

GERHARD THOLIN GETS PAROLE FROM COURT

Pleaded Guilty to Cashing Spurious Check at Timber in 1913

BEAVERTON MAN GETS TWO FINES

To Pay One and Was Paroled on $300 Fine Imposed by Campbell

Gerhard Tholin, a young man coming from a good family, was in court this week, to plead to cashing a spurious check, his victim being Frank Jensen, proprietor of the Wigwam, of this city. The transaction took place at Timber, in 1913. Tholin went from there to Salem and Portland, where he again repeated his bad work, but only in small sums. Tholin pleaded guilty, and having paid up the scores was paroled during good behavior. His sentence was from 1 to 5 years.

Peterson, the Beaverton saloon man, changed his plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty in the case where the State charged him with sale of liquors to minors. The court permitted Peterson to plead unlawful, but not willful sale. He was fined $150 on one indictment, and $300 on No. 2. The court allowed Peterson a reasonable time to pay the $150 and paroled him as to the second offense, this only during good behavior. In case he violates the law Peterson will have to pay both fines, or serve at $2 per day until the account is squared. Peterson alleged that he did not know the boys were under age.

J. T. Parkinson was given a divorce from Bertha, his spouse. Leo Schwander and Peter Grosvenor were excused as jurors, for the term.

Anna Parker vs D. C. Whitling, decree of default, and judgment.

Packard Co. vs People's Store Co. was dismissed.

The court adjourned at noon yesterday, to convene this morning, to take up the Scott case.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given, that the building committee of the proposed Carnegie Library for the City of Hillsboro, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for the construction of said library, upland including Saturday, the 2nd day of May, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. Plans and specifications can be had by application at the office of the undersigned in Hillsboro, Oregon, at the office of Ernest Kroner, Architect, 623 Worcester Bldg., Portland, Oregon. The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

M. H. Stevenson, Secretary, Office of Wilkes Abstract & Title Co., Second St. Opp. Court House.

Dated at Hillsboro, Oregon, this April 22, 1914.

ANNIVERSARY

At their home at Crest View Farm, near Milkaps, Sunday, April 19, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cuddy observed the 35th anniversary of their marriage. For the first time in years all the members of the House of Cuddy were present, with the exception of a son-in-law, who lives at Walla Walla. There are eight children and nine grandchildren and to transport them kept the team and surry in commission between the depot and the farm nearly all day. Dinner was served at 3 o'clock, and it consisted almost wholly of the products of the farm. Those who answered the tribal roll were: Mr. and Mrs. Cuddy; M. T. Madsen and wife; and Teddy; Clyde and "Bill Taft" Madsen; W. J. Cuddy Jr. and wife; and Hazel and Wicky Cuddy, of Portland; Oscar F. Folkenberg and wife, and Virginia Folkenberg, of Holbrook, Ore.; Oscar H. Peterson and wife, Mildred and Dorothy Peterson, of Forest Grove; Mrs. E. E. Rogers and Edwin E. Rogers Jr., of Walla Walla, and the Misses Rose, Gladys and Daphne Cuddy.

J. Miller and family were up from below Reedville, yesterday.

Alphonse Hendricks, the Cornelius merchant, was in the city the last of the week.

Just received—a new lot of Patent Sun Proof paint.—D. Corwin.

Henry Challacombe, of Cornelius, was down the first of the week.

Don't overlook Red Letter Day, Saturday, at A. G. Hoffman & Co.'s store, Forest Grove.

Born, to A. A. Hodges and wife, of Hillsboro, April 21, 1914, a daughter.

For sale: Fresh cow, 6 years old, with a heifer calf. Also some work horses. Pleasant Home, Hillsboro, Route 2. Phone Reed 515.

A justice court jury in Judge Smith's court this week brought in a verdict of $134 for Dan Kellaher, against Preble, Samson & Co., for wood cut out at Connell Station. It appears that Thos. Sweeney, the contractor, had a contract with the firm to cut a lot of wood at $2 per cord, delivered at the United. Sweeney took the contract on the representation that all of the timber was good, and when he had about 100 cords cut the trees turned out "punk," and he threw it up. They refused to pay him, except $50 on account, and Sweeney turned his account over to Dan Kellaher, who brought the action. The six jurors, consisting of Jas. Anderson, Andrew Jack, R. P. Simon, H. T. Koerber, L. J. Rushlow and E. L. McCormick, went to Connell, Monday, in a rig, to view the premises. Returning, they deliberated until midnight, and then rendered their verdict. They found conditions in the timber just as Sweeney had stated. Sweeney is well known here, having put in cement work on the sidewalks, a year or so ago.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 146.

