Mrs. Katherine Schouermans, of near Blooming, was badly burned by the explosion and ignition of a pot of linseed oil, which she was heating on the stove, yesterday. She grabbed the pot of oil and ran out of doors with it and one of her hands is so badly burned that it may be necessary to amputate. Dr. Smith dressed the burns and found that the patient was badly burned on her arms and the side of her face.

There was a spotted hail and rain storm passed over the county last night, shortly after seven o'clock. Near Reedville the storm resembled a cloudburst, while at Witch Hazel a mile and a half this way, there was dust in the roads after the storm had passed. Portland had quite an electric storm, and the power plants were out of business for a few minutes.

Creigh Long sustained a sprained leg the other day by reason of his auto skidding and turning turtle, below Newton, last Friday evening. He was laid up but a day or so, and was then out exercising a limp all his own. None of the other boys in the machine were injured in the least.

Dr. F. A. Bailey, who travels extensively over the county, reports that crop conditions were never better at this time of the year. Upland seeding is over and farmers on the lowlands are putting in their best efforts to finish up this week.

J. D. Housley, well known here years ago, has traded his Amity farm for the interest of F. E. Norton and G. A. Hoover, in the Banks Mercantile Store. Mr. Housley will move to Banks at once. The deal was in the sum of $14,000.

Dr. F. J. Bailey returned the first of the week from a trip to his orchard lands down near Grants Pass. He reports things looking fine down that way; and a much better crop prospect than was reported a short time back.

Ward Downs is now experting books for the county up at Condon, and his Hillsboro friends are thinking of sending a note of condolence to him during the warm spell, for it gets some hot up there.

By Sunday the vote will have been counted and we will then have a rest on politics for a few weeks—and then comes the real campaign, with all its frills and worries.

From inquiry it would appear that Judge Bennett will get a substantial plurality in Washington County for the democratic nomination. It is very hard to tell who will land at the top so far as the republican ticket is concerned. Crawford and Withcombe have all the shade of the best of it, but no one can say which is the stronger.

Ernest Schaer and Miss Hedwig Dytke, of the Betmany-Phillips neighborhood, were united in marriage, May 14, 1914, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dytke, Rev. Hoffman officiating. They will make their home on the farm of the groom. The bride is a well known young lady of her community, and has a host of friends who are tendering congratulations. She is a sister of Mrs. Kuratli, wife of Deputy County Clerk Henry Kuratli.

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Lodges will hold their Grand Lodge session at McMinnville, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Those attending from the local lodges are Mrs. C. W. Burt and Miss Angie Harrington, as representatives, and Past Grand President, Mrs. R. H. Greer, of the Rebekahs. C. E. Deichman, Benton Bowman, Dr. Marshall and E. L. McCormick, of the I. O. O. F's.

The series of meetings at the Christian church closed Monday evening with an illustrated lecture on Ben Hur. This feature was given in conjunction with Ben Hur lodge, by Rev. G. E. Williams, who has been conducting the revival services during the past four weeks. Twenty additions were made to the church membership.

Earl Donelson sustained a broken nose this morning, his motorcycle skidding while dodging an Oregon Electric train, on First Street, this morning. Dr. Elmer H. Smith attended his injuries. He was not otherwise injured by the fall.

Dr. Erwin the first of the week operated on a Mr. O'Neil, of Reedville, for hemorrhoids. The patient is at the Gardner sanitarium.

GOLDSTEIN

(Published by request)

At the court house, on last Friday evening, Mr. David Goldstein lectured under the auspices of the local division of the Knights of Columbus. The subject of his lecture was "Socialism vs. Christianity."

It may be said briefly and significantly that what Mr. Goldstein does not know of Socialism is not worth knowing. His knowledge is first-hand knowledge. He did not acquire it in the schools or the opponents of Socialism. He learned his lesson from the Socialists themselves. He has gone directly to the fountain-head. So much the more authentic, therefore, are his opinions. So much the more are they founded upon certitudes and the assurance of an intimate experience. David Goldstein was once the most vigorous and aggressive of Socialists. He knows what he is talking about. Pas est ab hoste doceri.

To the most casual observer it is at once evident that Goldstein is a born fighter. But he is much more than that. His is not the strength which smiles and stays in a momentary passionate onslaught. His victories are assured and secured more scientifically if less demonstratively. He knows how to bide his time. With artistic subtlety of approach he plans his way-faring into the camp of the enemy. Smilingly he advances into the intricate and unpathed labyrinth of Socialist teaching. Onward he presses his undaunted way until he reaches the central abiding-place of his opponents. But all the time he has held fast to the thread which is the earnest of his safe return to the ways of sane and sound thinking, and when the moment of conflict is come, he strikes. He never needs to strike twice. The first blow is always the last. Since the first of March of this year Goldstein has traveled ten thousand miles within the boundaries of the United States. He was sent out on missionary work by the organization under whose auspices the Hillsboro lectures were delivered. His voice has been heard from the shores of the East even unto the shores of the West. In every town in America his task has been the same—to combat the tenets of socialism. David goes forth against Goliath. Goliath invariably gets the worst of it. You have no difficulty in understanding why—that is, if you know David!

The lecture in the court house was a fine example of sustained and eloquent and reasonable invective. The lecturer set out to prove that the commonly accepted body of Socialistic teaching was patently subversive of Christianity. He succeeded triumphantly in proving it. He showed that the Socialist leaders gave their adherence to the materialist theory of history. He quoted chapter and verse. The rest was easy. Having definitely established the fact that the standard Socialism is rooted in and founded upon Godlessness, he pursued the teachings of the Socialists to their logical ultimate. He depicted the chaotic state of affairs which would result were Socialism to become the faith and the fashion of the world. Under the crashing vigour of his inevitable conclusions and his passionately vigorous logic, the edifice of all the modernisms toppled and fell like a house of cards. The man whose ringing eloquence and insuperable dialectic ability had dealt the blow stood smiling before the thunderous applause of a convinced and delighted audience.—Contributed.

SHERIFFS' SALE ON FORECLOSURE.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an execution, decree and order of sale issued out of and under the Seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, dated the 22nd day of April, 1914, in favor of John R. Greenwood, plaintiff, and against Robert J. Upton and...

JOHN MANNING

Democratic Candidate for Governor

An District Attorney of Multnomah Co. Mr Manning compiled the officers of Democrat Title, Guaranty & Trust Company to pay $300 depositors, 100 cents on the dollar, with interest, when they had been offered a settlement of but 30 cents. This difference amounted to the sum of $1,967,000.

His private and public record is clean, and such well known pulpit orators as Dr. Casence True Wilson and the Rev. Henry L. Bark by Bishop for Oregon of the United Brethren Church, are personal friends and earnest supporters of his candidacy.
