PACIFIC U. OFFERS SOME CASH PRIZES

Fifty Dollars Goes to Best 300-Word Essay

TWENTY-FIVE FOR BEST JOKE

Chance for High School Students to Achieve Fame

Pacific University sends out the following offer, which should be of interest to High School students:

"Great interest is being manifested in the contest now being conducted by Pacific University between the High Schools of Oregon and Southern Washington, in which a $50 prize is to be awarded to the Senior writing the best essay of not more than 300 words, and a $25 prize is to be awarded to the High School student writing the best joke of not more than 30 words. The contest closes May 15, and is under the management of George C. Blower, Extension Secretary of Pacific University.

The essay contest is open to High School seniors only. Subject, "Is the Four-year Liberal Arts Course a Paying Investment?" The joke contest is open to all high school students, but must be written about a Senior. Beside the earning of the prizes, the winners will have their pictures, with their productions, run in the Portland Oregonian and in the Portland Journal. A brief sketch of the winners' lives will also be published, together with a short history of the school represented. Every High School in the joke contest will receive special public mention, including the best joke submitted from the school.

This is a chance to win for yourself, your home, your high school, and your town. Get busy! The world loves a winner.

All communications must be mailed to George C. Blower, Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon, not later than noon, May 15. Note the date—the middle of the month!"

A slight hail storm visited Hillsboro Monday afternoon. Considerable fell in the mountains, but there was not enough for damage to fruit.

For lunch—pickled pigs feet, home made sausages and hoglinas.—H. R. Emmott.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.