Probate: Estate Lucinda Jackson, deceased, closed of record; Martha Shaffer appointed administratrix estate of Lois Harris, deceased, property of same being 79 acres in Alberta; L. A. Long, August Tews and Benton Bowman named as appraisers. John Loftis appointed administrator of the estate of the late Margaret Rice, bond filed in sum of $600. Estate of Johan Pape, deceased, set for final accounting, May 25. Final account of estate of Littleton Lindsay set for May 25. Final settlement of estate of N. I. Burnett set for May 25. Final settlement of estate of John Olson set for May 25.

For sale—Three year old German Coach filly, broke single and double, nice to handle. Also auto seat buggy. Price for both, $300.—W. A. Marlin, Twelfth and Oak, Hillsboro. 5-7

Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, candidate for governor on the dry platform and abolition of useless commissions; enforcement of every criminal law on our statute books; for national prohibition and national suffrage for women; for paying taxes semi-annually and other necessary reforms, will speak at the court house in Hillsboro, Saturday evening, April 25, 1914, at 7:30. All invited, especially the women.

Dance at W. O. W. Hall, North Plains, Saturday night, April 25. Tickets, $1. Supper extra, at Christener & Hirsch's, Toelle's orchestra. 2t

The Reedville baseball team defeated the Farmington Outlaws last Sunday, at Reedville, by the score of 9 to 4. Batteries for Reedville, R. Jack and F. Shane; for Farmington, W. Robinson and G. Washington. The feature of the game was the steady pitching of Ross Jack. The Reedville boys will cross bats with Laurel next Sunday on the home grounds.

Dance at Helvetia Hall, May 2. General invitation to all. Heintzinger waltz and one-step specialty.—H. T. Ford, manager. 4-5

In another place for bids for the construction of the Carnegie Library. The committee will open the bids May 2, or shortly thereafter. Local contractors will bid on the structure, and it is said that a number of Portland construction firms will also submit figures.

Rhode Island Red eggs, for hatching purposes.—Mrs. Max Crandall, on Maple between Second and Third. Telephone City 497.

Some miscreant took a knife and slit the tire on one of the auto wheels of Mayor Bagley's machine, Tuesday evening, while the auto was standing in front of the Hillsboro National Building. Such wantonness is hard to conceive, but the world appears to be full of such.

A Matrons' Contest, in which eight ladies of Scholls will compete for the silver medal, will be held at the Artisan Hall, Scholls, May 2, at 8 p. m. An excellent program, interspersed with music, is promised. Don't miss it. Watch for the program in next week's issue.

Have pasturage for limited number of cattle. No horses.—Hawthorne Ranch, 3 miles east of Hillsboro.—J. Soper. 3t

There will be Episcopal services at the Methodist Church, next Sunday at 2:45, the Rev. Mr. Chambers, of Portland, conducting the services. All are invited.

Red Letter Day, Saturday, at A. G. Hoffman & Co.'s Store, Forest Grove. Bring in your books for free stamps.

Fred Brown, of Shady Brook, was a city caller yesterday.

FIVE RESIGNATIONS AT HILLSBORO HIGH

Teachers Walked Out This Morning, After Student Body Voted

THINGS DOING IN SCHOOL CIRCLES

Director Bagley Says School Will Continue With New Teachers

As the final outcome of the student body voting on the popularity of teachers in Hillsboro High—the claim being made that the school board directed the vote—five teachers this morning, or late last evening, tendered their resignation to Supt. McKay, and did not appear in the class rooms this morning.

It is alleged that Mr. Burt had made application to retain the position he has held this year, and this precipitated the warfare. The teachers claim that the school board suggested that the students vote on the popularity of the teachers as an indication of the standing of the corps.

This was done, anyway, with the result that every instructor had some negative votes. It appears that all of the teachers represented the procedure, and after the student body had called the teachers in, and read the result, there was indignation among the corps.

The teachers involved, and who resigned, are: Mr. Burt, Miss Bollinger, Miss Boldrick, Miss Denhart and Miss Paddock.

Director Bagley stated this morning that classes would be heard today and tomorrow, and that by Monday morning the vacancies in the corps would be filled, and all would resume its usual calm.

