Frederick Heilister, of North Bend, was in the city Priday, meeting with local democrats. He is a candidate for the demoeratic nomination for Congress, and is making a tour of the state. Mr. Hollister is a successful business man, attorney and banker, of North Bend, and has made good in the Coos County metropolis. He is well acquainted with Miles Everett, a former Hillsboro man, and says that Everett is making good in the town of his adoption. Mr. Hollister is a wide-awake young man, and is making an aggressive campaign for the honors of nomination.

H. V. Mead, of Orenco, was a county seat visitor the first of the week. Van may make a run for the legislature this Spring. and if he gets the nomination he will make a scrap to go to Salem. He says that there is one law that he would struggle to get on the statutes - a law permitting a governor to strike out individual items from a general appropriation bill without killing the entire measure. This is a system the Argus has contended for since "Heck" was a youngster, and it would in a measure be one of the most helpful laws that could be passed.

I represent Spirella corsets not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores. Mrs. M. E.
