T. J. CLEETON

Circuit Judge for Multnomah County
Candidate for the Republican nomination for VICE OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Primary Election May 15

A candidate for one of the four places to be filled at the forthcoming primary election. He stands for a reformed procedure in the law courts. His policy has been and will continue to be: "Less delay, less technicality and more justice."

Some of his more important decisions show where he stands. Among these are the minimum wage law, the abatement act, the commission merchants' act, all up to date; the tax penalty law, held invalid as to levied on unpaid taxes prior to September 1st; these laws are along the lines of progress and of vital importance to the people. More than four thousand probate and circuit judges have gone through Judge Cleeton's court and have been on the bench, not one has been rejected by the Supreme Court.

Judge Cleeton is regarded as a Washington County judge who has served the people here as prosecution for two terms, from 1896 to 1900. adv.

VETERAN ASSOCIATION MEETS AT THE GROVE

Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year, With J. L. Crow at Head

OLD BOYS GIVEN A FINE TIME

Program, Auto Rides About the City, and Banquet For Visitors

The Washington County Veteran Ass'n. met at Forest Grove last Thursday, and it was one of the most successful annual sessions held in many years. The weather was splendid, and there was a large attendance. The Veterans and the auxiliary, the W. R. C., assembled at ten o'clock on Pacific Avenue & Main and formed in line. The formation was:

Veteran Drum Corps;
Members G. A. R.;
Ladies of the W. R. C.;
Forest Grove Band;

Teachers and pupils of public school.

The line of march led around the public square, up Main to the public school building, where were massed the teachers and pupils of the High School, and the exercises of a flag presentation were filled. After prayer by the pastor of the M. E. Church, the flag was presented by W. A. Williams, who in behalf of the Post and the W. R. C., made an eloquent, thoughtful and impressive presentation address. As the flag of our country was hoisted to the breeze there was a splendid demonstration.

The line of march was then resumed and the veterans and ladies proceeded to the K. P. Hall for their annual business meeting. The election of officers followed—

J. L. Crow, Hillsboro, president; R. W. Whitney, Forest Grove, 1st Vice.

E. F. Sias, Hillsboro, 2nd Vice; W. J. R. Beach, Forest Grove, Secy-treas.

Jos. Butler, F. Grove, Chaplain; R. W. McNutt, Cornelius, Flag Custodian.

Adjournment was made for dinner, and a bounteous spread was enjoyed.

A memorial was presented on the death of the late R. K. Simpson, of Hillsboro, consisting of an obituary and a song, composed by E. F. Sias, and the Lord's prayer, by the assembly.

The program was—

The following resolution was unanimously adopted.

"Resolved that we, the Washington County Veteran Ass'n., do most earnestly protest against the effort being made by certain congressmen and others to desecrate the American flag by amalgamation with the Confederate flag, and further Resolve: That Old Glory shall forever continue to wave with stars and stripes as from sixty-one to sixty-six."

At the close automobiles were furnished, under the direction of J. A. Thornburgh, for a ride about the city, many taking advantage of the offer.