The school has been doing nicely all year, and the trouble arising at this time came like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky. It is to be hoped that the affair will be straightened out immediately and that the school will again have smooth seas.

Negotiations are under way this afternoon to have the resignations withdrawn.

SURPRISE

A surprise and farewell party was given Friday evening, April 17, 1914, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitlocke, in honor of F. Sheldon, who recently sold his farm near Laurel. The house was decorated with dog-wood blossoms.

A very pleasant time was spent in playing games and music, after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies. They presented Mr. Sheldon with a leather suit-case, and wished him a safe journey to the East.

Those present were: Messrs. L. Brown, E. S. Crawford; Rev. and Mrs. Able; Mrs. Beckwith; Misses Mary Kirkness, Marian Crawford, Agatha Beckwith; Messrs. F. Sheldon, Harry Cline, Jas. Cruijckshank, Will Harvey, Ed Morrow, Amos Watkins, Jas. Beckwith, Leonard Crawford and Walter Smith.

BALL GAME NEXT SUNDAY

The Kenton Giants, a spicy Portland team, will play the Hillsboro nine next Sunday afternoon. The Giants have a good line-up, and they are coming loaded for the locals. Go out and see the game.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received up till May 1st, 1914, for moving K. O. T. M. Hall from Greenville to Banks, a distance of two miles.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. M. Kessler, Banks, Oregon.

By order of trustees, John Herb, Pres. John Friday, Vice Pres. J. M. Kessler, Sec'y.

Next Monday and Tuesday, the People's Theatre will have a genuine thriller, a three-reel photo play, Captain Jenny, S. A. This shows a theatre scene that has startled the world of theatre-goers, and will leave a lasting impression. Remember the dates—Monday and Tuesday. Regular prices.

The case of State versus Scott is on trial today, the state's witness, the little eleven year old Bowbeer adopted child, having been on the stand over an hour this forenoon. The case is one that can have but little publicity. The jury trying the case: Ed Morton, Jacob Shearer, Ernest Olson, Wm. P. Brooks, Joseph W. Kyle, Geo. C. Thompson, John Olson, A. V. Denny, Samuel E. Graff, Wm. Thornburgh.

For sale—Shepherd pups.—Frederick Grogg, Hillsboro, R. 3.

Argus and Oregonian $2.25

Born, April 21, 1914, to R. Hornecker and wife, of near Newton, a son.

Born, to Hon. S. A. D. Meek and wife, of near North Plains, April 20, 1914, a daughter.

Sam Sorenson, of near Reedville, was greeting friends in the city Wednesday.

William Hanson, the Scholls flour and feed mill proprietor, was in town yesterday.

John Koch, the Blooming road supervisor, was in the city yesterday, on business with the county court.

When you were in did you get one of those go-carts for $1.85? Hillsboro Furniture & Hardware Co.'s Big Sale.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sahnou, on the Dick Collins place, one mile north of Hillsboro, April 19, 1914, a son.

We are going to have another big meeting Saturday at the Hillsboro Furniture & Hardware Co.'s Big Sale.

Loren Jackson was in from the ranch yesterday, and says that Contractor Smith is getting along nicely with the new residence.

For Sale—Upright piano, first-class condition. Would take good cow as part payment.—Address Hillsboro, Box 103.

S. S. Barnes, of McMinnville, was in town this week, the guest of his son, B. W. Barnes, county superintendent of schools.

The army of buyers at the Hillsboro Furniture & Hardware Co. gets sanitary cots for $4.65. Big sale.

Earl Donelson and D. E. Blackburn were out to Mountaineer, yesterday, on a fishing expedition.

For sale—New Winona wagon, 3 inch; Osborne mower.—Roy Hays, one mile south of Hillsboro, near Condenser pumping plant, to left of highway. 5t

Thos. J. Willis and Fred Keller, of above Mountaineer, were in town yesterday afternoon. They report the roads as getting in fine shape.

Fruit men say that cherries are too far advanced to receive injury from the slight frosts of the past week. Cherries are set finely in most localities.

Farmers everywhere are taking advantage of the good weather, and if rain holds off for ten days all crops will be sown excepting in the extreme lowlands.

The coming of Spring has rejuvenated "Bill" Cuddy, of the Oregonian, and he is now making daily trips between his home and Eighth floor of the Oregonian building.

Wm. Schulmerich has been nursing an attack of "milkleg" the past week. Schulerich regrets the suggestion that it is "housemaid's knee," and says he isn't around the house enough for that malady.

Mrs. N. J. Walker, well known at Forest Grove and Gaston, was here the first of the week, the guest of her son, J. W. Brock. Mrs. Walker is the mother of Wilson Brock, who years ago was in the drug business where the Delta is now located.

Contractor Beatty is rushing work on the Shute Building, corner Second and Main, and will have it ready for occupancy by May 1. The building will present a very natty appearance on the ground floor, when completed.

Eastern Oregon is planning for a "corn show" this fall. If the Willamette Valley could know what J. T. Morrison, until recently a farmer of below Witch Hazel, has done in corn production, there would be many a corn field flourishing in the valley of the Gods.

Attorney John M. Wall, Leo Perkins, Ed. Morton, Jas. Anderson, Lou Adams, Wm. Mahon, J. B. Wilkes, Geo. Stevens and Jos. B. Williams were among those who saw Portland beat Venice, Tuesday. Big Higginbotham was pitching for Portland, and the visitors saw him win his game 7 to 4.

FIVE YEARS IN JAIL BUT GETS A PAROLE

Gay Porter Released This Morning, After Paying all Claims

ALSO PAYS FOR TRIP GETTING HIM

Man Who Bilked Farmers Aided by His Aged Mother—Always a Friend

Gay Porter, who bilked farmers on Forest Grove Route 2, in the Roy and Dudley Mill section, a year or so ago, is now a free man, Judge Campbell having paroled him this morning. Porter was indicted on five counts, and Judge Campbell, upon his plea of guilty, sentenced him to one year in the county jail, on each count, one sentence to begin as soon as one was finished.

Porter's mother had come to the rescue. Judge Campbell granted the parole only on consideration that Porter should not only pay back the money to the farmers, but also pay the costs of bringing him back from Calexico, Cal., near the Mexican line.

Porter's mother sent the money up the first of the week, and all the claims were squared before Porter left the county jail, a free man. Besides the cost of bringing back Porter, which was $220, and which was paid, Porter dug up the following amounts:

- M. King, Roy.....$81.45
- W. H. Bagley, Cove Oak.....160.00
- W. F. Heinrich.....12.65
- Daniel Ennes.....20.00
- C. E. Davis.....60.00
- M. R. Beebe.....38.94
- John Campbell.....10.00
- Wm. Philip.....43.35

Mr. Porter leaves at once for Southern Oregon, and it is safe to say that he will tread the narrow path, as he must report to the sheriff each month, and any violation of law will land him back in the Washington County jail.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and obsequies of our child, Olaf, and return special thanks for the beautiful floral offerings.

A. L. McGregor and wife, F. Johansen and wife.

MISS LAURA GLASCOE

Miss Laura Glascoe passed away Wednesday, April 22, 1914, at the home of Mrs. E. C. McKinney, after several months of illness. She was born near Harrington, Wash., Oct. 11, 1889, and was the second daughter of Harrison and Frances Glascoe. She came to Hillsboro in 1900, and since that time has made her home with Mrs. McKinney. For several years she was connected with the Argus composing room.

She leaves to mourn her loss her father and mother, two sisters and two brothers, Miss Mabel, of Seattle; Miss Viola, Jack and Lester, at home, Hillsboro.

Miss Laura was a member of the Queens of Avillon of the M. E. Church, and was active in the work of the organization.

The funeral takes place tomorrow at 2:30 in the afternoon, at the home of Mrs. McKinney, Rev. Vallandigham conducting the services. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

Argus and Oregonian $2.25

The two lads who robbed the Gardner home, at Quatsam, several weeks ago, have admitted their guilt. The jail had six prisoners, Monday—Tholen, the forger; Porter, charged with getting milk money from North Plains farmers, Davis, the Forest Grove forger; the two Quatsam robbery boys, and Frank Scott, charged with the statutory offense.

Frank Schultheis, of Bethany, was a city visitor Tuesday, having just returned from a trip to San Francisco, in search of health. Mr. Schultheis was in the hospital the greater part of his time while in the South, and found it necessary to return home. The Argus and his many friends wish for him a speedy recovery with the advent of Summer weather.

