Argus and Oregonian $2.25 W. J. Weston and son, Alfred, of Sherwood, were city visitors today. Take a look at our new 5-10-15 cent tables.—D. Corwin. 521f Perry Gardner, of Quatama, was in the city the first of the week.

Nelson Larsen, the road supervisor of below Newton, was in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. F. Windler, of Portland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Krebs, this week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clell Carstens, of Banks, April 20, 1914, a boy. Claus Jesse, of Christie Station, on the United, was in the city yesterday, and called on the Argus.

Lady's wheel for sale at a bargain if taken at once. Call on or address Floy Ferguson, bet. 5th and 6th on Railroad Street.

Anton Persinger, of Route 1, has received word from Omaha that his grandchild, Mercedes Jacobberger, died April 20.

Miss Eugenia Morse, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. M. M. Pittenger, the last of the week. Miss Morse was formerly a teacher in the Hillsboro schools.

For sale: Fresh Jersey cow, 6 years old; with calf; gives ten pounds of butter weekly; price $125.—Anton Persinger, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 1. 6-8

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cornelius visited with J. M. Brown and wife, above Banks, this week. Miss Mary Brown returned with them, and will remain for a few weeks' visit.

H. Peterson, of near Farmington, was a city caller yesterday, bringing up some charcoal, in burning of which he is a past master. With all his 73 years Peterson walks as straight as one of the pines back in Sweden.

Frank Atkins, working for Leonard Tompkins, while loading cars at the S. P. depot, Friday, badly injured one of his knees. Dr. Hyde attended the injury, and placed the member in a cast.

Guy Bennett, a carpenter on the P. R. & N., working at Roy, severely split his foot this morning, with an ax. He was brought down in a caboose, and the injury attended by Dr. Erwin, the road surgeon.

Contractor M. C. Hewitt has another large barn to move down in the Orengo country. He has also submitted a bid for moving the K. O. T. M. hall from Greenville to Banks.

Francis Linklater, while cranking an auto last Saturday, had one of his arms fractured. Dr. Leon Hyde attended the injury. The lad has lost no time at school, but as it is his right arm he is out of the writing exercises for a period.

Ed Kerr, the blacksmith, had a $10 gold piece changed by Postmaster Lamkin, the other day, when that official discovered that it was of the mintage of 1862—a date rarely seen on gold pieces in this section. The gold was from the California mines, minted after the excitement of 1849.

J. E. Zimmerman, of beyond North Plains, writes the Argus that the rural route No. 1, out of Scappoose, has been discontinued because of the bad road in the Multnomah end of the stretch. John has been forced to change his mail to a route out of Hillsboro, all because of poor roads in a county that always boasts of its fine thoroughfares.

Mr. Frank, who was associated with Verne Curry, in business at Orengo, will leave in a few days for Eastern Virginia, for permanent residence. He has been here for five years, and likes the country, but says his health demands that he get back to the "Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia." J. B. Phillips, well known here, will also trek back to the Tennessee—Virginia section before long.

Grover Combs will move his furniture store this evening and in the morning, and will open to the public this Friday, in his handsome new quarters in the Shute building, remodeled this month by Contractor Beatty. Mr. Combs wishes to thank the people of Hillsboro and vicinity for their patronage, and assures the public that he will be better equipped than ever to supply the wants of the community in the furniture and housefurnishing line. He now has the most handsome quarters for a furniture establishment to be found in the county. You are invited to call and inspect his stock.

Circuit Court: Dennis vs L. M. Hoyt, decree for the defendant; Pubols vs Jacobsen, suit for land title, set for trial, May 28; Behrens vs Bruehl, confirmed; W. D. Smith vs McCarthy, set for May 28; Pubols vs Jacobsen, set for May 29; Roy Heater vs Cook & Clark, heard yesterday and taken under advisement; Drainage District vs Hubert Bernards, now on trial, matter of condemnation—jury now viewing premises—Wm Brooks, Chas Farnham, Jos Kyle, E. R. Morton, Chas Casteel, Jno Olson, Samuel Graf, Geo Thompson, Jacob Shearer, Wm Thornburgh, Ernest Olson, John A Olson.

It might be news to many of the friends of deceased to learn that James Gray, for many, many years the shoemaker at Glencoe, is dead. Gray left here and went to Ontario, Canada, where he died several weeks ago from an attack of heart trouble. Gray was a fine workman, and for many years made boots and shoes for scores in that section of the county, as well as in Hillsboro. He was a fine old gentleman, well read, courteous and jovial. He disposed of all of his property here before going back to Canada.

Stella Hart, Julia Buck, A. Gaynor and W. O. Jeffs have brought suit to cancel a contract signed by them, providing for the sale of timber on Section 26, T. 1, S. R. 3 W., wherein they were to receive $1,251 per M. They allege the original contract was made with John Peterson, but that Peterson signed the contract by writing R. H. Peterson's name. R. H. Peterson, the plaintiffs allege, is a minor son of John Peterson, and they claim they have no contract with the boy. They want the agreement annulled and set aside.

Lawrence McAlear, the 10 year old son of the foreman at the Hillsboro Lumber Mill, fell from a pair of stilts last Thursday evening, and broke the ulna—the tip of his elbow. The fracture was of such a nature that Dr. Smith sent the boy to a Portland specialist. The younger brother, who was also enjoying himself on stilts, concluded they were a menace and soon had both pairs reduced to kindling.

The registration up to yesterday totalled 3380 republicans; 1254 democrats; and 61 Progressives. Every precinct shows a big republican registration over democratic, as usual, excepting two—Aloha and North Cornelius. Aloha has 72 democrats to 71 republicans, while North Cornelius has 66 democrats to 57 republicans. The four Hillsboro precincts register 608 republicans and 139 democrats.

Probate: Estate Josiah Beal closed of record: Benton Bowman, J. Kerr and B. C. Cook, appraisers estate of Wilson B. Maitland, deceased; Estate Alice Sandford, deceased, closed of record. The sum of $7500 is ordered distributed to the legatees of the late Larkin Reynolds.

Dr. Smith this morning removed a piece of bone from the thumb of Harry Bissner, who was injured in San Francisco, several months ago. The bone had never healed, and it was necessary to take a portion of it away. Dr. W. D. Wood assisted.

Mrs. Henry Henderling, of Cornelius, was operated on for a fibroid tumor at Dr. Smith's hospital, last week. She is getting along nicely.

W. H. Reiling, Chas. Bucher and Matt Engeldinger have been working overtime getting Dr. Wood's Elmore Park cottage erected, over on the Tillamook beach line.
