Deputy Recorder Seeks Nomination

I, Fred A. Everest, duly registered Republican, hereby announce myself as Republican Candidate for the Office of Recorder of Conveyances of Washington County. I am a resident of Hillsboro, am Deputy Recorder, and will say that if I am nominated for the office at the Primary nominating election, to be held May 15, 1914, I will accept the nomination and will not withdraw, and if I am elected, I will, during my term of office, use due care, and to the best of my knowledge and ability perform the duties of the office with neatness, accuracy and dispatch. Being familiar with the work, I can and will serve the public efficiently and will at all times be courteous and attentive.

Adv. Fred A. Everest.

BAKING CONTEST

A Cottolene Baking Contest will be held Friday evening, May 15, at the Hillsboro Furniture & Hardware Co.'s store. Everyone is invited to participate in this contest, as the prizes are worth working for. Anyone wishing further information concerning the contest may phone Mrs. Shinaberger, President of the Social Circle of the Christian church, who has it in charge.

Don't forget Portland Rose Festival dates—June 9 to 12 inclusive. The only change of importance in the program has been the complete elimination of Rex Oregonus and the substitution of a "Queen of Rosaria" who will be the sole reigning monarch during Festival week. The election of Her Majesty and her maids of honor is now on and the polls will be open until the night of Saturday, May 16. The queen and her court will be given a grand tour of all the principal coast cities prior to the opening of the Rose Festival.

Teams started Tuesday morning with the new election booths, and the supplies packed by Clerk Luce. Sheriff Reeves has had to supply new booths for 17 or 18 new votes, and he says that where votes come rapidly there will not be enough, even now, in some of the larger precincts. By Fall, however, this will be remedied as the court will doubtless buy another supply. This is the largest election distribution job the county has ever known.

Attorney Geo. R. Bagley says he is not inclined to view stage rides with the complacency of some travelers, as he had a "sufficiency" on his recent trip to the Coquille country. In going in and out Mr. Bagley walked altogether twenty-two miles, over roads that would put to blush some of the worst highways in the Tillamook counties.

Architect Ernest Kroner, who furnished the plans for the Carnegie library in this city, has been appointed to draw plans for the McMinnville new school building, which is to cost upward of thirty thousand dollars. Mr. Kroner is now a resident of this county, having his residence at Tigard.

Geo. Flagg, formerly of St. Helens, is now working in the composition room of the Independent. His father, E. H. Flagg, years ago was editor of that paper, and also established the Democrat, later going to Forest Grove.

There are baseball fans and fannettes—but the real blown-in-the-bottle fan—the simon pure master fan, is Wm. Bronaugh. When it is up to him to put to rout a Portland contingent, in rooting for a team, Bronaugh is there all the time.

Frank Imbrie was in from near Orengo, Saturday. Mr. Imbrie is becoming quite a boi roger these days, and his herd is running up into the hundreds with rapidity.

Dr. Frederick Anderson, of Orengo, was in the city Monday morning. He says that Orengo and vicinity is thriving right along.

John Nyberg, of Tualatin, was up the first of the week, meeting in special session with the other two members of the county court. They inspected work at Cedar Mill and at Farmington.

John Lippert, the north county carpenter and builder, was down from Banks, Monday, and spent an hour or so greeting friends in the county seat.

Geo. Shirley, who has been indisposed for several weeks, was in from Laurel, Monday. He says that C. LeBeau, of near Laurel, has an especially fine growth in his hopyard this year.

D. N. Bateman, of Newberg, was in the city Friday, enroute to McMinnville. He was a guest at the Tualatin while in town.

The Hillsboro Mill has completed its contract for ties for the Oregon Electric, and is cutting on other orders.

J. H. Simpson, of South Tualatin, was in the city Monday, taking...

THE STUDEBAKER

In each season's army of automobile buyers there are many persons anxious to secure, at the lowest price within reason, a car which will yield a maximum in service, style, size, appearance and general efficiency.

The Studebaker Four or Six Touring Car will fill this demand to the utmost degree. It embodies the results of years of experience in the designing and building of more than 100,000 four-cylinder Studebaker automobiles.

The Studebaker Four or Six has a long-stroke, small-bore motor, a giant in power though a miser in use of gasoline and oil. The car is equipped with a full floating rear axle and a wonderfully efficient electrical system which lights and cranks the car, and furnishes the current for its ignition.

A splendid car in appearance, none beats it. More roller bearings than any other car made. Shipments to the coast from December 1, to March 13, were 531

Studebaker Four, 5 Passenger, $1150

Studebaker Six, 7 Passenger, $1675

We can demonstrate at any time, and will be pleased to show you just what this car can do.