Sheriff Reeves went to Portland, Monday evening, to examine the remains of the floater found in the Willamette River, the first of the week. It was thought that the body might be that of Allen Fraser, who disappeared several weeks ago. It was not, however, as Mr. Fraser had marks that would be beyond question.

The four-year-old daughter of a Mr. Wickizer, who lives in East Hillsboro, was severely scalded this morning. The child's sister was carrying a pan of hot water, when the little one jostled her, spilling the contents over the head. Dr. Erwin dressed the injuries, and thinks no marks will be left.

Mrs. Abigail B. Haskell, aged 94 years, died at Forest Grove, Wednesday morning, April 22, 1914, after seven years of invalidism. She passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Ferrin, wife of Hon. W. N. Ferrin, for years President of Pacific University. Mrs. Haskell was born in Ohio, and came to Oregon in 1896. For a number of years she was connected with the work of Pacific University. She leaves to mourn her loss two daughters—Mrs. Ferrin and Miss O. A. Haskell. She was the grandmother of G. H. and J. Wheelock Marsh, of Portland, both of whom are well known at Forest Grove.

One never knows how close old Man Death is floating along in these days of rapid transit, automobiles, etc. The other day Ferd Groner was driving along the Newton-Hillsboro road in his big National touring car, at a ten mile speed, when one of his axles broke, letting the wheel separate itself entirely from the car. Ferd was not even shaken up, but it made him enter a brown study to know that but a few minutes before he had been hiking along at a 35-mile clip. Had the axle broken at that time Ferd might have been in kingdom come, and wouldn't have been able to have taken his car to the garage.

Group No. 7, of the State Bankers Association, comprising Washington, Columbia, Tillamook, Clatsop, Clackamas and Yamhill counties, will be in Hillsboro, Saturday, May 9, for a meeting. A. C. Shute, of the American National, is arranging to entertain the visitors, and he will be assisted by the Commercial Club, in order to make their visit here a pleasant one. Mr. Shute was instrumental in getting the session to visit this point, and from 60 to 80 members of the association are expected to be in attendance.

Mrs. Thos. Rood, wife of Conductor Rood, of the P. R. & N., running between Portland and Tillamook, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, guest of Mrs. L. A. Rood. Mr. Rood and wife leave in the morning for an extended visit with Mrs. Rood's relatives at Bloomington, Ill. They will go as far East as Chicago, and expect to return about June 1, when Rood will resume his run on the Tillamook line.

Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, candidate for governor on the dry platform and abolition of useless commissions; enforcement of every criminal law on our statute books; for national prohibition and natural suffrage for women; for paying taxes semi-annually and other necessary reforms, will speak at the court house in Hillsboro, Saturday evening, April 25, 1914, at 7:30. All invited, especially the women.

Jos. Brandenburg, of above Mountaineer, was down to the city yesterday afternoon. Some relative whom he has never seen died in the old country and left Jos. about $25, and he was having his draft cashed while in the city. Jos. has always been a hard worker, and earned every dollar he received until this came along, and he says it is the first easy money that ever came his way.

Rudolph Keller, weighing over 300 pounds, defeated Henry Olson, at Banks, last week, in a wrestling match, Keller getting two straight falls. Keller is a youngster, but has action and muscle as well as weight. The winner is a nephew of Fred Keller, of Mountaineer, and he is working for Christener & Hirschey, of North Plains.

Banks will play the All-Star Japanese Nine, of Portland, next Sunday. Portland amateur fans say the little brown men are good sports, and that they can play ball with spirit and skill. Banks expects to have a good crowd out to entertain the visitors. Hillsboro may take them on later.

The Ladies Sewing Club, of Farmington, met at the home of Mrs. H. H. Rehse, Thursday, April 16. Piano solos were rendered by Mrs. H. Rehse and Mrs. Fred Stevens. A dainty lunch was served at five o'clock. All report a good time.

John Wunderlich telephoned in that Banks is going to play the Japanese All-Star team of Portland, next Sunday. The visitors have a good team and the game will be close if Banks gets off right.

Jos. Hickenbottom departed Tuesday for a trip to Lewiston, and Kendrick, Idaho, and other points close to the British line. He goes on business, and expects to return in a week or two, at the latest.

The first guns and the last guns make 9x10 rugs sell at $4.15 at Hillsboro Furniture & Hardware Co.'s big sale.

Miss Gladys Hill, of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Ferguson, this week.

Mrs. Chas. E. Riggs, of Orenco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Emmott, and other relatives, this week.
