; Fred Zumwalt and Harry Bowman, cornets; O. Phelps, drums; was exceptionally good.

CASES SET FOR TRIAL BY JUDGE CAMPBELL

McNutt and Lane, Arrested in Beaverton, Will Stand a Defense

BANK WINS FROM E. WENSTROM

Young Davis, Arrested With Father, Allowed to Depart, Saturday

Judge Campbell held a session of circuit court Friday and Saturday, and set the following cases for trial:

Nottingham versus Dessinger, March 17.

Coman versus Emmott, March 16.

State versus McNutt and Lane, arrested for attempted burglary, at Beaverton, March 8.

State versus John Howard, liquor case, March 19.

Wesson versus Wesson, decree of divorce.

The celebrated case of the Hillsboro Commercial Bank vs E. Wenstrom, suit to recover on a $1,000 note given for stock in the defunct Peoples Store Company, occupied the best part of two days, the jury finding for the bank in the total sum, and granting $100 attorney fee.

The legal tilt was interesting, Tongue & Tongue being counsel for the bank and John Pipes, son of Martin L. Pipes, of Portland, appearing for the defendant. The jury was out but a few minutes until a verdict was reached. Wenstrom alleged that the note was secured through misrepresentation and that Cook & Clark, who financed the deal, sold it or transferred it to the bank, and that the note was given without value received. The jury: W. L. Parsons, Andrew Pierson, J. C. Smith, A. T. Buxton, Elmer Purdin, H. T. Koeber, D. S. Wilcox, W. M. Smith, Geo. M. Himes, Aug. Blank, Willie Hamel, J. H. Dorian.

Sam Moon Jr., of Centerville, is at the home of Chas. Gardner, this week, suffering from an infected hand, the result of a cut by a saw.

John Lottis and the Lynn Bros., of beyond North Plains, were in town Monday, on probable business.

For sale, cheap: Light team, harness and wagon.—W. C. Bolton, Witeh Hazel Station, on S. P. R. R. address, Beaverton, Ore., Route 4. 50-52

Louis Welch and Luella Avery were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Brooks, Scholls, Feb. 12, 1914. Rev. Homer Cox officiating.

Page Gardner, who has been confined to his room for some time, is so far recovered that he was able to visit the business section, the first of the week.

Irving Higginbotham, the Beaver pitcher, is now in training with the team in Southern California. He expects one of the best years of his service in 1914.

L. E. Shute returned last week from an extended trip to Southern California. He says he missed the rainy places, and was in the dry, as it happened, most of the time.

I have a limited amount of Beavercreek land to sell. Part of it highly developed. $200 and $400 an acre. Terms. Address "B," Care of the Argus, Hillsboro.

Miss Myrtle Butler, of Redmond, Ore., was in town Sunday, a guest at the Mrs. Polly Butler home. She was down making her annual millinery purchases for the Redmond store.

Attorney General Crawford has decided that the ladies must tell their ages when registering, and the secrecy so long maintained by the women of past 40 no longer obtains—provided she believes in voting.

Oregon has 30 inches of rain since September 1 and is still short an inch or two. New York City recorded two inches for the 24 hours ending Sunday noon, while Oregon had less than two-hundredths of an inch. Who says that Oregon is a "too-wet" state.

The first smashup on Main Street since the electric service has been installed took place Friday afternoon, when the five o'clock train pulled through. Julius Chaney and Jos. White, of Groveland, were in the buggy, driving a double team, when one of their cayuses became fractious as the train pulled along. The team backed into the curb, the result was a broken tongue and circle. The boys soon had their conveyance patched up and proceeded on their way home. It was fortunate that no one was injured. As a rule, teams pay but little attention to the coming and going of the trains.

MULLOY IMPROVES

The Mulloy station people, on the Oregon Electric, recently held a basket social at the Carlon school house, the sum of $41 being realized, which is to be devoted to the purchase of lumber for sidewalks, some of which have been laid by funds from a former entertainment—the walks to lead four ways from the school building. Much credit for the success of this last social was due Mrs. C. M. Stites, president of the Parent-Teachers Ass'n., the board of school directors, A. B. Mulloy, chairman, John Thornbreay and Lee Hucklebee and Judge W. E. Mulloy. The program for the evening:
