

HILLSBORO WINS IN FIVE INNINGS

Plinius Takes Part in a Game, Sunday Afternoon

SOHLER KNOCKS A HOME RUN

Victory for the Locals Was a Matter of a Close Shave

The Verboort nine played the Hillsboro locals, Sunday afternoon, in a hotly contested five-inning game, victory perching on the banners of Hillsboro by a score of 3 to 2.

While Verboort lost, the memory of the screamer over the fence will cheer the lads up in the future contests.

The line-up:

- Hillsboro: Verboort, Phelps, J. Sohler, Henderson, K. Kemper, E. Henderson, H. Lenton, McCurdy, M. Janes, H. Schulmerich, C. Sohler, C. Henderson, Bernard, Higby, Spiering, Martin, L. Vandehey.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received up to May 1st, 1914, for moving K. O. T. M. Hall from Greenville to Banks, a distance of two miles.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. M. Kessler, Banks, Oregon.

DICK-BLOCK

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, April 8, 1914, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Block, Portland, when their daughter, Mary Olive, was united in marriage to Conrad H. Dick, of Hillsboro.

PROGRAM

On the evening of Apr. 8, at the Jacktown Schoolhouse, Dist. 17, a splendid program was given by the Jacktown Literary and Debating Society.

There were several good numbers on the program, but the main feature was a short drama, "The Surprise Party," which was well rendered, and the two leading characters in this play, Uncle Jeremiah and his wife Hannah, as presented by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson, were well received.

The program was followed by a pie social, at which the pies were sold to the highest bidder. This sale netted the Society nearly $30, which goes to show that the people appreciated their efforts to give them a pleasant evening.

Committee Receives Word Carnegie People Have Appropriated

WORK SOON STARTS ON STRUCTURE

Site is on Lincoln Street, Corner of Second

Architect Ernest Kroener was in the city yesterday, conferring with the Carnegie building committee. The Carnegie Corporation last week granted the appropriation of $10,000 for the structure.

The building will be a story and a half—that is, will have a basement and one general floor.

Hillsboro has long needed an institution of this kind, and while it will be considerable of a burden in maintenance it is confidently expected that it will be well worth the annual expenditure.

H. T. BUXTON BECOMES BENEDICT

Pioneer Bridegroom Springs Surprise on Friends and Minister

An unusual double wedding took place at the home of H. Thurston Buxton, in the suburbs of Forest Grove, Wednesday, April 15, 1914, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Miss Ethel Buxton, daughter of H. T. Buxton, was united in marriage to Walter O. Gardner, Rev. Stivers, of McMinnville, officiating.

After the wedding the party was seated at a delightful dinner. Mr. Gardner is in charge of the sale of tickets for the P. E. & E. at Corvallis.

The bride is a popular young lady of the Grove, and the young couple have a host of friends who wish them every happiness.

Ward Downs, who is in Eastern Oregon, exporting books for the county authorities, sends the Argus a copy of the Arlington Record, that for candidates' announcements and statements, takes the Tango.

By sly, cunning and somewhat gliding enquiry and strenuous investigation I have found that the Legislature needs me worse than I need the Legislature.

Being an unselfish and sacrificing disposition I. George Crawford do myself an independent candidate for representative to the legislature.

I would have done it yesterday but I didn't have time. This is not all—but it is enough.

Another candidate, out for county judge, is also in a class by himself, when it comes to a unique setting forth of his "principals."

Don't fail to call at Hotel Washington, Saturday, April 25, and let Drs. Lowe & Turner show you the new, double-vision glasses.

They look like a single pair, yet answer the purpose of two. They enable you to read or do close work and see distant objects perfectly.

They make you feel young, but do not make you look old. Free demonstration. Satisfaction guaranteed. Remember the date. Scores of references.

Sunday, April 19, at 11 a. m., in the Free Methodist Church, Miss Edna Rowan will speak.

Miss Rowan has a winning personality, is in love with her work and above all is a whole-hearted Christian in character and life.

She is the general secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion branch of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Miss Rowan's mission to Hillsboro is chiefly in the interest of the children. For two years she had charge of the L. T. L. in Kansas.

For one year was National associate secretary of the L. T. L. In 1911 she was elected to take charge of this work in the nation.

Her sweet disposition, her love for the work, and her adaptability to the children makes her a success.

You will do well to send your children if you cannot attend in person.—Contributed.

Dance at Helvetia Hall, May 2. General invitation to all. Hesitation waltz and one-step specialty.—H. T. Ford, manager.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Haworth, of Knoxville, Tenn., their son, Earl, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Caghen, arrived here this week.

and are guests of Gus Lewis, and other former Tennessee friends and relatives. They went to Harrisburg today, where Mr. Haworth has a brother.

This is Mr. and Mrs. Haworth's third visit to Oregon—and another trip or two may make them permanent residents out in the coast state.

Mrs. Louisa Hostetler, of Holmes County, Ohio, who is visiting her son, Wm. Hostetler, of Portland, came out the first of the week.

and is the guest of her brother, C. Blaser, and family. Mr. Blaser learned for the first time of the death of his eldest sister, who passed away eighteen months ago.

Mrs. Nettie Steve, of near Tigard, has sued E. Kroner for $5,000 damages, asserting that on March 8 the defendant struck and kicked her to the extent of injuring her so that her nervous system is permanently shattered.

She also asserts that she paid a doctor's bill of $100. The case will be heard in circuit court.

James Gibson, of Reedville, was in town today. Mr. Gibson will be 80 years old next Tuesday.

He has never had a physician but once in all his 69 years of residence in Washington County, and he says he still enjoys his three meals every day.

R. Christensen, of the Nehalem, was in town yesterday morning, and filed two wildcat pelts with the clerk of the court, receiving eleven dollars for his prowess as a hunter. They were killed in this county.

W. B. Taylor, of Scholls, was up Wednesday, transacting business and greeting friends. Mr. Taylor is still dairying, and says that while it takes attention it is about the best thing a farm can support.

Carl Iler, of Timber, returned the first of the week from a trip to Morrow County, where he has bought 1100 acres of wheat land, near Heppner.

He expects to get busy with his new purchase in the not distant future.

Frank W. Hill, of Gaston, was down to Hillsboro, yesterday, on business. Hill is one of the native sons of the county, and his father was the late Almor Hill, pioneer pathfinder.
