A few more outlandish state laws and the people will vote to keep the legislature at home.

If some one shall get an initiative bill on the ballot to permit a governor to single out and veto items ridered on the general appropriation bill the coming generation, and many of the present, will call him blessed.

Senator Chamberlain is right in his attitude on the Panama tolls question. Your Uncle Samuel has built that canal, and use should be regulated by the United States. New York papers have given the Oregon senator wide publicity and commendation for his position, making him more than ever a national character.

Portland has sent her first vessel laden with cargo for Alaska. This is as it should be, and Portland will now begin to do business with the North. When the Alaskan railway is built Oregon will be getting its share of trade—thanks to Senator Chamberlain, who championed the measure in Washington.

Reports from every section tell of the worst road conditions so far as mud is concerned that we have ever had. While the rainfall is short of normal, yet it came at such times that the earth is saturated. While there is much inconvenience in bad highways the moist condition always means better crops.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that the 1913 tax roll for Washington County, Oregon, will be open for the collection and payment of taxes on Monday, February 2, 1914. No rebate will be allowed. All taxes are due and payable before the 1st day of April, 1914. Half payments can be made before the 1st day of April, 1914, but a penalty of 1 per cent. per month will be charged on remaining half payment to be paid prior to September 1st, 1914. Where no payment is made before the 1st day of April, 1914, the tax becomes delinquent and a penalty of 1 per cent. per month is charged from that date to prior to September 1, 1914. After September 1, 1914, a penalty of 10 per cent. and interest at the rate of 12 per cent. per year will be charged on all delinquent taxes.

E. B. Sappington, County Treasurer and Tax Collector of Washington County, Oregon.

Men who wear hats of small sizes needn't worry about it. The doctors say that intellect is not a matter of weight of brain. This recalls the rustic proverb, "Little head, little wit; great head, not a bit."

It has been discovered by a Paris physician that injections of sugar bring about the revival of people who are in danger of dying of heart failure. However, almost anything that prevents death is sweet.

That Chicago judge who says married men must be at home by mid night or take the consequences has not added anything to public knowledge. The benedictus have been taking the consequences in large doses for generations.

Collectors are forbidden to disclose the names of those who pay income tax. The government will lose a great deal because of this policy. There are many who would admit an income they don't get and pay a small tax as penalty in order to get before the people as $4,000 men.
