GOLDEN WEDDING AT A BLOOMING HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krahrmer See Fifty Years of Wedded Life

ALL THEIR CHILDREN ARE PRESENT

Highly Respected Couple Have Open House at 50th Anniversary

A very pretty golden wedding was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Krahrmer, of near Blooming, Sunday, April 19, 1914, when their surviving children and their families, and a host of friends were entertained at the Krahrmer home, in observance of their fifty years of wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Krahrmer were united in marriage in Germany in 1864, and in the fall of 1865 came to America, settling in Alleghany County, Penn. In 1877 they came to Oregon with their five children, settling at Cornelius. They bought a farm two and one-half miles south of Cornelius, and have made that place their home ever since coming to the state.

Bride and groom are highly respected, and have a host of friends in that section of the county. Rev. Berthold, of the Blooming pastorate, was present to conduct the exercises. A bounteous dinner was served to the eighty guests, and the reunion was fraught with happiness.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Krahrmer, and seven of them survive, all of whom, with their families, were present at the celebration: Mrs. Hulda Fmrick, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Annie Asbahr, wife of Julius Asbahr, South Tualatin; Mrs. John Freudenthal, Hillsboro; Mrs. Ida Schoen, wife of Fred Schoen, Blooming; Edward Krahrmer, Jr., Blooming; Hermah Krahrmer, of Gaston; and Charles Krahrmer, of Blooming.

Eugene Dant, of Reedville, was up yesterday. He says that the Spring frosts have done no injury down his way, except perhaps to thin the fruit, here and there, which is considered a good thing, as the blooms would have been too heavy for a good product. Cherries will be a splendid crop, after all, and all other fruit is coming along nicely.

The Oregon Electric has restored the early morning train, leaving for Portland now at 6:29, instead of 6:44, as the schedule has been maintained for some weeks. The new timetable, as corrected yesterday, will be found on the fifth page of the paper.

Gordon Brown, who played third base for Hillsboro in the "good old days," was out to the city yesterday, taking orders for Pacific Paper Company. He is not in the game these days, but watches the score board, just the same.

There will be a meeting of the ministers of the city to consider the social interests of the young people of the city. The meeting will be held May 6, at 2:30 p. m., in the Methodist Church parlor. —F. E. Fisher, Sec.

George Russell, of Gaston, was down to the county seat Tuesday. Geo. is very proud of that first child presented him by Mrs. Russell, over in Tillamook, a few weeks ago.

Clay Freeman and Geo. Stevens went to Scoggins the first of the week, and landed a catch of sixty trout.
