C. E. Runyon and wife are now in Egypt, where the genial circuit court reporter had a conference with the Sphinx. This colossus was built one thousand years before Christ, and it is yet a marvel as to how it was constructed. Mr. and Mrs. Runyon will do all of Northern Africa as well as continental Europe. In a recent letter to Judge Campbell Mr. Runyon says that Gibraltar, the British fortification city at the mouth of the Mediterranean, is "some city." They will return to Portland mid-Summer.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584. 50tf

Anna Delude, of Portland, has filed suit in circuit court, here, asking for a divorce from her husband, Nelson Delude. They were married at Oregon City, in November, 1912, and the wife, from her complaint, evidently thinks she was "deluded." She asks for title to property which she claims belonged to her at marriage.

Easter Sunday witnessed the usual big church crowd, although the weather was rather inclement. The morning opened rather fair, but by noon old Jupe Pluvius was busy with his water supply. If the old saying of seven wet Sundays holds good it will be a dampener on the national game of baseball.

Personality in a candidate always counts, as well as ability. It is extremely hard to find a republican who is not going to vote for Tom McBride for the judgeship nomination, here in this county, and it is also hard to find a democrat who will acknowledge that he is going to vote against the veteran jurist this Fall, at the general election.

May 1, the County Clerk will close the registration books, and all wishing to vote in the primary must have registered by that time. The primary takes place May 15. After the primary there will be 172 days for the candidates to get acquainted with the voters.

Contractor Walt Taylor put in the foundation for the Bump building, adjoining the Crescent Theatre, the first of the week. He will have charge of putting up of the building, which will be concrete, fireproof, and its dimensions will be 40x40.

H. E. Allen, the contractor, is erecting a $4,000 residence for Wm. Brogden, in Brogden Acres, near Sewell Station, on the Electric. C. A. Rogers, living on the Acres, has just finished a new home, and several others will build there this year.

The Portland, Eugene & Eastern is picking up considerable travel locally, these days, notwithstanding the Electric has cut its time into Portland. Central location both here and at Portland have something to do with the change.

The court yard is now covered with its annual blue-and-gold, and presents a beautiful appearance. A Umatilla squaw would have fine doings on the turf, digging camas, for one of the blooms is from that plant.

The Oregon beauty, the dogwood, is in full bloom in Oregon forests, now, and a trip to the "green forest" affords the eye a surfeit of white.

Mrs. Edythe Tozier-Weathered, of Portland, was in town Sunday, a guest of the family of T. S. Weathered. She visited Carlton, Monday night, and was at the Forest Grove meeting Tuesday evening.

Jacob Schmidt, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday. He has finished hauling in his Burbanks, and has practically all of his Spring work completed.

Fred Haase, of South Tualatin, transacted business in the city Monday. He says that many out his way have sold their potatoes since the recent raise in prices.

J. H. Foote and mother, Mrs. Perry Foote, were Portland visitors, Monday, to attend the bedside of Mr. Foote Sr., who is convalescing from a surgical operation.

Miss Priscilla Hobbs, who has been attending Salem High School this Winter, has been ill with tonsillitis the past week.
