There are a number of men and women who have registered who will be surprised when they try to vote at the primaries May 15. These are the ones who neglected to state their party affiliations. Some of them have corrected this error at the last hour. After this when they register with the expectation of voting at the primary they will tell the registering officer what their political belief is Of course they can vote at the general election, but in the primary the registration must show the dinger. politics. Clerk Luce and Deputy Normal; Miss lia Minercy. Kuratli have told all the fact when they registered, but many refused to divulge their party preference.
