MILES WATROUS SUES WIFE FOR A DIVORCE

Asks for Custody of Two Minor Children, Daughter and Son

LAST CHAPTER OF MONTHS IN COURT Monday & Here File Papers in Circuit Court Last of the Week

The last chapter in the celebrated Watrous-Naylor case is about to be enacted on the stage of life in circuit court, Bagley & Hare, attorneys for Miles Watrous, having the last of the week filed a suit, for the plaintiff, against Rachel Watrous, asking for divorce and the custody of Hattie, a daughter aged 13 years, and the son, Harley, aged 15 years. The complaint alleges unfaithfulness on the part of the spouse, and names as the co-respondent Geo. F. Naylor, who was convicted of unlawfully residing with Mrs. Watrous, and who subsequently was sued for alienation of the wife's affections. The jury in the last case gave Mr. Watrous $5,000, which was settled a few days after the verdict was rendered.

Mrs. Watrous is now living in East Portland, while Watrous has been living here and at the coast. They were married at Forest Grove in 1896.
