JAMES GRAY KILLED ON CARLTON RAILWAY

Young Man had Just Started Firing on a Seventy-Ton Shay

Both Legs Cut Off at Knees

Hillsboro Boy Suffers Accident—Dies Two Hours Afterward

James Gray, aged 22 years, died about four o'clock, Friday afternoon, May 8, at Carlton, two hours after an accident in which both legs were cut off above the knees. Young Gray had started firing on the logging engine on the Carlton logging road, that morning. The engineer lost control of the locomotive about 15 miles out of Carlton, and repeated efforts were made to sand the big machine, but to no avail. Something went wrong with the sandbox, and Gray was trying to get it to work. Whether he jumped, or fell from the sway-lane locomotive the engineer does not know, as he was watching his duties, and trying to get the engine under control.

Gray rolled under the wheels and besides losing both the legs, had internal injuries. He was rushed to the Carlton hospital, death ensuing two hours afterward.

James Gray was well known in Hillsboro, where he had resided for years. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, his father being track man for years for the Tillamook line.

He was a well-behaved, industrious young man, and had a host of friends.

The inquest was held Saturday, and the remains were brought to this city for burial.

The funeral took place from the family residence, Sunday, and interment was in the local cemetery. A large concourse of friends attended the last rites, and there was a profusion of flowers, attesting the popularity in which the young man was held.

The parents of the young man have the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends.

PURLOINER OF COW TELLS STRANGE STORY

Caught in at One Time for $53,000

Now in Hard Circumstances

STOLE ANIMAL FROM NEWBERG MAN

Was Taken to Yamhill County the Last of the Week by Sheriff

Chas. W. Bowhay, an Alaska miner, was caught by Thos. Embling, in detection of Sheriff Brown, last Friday afternoon, near the Rock Creek bridge, below Newton. Bowhay had stolen a cow from S. N. Bateman, of Newberg, and was bringing the animal to Hillsboro to sell it. The Newberg officer telephoned Brown of the loss of the cow early Friday morning, and the sheriff soon had the man located at Helvetia, heading this way. He sent Embling out to intercept him with the result that Bowhay was caught and lodged in jail. Bateman came over the same evening and went on to McMinnville, where he swore to a complaint. Sheriff Henderson came down and conveyed the prisoner to the Yamhill capital.

Bowhay does not look like a criminal, and he tells a strange story of want and hardship. He says he was at one time an Assessor miner, and that he cleaned up $53,000 in one deal. His wife was in delicate health, and he sent her to Portland for treatment. While she was absent he invested his surplus cash in another venture, and in a short time he was down and out.

The health of his wife was such that he was obliged to come to Portland. There was nothing for him in his line, and he took to writing insurance. He eventually was started with the company a hundred dollars, and he was at his wife's ends, he says, and conspired to go out and steal something and sell it in order to get money to square himself with the company, and avoid criminal charges. The poor devil did just exactly what brought him into trouble—that no one can hear his story without feeling compassion. He has two young sons—and the arrest will be a hard blow for the family.

Attorney Geo. M. Brown, of Roseburg, was here the last of the week, looking after his political fences. Mr. Brown is one of the republican candidates for attorney general of the state, and he thinks that he has a good show of getting the nomination. While here he was introduced by E. B. Tongue, Mr. Brown has been district attorney down in Douglas County, and has a record for enforcing the laws.

Ladies are requested to call at the Paris Millinery Store before they buy their Spring hats, as the prices are right. Good hats from $3 to $5.—Mrs. M. L. Beaman, Second Street, near Washington, Hillsboro.

The County Track Meet at Forest Grove was postponed last Saturday, on account of bad weather, as was also the Pacific University Mayday exercises. Heavy rain fell Friday, and the promoters of the track meet, wanting all the schools to make a good showing, thought it better to set the meeting at a later date. As the weather turned out, however, Saturday would have been an ideal day for the exercises.

