MAD DOG RUNS AMUCK AT TIGARD STATION

P. C. Hoffman and James North Bitten By Frenzied Canine

DR. WHITE SAYS CASE OF RABIES

The Two Men Will Take Pasteur Treatment From Dr. Calvin S. White

A case of canine rabies developed at Tigard, on the Oregon Electric, last Tuesday, and as a result P. C. Hoffman and James North were bitten and will take the pasteur treatment from Dr. Calvin S. White, of the State Board of Health. The dog belonged to P. C. Hoffman, and on Tuesday night the animal ran out of the store and started fighting every dog that was in its path. Mr. Hoffman rushed out to get his dog, and was bitten on the wrist. Mr. North then tried to catch the animal, and was also bitten. The mad dog bit several dogs in the middle, and it is said that the night before it had bitten quite a number of Tigard canines.

The dog was finally shot, as was the dog of W. Kruger, and one belonging to Harry Kuehne, both of which had been bitten. The head of the canine was sent to Dr. Calvin S. White, Wednesday morning, and the laboratory showed that it was a case of positive rabies. It is hard to tell how many dogs have been inoculated as the Hoffman canine was with a drove Monday night, and there was constant fighting.

Deputy Sheriff Applegate went to Tigard Thursday night, and found considerable excitement as the result of the incident.

The two men will take the pasteur treatment, which will last several weeks. Dr. White was telegraphed to Washington, D. C., for a large supply of the serum, and will take care of the men under state charge and expense.

Dr. White has called for a history of the case, but the only information is that the dog was a stray, and came to the home of Mrs. Decker, at Metzger, and from there went to the Hoffman home, where it has been kept for four years.

The State Board has advised that all dogs in that section of the county be tied up so as to prevent a repetition of the incident. The cases will be watched with both interest and anxiety.

SCHOOL NEWS

at No. 81, McKinley school, organized an Industrial Club with Martha Berger Pres.; Marie Bier, Vice Pres.; Chas. Trachsel, Secy., and Marie Berger, Treas. Miss Victoria Schmidt is teacher and advisor. This is one of the largest one-room schools in the county, 47 pupils being present last Thursday. A new school house is being talked of in the district. This would be a splendid improvement, and one that is much needed.

The Barnes school Dist. No. 57, organized an Industrial Club with Vern Martin Pres., Clair Martin, Vice Pres.; Birdie Downing, Secy., and Lillian Miller, Treas. Miss Violet Taylor, the teacher, was elected advisor.

Teachers of the county should be especially interested in Miss Ruby Shearer's presentation of primary work at the teachers meeting at Orenco, next Saturday, April 11. Miss Shearer was the Monmouth Normal until this year, when she was appointed primary supervisor in the Portland Schools.

Deputy Recorder Seeks Nomination

Fred A. Everest, duly registered Republican, hereby announces himself as Republican candidate for the Office of Recorder of Conveyances of Washington County. I am a resident of Hillsboro, am Deputy Recorder, and will say that if I am nominated for the office at the primary nominating election, to be held May 15, 1914, I will accept the nomination and will not withdraw, and if I am elected, I will, during my term of office, give due care, and to the best of my knowledge and ability perform the duties of the office with neatness, accuracy and dispatch, being familiar with the work, and will serve the public efficiently and will at all times be courteous and attentive.

Dr. F. E. Wolfe, of Medical Lake, connected with the state institution established by Washington State, was in town the past week, the guest of his cousin, C. C. Frick, whom he had not seen for a number of years.

SHERIFF REEVES BACK FROM MEXICAN LINE

Says Future of Imperial Valley Means a Garden of Eden

TELLS INTERESTING STORY OF SOUTH

Brings Back Guy Porter, Caught at the Boundary City of El Centro

Sheriff J. E. Reeves returned from El Centro, Cal., last Thursday evening, bringing with him Guy Porter, charged with appropriating to his own use funds belonging to the dairymen of North Plains and vicinity. Porter came without extradition papers, and is in jail, awaiting the action of the grand jury. It is understood that he will plead guilty to the charge.

Sheriff Reeves had a day in El Centro, and he spent a few hours in the great Imperial Valley, which for gardens, will mean another Babylon. Water from the Colorado River has been diverted, and irrigation covers thousands of acres, and in the future will cover a million or more. Alfalfa, cantaloupes, fruits, oranges of all varieties, and citrus fruits thrive there, and Mr. Reeves says if he were a young man with a few hundred dollars he would go to the Imperial Valley to make a start in life.

Mr. Reeves went down into Mexico, for twenty miles or so, and says that the belligerency there is not as pronounced as farther to the South, but two or three days before he arrived there was a skirmish between the federalists and rebels, and four or five men were killed. Calexico, just across the boundary line from El Centro, is the Northern Mexican Monte Carlo. Mr. Reeves says that there you will find hundreds of American renegades, there in evasion of the law of the United States, and gambling houses are in every resort. "The palmy days of gambling in Batte is not to be compared with Calexico," said Mr. Reeves, Friday. "I went through the town in company with the chief of police, and found that the authorities practically winked at the games of chance, and, perhaps, benefited, as well as the government officials getting a rakeoff. While there I met Jos. Stream, formerly of Forest Grove. He is doing well in the insurance business, and I was surprised to meet him. I also met Fields, formerly of Forest Grove. But you can be assured I was glad to get back to Oregon, where people are stable, as a rule, and I appreciate Oregon and Washington County more than ever."

