

CANDIDATE LIST IS SLOWLY BEING FILED

No Great Rush Evidenced For Local Elective Offices This Year SAM PAISLEY FOR LOWER HOUSE

The lists for primary nominations in Washington County are not overcrowded as yet. One lone democrat has filed—J. E. Reeves having made known his intention of succeeding himself to the sheriff's office. The Republican nominations up to this morning are:

- Samuel Paisley, of Buxton, for the legislature. He says he wants economy in state affairs, and his slogan is: "For economy and lower taxation; against useless state boards and commissions." H. E. Inslow, of Forest Grove, for the lower house. C. H. Fry, the Beaverton Republican worker, for the legislature. E. B. Sappington for county treasurer. F. A. Everest for surveyor. F. C. Luce for county clerk. Rodell Matteson, Forest Grove, for commissioner. Judge W. D. Smith, for justice of the peace for Hillsboro. Quite a number of candidates are expected to file within the next weeks.

ZIMMERMAN-JOHNSON

Married: At the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Reasoner, Hillsboro, March 23, 1914, Judge Reasoner officiating, John E. Zimmerman and Miss Martha A. Johnson. The bride is a native of Cayce, Kentucky, where for many years, her father, S. E. Johnson, has conducted a mercantile establishment, and acted as postmaster. She has been a resident of Oregon for over a year, the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. Hargrove, whose husband conducts a real estate business.

The groom is a well known and prosperous farmer of the Wallace Settlement, above North Plains, and is well known all over Washington County. He is a prominent Pythian, and is well known a local politics and always has something to say in campaigns, and knows how to say it. His many friends in the county will join the Argus in tendering congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman departed for their home, Tuesday, where they will at once settle down to housekeeping.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas our Heavenly father has removed from earth our beloved comrade, R. K. Simpson, whereby his family lost a faithful companion and father, and this Post a brave and loyal comrade:

Therefore, be it resolved, that Gen. Ransom Post, G. A. E., extend to the widow of our comrade our heartfelt sympathies in this hour of bereavement, and that this resolution be spread on the minutes of this post, and a copy thereof given to the family of our comrade. J. L. Crow, Commander E. F. Stas, Adjt. Hillsboro, Oregon, March 21st 1914.

WUEST-SCHARNACK

Christ Wuest and Mrs. Pauline Scharnack were united in marriage in the court parlors of the officiating Judge, W. D. Smith, Wednesday afternoon, March 25, 1914, at two o'clock. The groom is engaged in tailoring on Second Street, and the bride is a very estimable matron. They have taken up housekeeping in the Greear Building, one door south of the K. P. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Wuest are receiving the congratulations of many friends.

Bring your eggs to Greer's. E. Weichbrodt, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday.

Jasper Keffer, of near West Union, was in the county seat Monday. Thos. Bradley and wife, of below Beaverton, were Hillsboro visitors the first of the week.

New Spring styles and fabric for men's and ladies' suits and coats arrived and on display at Christ Wuest's.

Chester Alexander, one of the first boys on the P. R. & N. to get an engine, was in the city the last of the week.

Mrs. Jos. Delsman and child, of Tillamook, were guests of Mrs. Delsman's uncle, W. V. Wiley, Sunday.

Saturday, March 28, is the last day of Greer's removal sale, and the store will be closed until Thursday, April 2, and will open up as a strictly cash store.

JUDGE CLEETON GRANTS A PENALTY INJUNCTION

Says Taxpayers Can Pay Half of Tax and no Penalty Will Follow

MULTNUMAH JURIST HOLDS LAW VOID

Tax Module is Matter of Such Interest to People of County

Judge T. J. Cleeton has granted an injunction forbidding the county treasurer from placing a penalty on the tax one-half of which is paid prior to April 1. The Oregonian of yesterday, in reporting the decree of Cleeton, says: "There is no legal duty resting upon the taxpayers to pay taxes prior to August 31, and there is no default until September 1." Circuit Judge Cleeton ruled yesterday in the case brought by Attorney Roper Sinnott, president of the Portland Taxpayers' Association, in which he asked for an order restraining County Treasurer Lewis from collecting penalties against persons who have paid one-half of their taxes before April 1.