For Sale: Portable gasoline, 41 H. P., engine and drag-maw; 15 gal. of gasoline; lot of wood-chopper's tools, all for $150. Inquire of J. J. Nussbaum, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 1.

Sam Moon was in from Cetterville, Saturday. Sam was one of the horsemen of former days, who, with the late Riley Cave, always had an annual show of the best in horseflesh, and the event was always a feature in Hillsboro. "Those were the good old days, my boy," Sam says when his mind runs back to the olden times.

John A. Jeffrey, who defended John D. Rosclair against the charge of murder, is running a solo on the democratic ticket for the nomination as attorney general. John A. is some campaigner himself, when he gets started, and he will very likely land the plum, as he has no opposition unless it is written in.

Farmers were more than grateful for the heavy rain of last Friday. Almost all of them had finished seeding, or were in the last stages of crop finishing, and the rain was badly needed. The precipitation meant thousands of dollars in value for the tillers of the soil.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bergen, of East Hillsboro, May 11, 1914, a son. The visitor is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison, of Fair Acres, and also of Mrs. Bergen Sr., who makes her home with the happy parents.

Agent Ling, of Wells-Fargo, is down at Albany, this week, taking care of the express office in that city, while the Albany agent, who is running for county clerk, goes out campaigning. Ling will return the last of the week.

A. Benschmidt, of near Cornelius, was in town the last of the week.

Herman Bernards, of Verboort, was in town Friday afternoon.

HILLSBORO GARNERS ELEVEN INNING GAME

Best Exposition of Baseball Yet Seen on the Local Grounds

SCORE OF THREE TO TWO, SUNDAY

Maccabees Come With a Pitcher Who Strikes Out Dozen Men

Duke McCurdy was responsible for the winning of an eleven inning game at Athletic Park, Sunday—and he was responsible for a lot of excitement, as well. The Maccabees, of Portland, one of the best Amateur clubs in the state, were contending with the locals, and the game had gone to the last half of the eleventh, when McCurdy, with but one man out, sent a safety past the third base line, and brought G. Henderson in from third base with the winning score. McCurdy did not take the trouble to go down to first, although he had all kinds of time. He knew there was but one out, and that was enough. The Maccabee manager, however, went out and insisted that the run could not count, as it was necessary that the play must be completed. He also insisted that the base-runner who scored should be sent back to third base—an unheard of proposition. After consultation of the rule book Umpire Dr. Smith told them that the score was earned, and must stand, as the rule book clearly states that when a man goes to first, second, third and fourth, with but two men out—granting that McCurdy was the second "out"—there was a score.

The game was the best yet seen on the local ground, and barring an error or so it was clearly league stuff. Burnett pitched seven innings, and while he was wild at times the best the visitors could do was five hits and one of those was a sacrifice. VanBlaricom went in in the eighth and pitched good ball, allowing no hit.

Knudson, an eighteen year old slabster, pitched for the visitors, and he exhibited the best stuff on his curves yet seen on the local field. He struck out twelve men, and had control all the time. He was some pitcher, and the boys should feel proud that they walked away with the game, under the circumstances. Knudson had something on the ball all the time.

With the score tied two and two at the end of the seventh there was some excitement for the next four innings. In the last half of the eleventh G. Henderson got a base on balls, and later stole second, and then third. McCurdy's eye caught the ball for the winning out—and it was all over. The Maccabees can always get a good crowd when they visit Hillsboro, as they are a classy nine.

Geo. Alexander umpired the infield. The positions and line-up were as follows: Freeman.....cf.....Parks McCurdy.....ss.....Engles G Henderson.....3b.....McDonald E Henderson.....2b.....Blondie VanBlaricom.....rf.....Concannon Higby.....1b.....Spidhol Moyes.....lf.....Merritt Wunderlich.....c.....Flystinger Burnett.....p.....Knudson

Changes—VanBlaricom took the box for Burnett in the 8th; Phelps took the catcher's position for Wunderlich; Brown took first base for Higby, and G. Henderson took the field.