The latest bulletin, a neatly bound book, issued by the Great Northern in the interests of home-seekers, contains a scene of the John T. Rice beaverdam, growing onions. The scope takes in the Forney and Heywood residences, near Varley. The book also contains a handsome cut of a farm at Forest Grove; a hop ranch near Tualatin, and a garden tract at Sherwood.

Taken up: Dark bay horse, about 3 years old. White in forehead. Owner prove property, pay charges, etc., and take same away.—R. Imbler, Cornelius, Oregon. 1-3

The Owyhee Avalanche, published at Silver City, Idaho, in its issue of last week, states that the rich ledge recently uncovered at the Rath Mine, in which Ernest Hellaire is interested, is widening rapidly, and predicts that it will make the owners all rich. Geo. Hellaire is working at the mine, and his North Plains and Glencoe friends wish the family all the luck in the world.

The Women of Woodcraft will give a dance Saturday evening, April 18, at the W. O. W. Hall, 1 mile west of Cedar Mill. Good music. Everybody invited. 4

Deputy Sheriff DeGross, of Tigard, notifies the sheriff's office that he has killed fourteen dogs as a result of the trouble in that place, last week. Every owner who had a dog that was liable to have been bitten was more than willing to have the execution, for there is nothing more fearful than the horrors of a possible bite.

White Leghorn and Crystal White Orpington eggs for sale. Per setting of 15, price $1.50; $3 for 50; and $5 per hundred.—C. H. Northrup, Hillsboro, Route 1, Box 32. 2-4

B. Leis, the Beaverton orchardist, was an Argus caller, the last of the week. Mr. Leis has done more to educate people in the matter of care of orchards and in spraying than any other individual in the county, and he has one of the finest orchards of its size in the Willamette Valley.

Eggs from Mammoth White Pekin ducks, $1.50 per setting of 15.—S. F. Goodwin, one mile west of Hillsboro, top of hill, on Baseline Road. 2-4

Dr. F. E. Wolfe, of Medical Lake, connected with the state institution established by Washington State, was in town the past week, the guest of his cousin, C. C. Frick, whom he had not seen for a number of years.

Wm. Ryan, formerly of this city, now living at Ryan Place, on the Electric, was in the city Monday.

Ira E. Bradley, now farming up at Monroe, Benton County, was in the city the last of the week.

J. W. Goodin, of North Plains, and T. P. Goodin, of Orenco, were city visitors the last of the week.

Hon. E. W. Haines, of Forest Grove, was down to Hillsboro, Friday, attending a meeting of the republican county central committee.

T. G. and Geo. Meacham, of above Mountaineer, were in the city Saturday, before county court on the matter of rock haul, and other business.

A pair of glasses, in case, lost by some one, was picked up the other day and left at this office. The owner can have same by calling at the Argus.

Geo. G. Hancock, cashier of the First National Bank, of Forest Grove, was transacting business in the county seat the last of the week.

J. H. Wilson, the former restaurant man of this city, returned the first of the week from North Bend and Marshfield, where he has been in the restaurant business.

Miss Tillie Grossen, of near Helvetia, found a rosary, on the street, in this city, the other day, and left it at this office, where the owner can get it upon proving property.

Carl Frederick Leopold Braun, of Newton, was in town Monday morning. Mr. Braun celebrated his 81st birthday, March 29—but he still takes good care of his eight acres east of town.

Ladies are requested to call at the Paris Millinery Store before they buy their Spring hats, as the prices are right. Good hats from $3 to $5.—Mrs. M. L. Berdan, Second Street, near Washington, Hillsboro.

Pictures of Hon. Jas. Withycombe, republican candidate for governor, are being displayed in Hillsboro. Mr. Withycombe's friends claim that he has an excellent show for the nomination, so many being in the race.

G. G. McCormic, owner of the water system at Garden Home, was in town Friday. He says that his community has secured concessions from the electric, in the matter of transportation for Garden Home people.

W. W. Boscow has had the most attractive window of the season, the past week. About a score of young ducks were in display, and the way the little fellows performed in a vat of water caught all passers.

Gardening is now in vogue about the city, and there is complaint that plants are being eaten by the "bugs." The lack of much freezing weather is liable to mean a great deal of trouble of this kind this year. But Oregon always turns out plentiful, anyway.

Hon. S. R. Huston, of Portland, will run for the legislature in Portland, the ticket being selected by business men. The list of twelve is made up of men of ability, and Multnomah promises to have a delegation this coming year that will give us some wholesome legislation.

FORTY-ONE THOUSAND FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS

Superintendent Barnes Sends out the April Allotment

FOR EACH PUPIL OF SCHOOL AGE, $5

Reports 8222 Between Ages of Four and Twenty

Superintendent B. W. Barnes last week sent out the April school apportionment. The amount involved reached the sum of $41,110, and is five dollars for each person of school age—that is, between the ages of four and twenty, the number of children being 8,222. Hillsboro district, No. 7, receives the largest sum of any district in the county, with Forest Grove a close second.