Though in the suit filed by Mr. Sinnott an injunction was asked restraining Treasurer Lewis from the collection of penalties only against those who have paid one-half of their taxes before April 1, Judge Cleeton went further and declared inoperative all the provisions of the 1913 law which require collection of penalties on any taxes unpaid after April 1, unless the same shall be delinquent. The time of delinquency, Judge Cleeton held, is September 1.

Under the pleadings in the case brought by Mr. Sinnott, in which relief was asked only for those who pay one-half their taxes on or before March 31, Judge Cleeton has granted an injunction only against the collection of a penalty on second-half payments, if the first half shall have been paid before April 1, even though, in his decision, he declared all the provisions regarding penalties which may be collected before delinquency inoperative.

Under the decision taxpayers may wait until August 31 before paying their taxes without penalty. Another injunction suit, however, restraining the County Treasurer from collecting any penalties prior to September 1 may be necessary before the effect of the decision is fully felt. The State Tax Commission met yesterday and says the taxpayer may, may not, or do as he pleases—advice that was gratuitous. The taxpayer can pay it all and avoid chances; he can pay half, and take chances of paying a penalty; or he can pay none and be sure he will get the penalty "soaked" to him—and there you are—wisdom that almost any inmate of the asylum would have fathered. In other words the tax commission gives nothing to indicate what their idea is. On the other hand it isn't likely any one will appeal from Cleeton's injunction—not before the election, anyway.

So far as the Washington County situation is concerned more than likely nothing will be done. Commissioner Nyberg was unable to be present today, owing to an injured foot, and Commissioner Hanley states that he does not desire to interfere in the matter for fear of a mandate, as the Supreme Court may dissolve Judge Cleeton's injunction, should it be carried to that court. He also says that it would not be a matter of justice to make an order in conjunction with Cleeton's decision, as many have already paid the tax. Judge Reasoner says that no action will be taken until he has had legal advice from the county attorney—and the matter may be taken up this afternoon. It appears, on the face, however, that nothing will be done, so far as this county is concerned, and people will take their chances on paying half the tax.

ABSENCE OF HILLSBORO MAN CREATES ANXIETY

Allen T. Fraser, Cement Worker. Neither Seen or Heard From

LEFT THIS CITY SEVERAL WEEKS AGO

Started for Beaverton, or Portland, Fails to Come Home or Write

The continued disappearance of A. T. Fraser, the cement worker, of this city, is causing much anxiety to his wife and friends. Mr. Fraser left Hillsboro several weeks ago, ostensibly to finish a piece of work at Beaverton, and since that day nothing has been heard or seen of him by people of Hillsboro or Portland, to the knowledge of Mrs. Fraser. She went to Portland after he had been absent two weeks, but found only that he had been there. When he left Hillsboro he took $60 with him, and left Mrs. Fraser some change. He told her that he would go through to Portland if the day proved too stormy to work at Beaverton, as he thought he knew where he could get some contract work. He took the money along with him in case he should need it to buy material. When Mrs. Fraser visited Portland she collected some money which was due and waiting his call, showing that he had not asked for the money. Communication, through the Moose order, of which he is a member, failed to locate him, and the police department of Portland have been unable to find him. Mrs. Fraser says that his prolonged absence is unexplainable. He departed in the best of spirits, and he had no financial strain upon him. Fraser was a good workman, reliable and trustworthy, and was sober, as well as industrious.

Letters have been despatched to Southern Oregon in the hopes of finding him near the coast line, where there is said to have been plenty of work in his line, and it is feared that he has become sick in some out-of-the-way place, where no one knows his home address. Some think that he has met with foul play, or perhaps has been placed aboard of an outgoing vessel.

JUDGE CLEETON GRANTS A PENALTY INJUNCTION

Judge T. J. Cleeton has granted an injunction forbidding the county treasurer from placing a penalty on the tax one-half of which is paid prior to April 1. The Oregonian of yesterday, in reporting the decree of Cleeton, says: "There is no legal duty resting upon the taxpayers to pay taxes prior to August 31, and there is no default until September 1."
