FATS AND THE LEANS ENTERTAIN THE TOWN

Leans Carry Away the Baseball Honors, Nine to Four

LARGEST ATTENDANCE OF SEASON

The Fats Showed Activity Dodging Balls in Field

The Fats and Leans played baseball, Tuesday, after supper, and the Leans carried away the honors by a score of 9 to 4.

It was "some ball-game," all-right, all-right, and there was more comedy in the contest than one could imagine. The game was a drawing card, all business house closing at six o'clock, the banks closing at four o'clock.

There were no stars among the aggregation—except the stars seen by some player when the sphere collided with the bean of some fat or lean.

The line-up—
The fats—Bunsen, catcher; Hodge, Logan and Sears, pitchers; Dr. Sears, 1b; Dr. Erwin, 2b; Jas. Perkins, 3b; Hodge and Sorenson, ss; Boscow and Cal Jack, rf; Board, lf; Adams and W. Will, cf.

The Leans—Alfred Harrington, catcher; L. Brown, p; J. W. Connell and Chas. Wells, 1b; Earl Donelson, 2b; Jas. Anderson, 3b; Connell and Wells, ss; Grover Combs, rf; Barney Lewis and Via Jack, lf; Undertaker King, cf.

The Argus special artist, assisted by Lufe House, furnished the following pictures for the game, and the artists' wrist failed him on the photo-play of Cal. Jack driving Boscow from the field for a mistake—otherwise the game is depicted pictorially, lacking only the color scheme.

It was uproariously funny, and the large crowd laughed all the time even when Dr. Reagan pronounced Dr. Sears afflicted with the heaves running home, and falling at the home plate.

—The Movies—

Jimmy Perkins in action with a hot one.

Dr. Erwin fielded the ball with both hands and feet.

Earl Donelson making sensational catch—and the ball is still glued to his mit.

Dr. Sears scored two times and Dr. Reagan then pronounced the runner afflicted with the heaves. The player was taken to L. W. House's carpenter shop, where his bellows was repaired.

Harrington throwing to second with no one covering the base.

Adams couldn't get down to Mother Earth—too fat!

Pitcher Logan showed evidence of "Charley Horse."

Shortstop Wells letting a "hot single" go through him in the second inning.

Mr. Sorenson stopping grounders "O, I guess not stopping them"

Barney Lewis speared them with the thumb and index finger.

Undertaker King undertook to touch a man out—and he did.

Umpire Harris calling Boscow out.

Lanky Connell slid home four times for the skinnies.

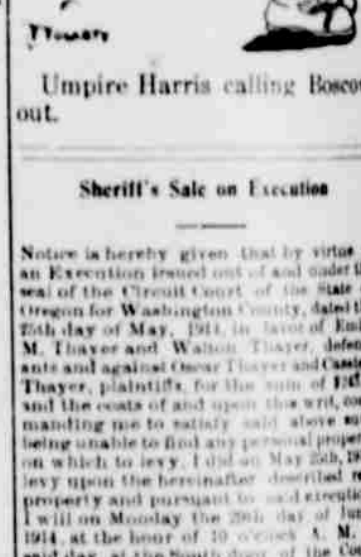

Bunsen caught a good game and was "real put out" when the leans carried off the honors.

L. Brown wound up like a Waterbury—and ran bases like one, too.

Fielder Wes Boscow couldn't catch them with a basket.

Sheriff's Sale on Execution

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an Execution issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, dated the 15th day of May, 1914, in favor of Emily M. Thayer and Watson Thayer, defendants and against Oscar Thayer and Cassius Thayer, plaintiffs, for the sum of $12.50 and the costs of and upon the writ, commanding me to satisfy said above sum, being unable to find any personal property on which to levy, I did on May 20th, 1914, levy upon the hereinafter described real property and pursuant to said execution, I will on Monday the 26th day of June, 1914, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the South door of the Court house in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all of the following described real property, being and situate in Washington County, Oregon, described as follows to-wit:

All of the right, title and interest of the said plaintiffs, Oscar Thayer and Cassius Thayer, in and to the following described real property to-wit: Beginning at a point about six rods east of the South-west corner of the North half of the South-east quarter of Section 4 T. 2 S. R. 4 W. of the Will. Mer., running thence South to the parallel line with the West line of the South half of said Section 4 one rod wide and fifty six rods long to the County road, as described in Book 11 page 107 Miscellaneous Records Washington County, Oregon.

To satisfy the hereinbefore named sum and for the costs and expenses of said sale and said writ, said sale will be made subject to redemption as per Statute of Oregon.

Dated at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 20th day of May, 1914.

J. E. ROEVER, Sheriff of Washington County, Oregon.

By J. C. Applegate, Deputy.

E. B. Tongue, Attorney for Plaintiff.

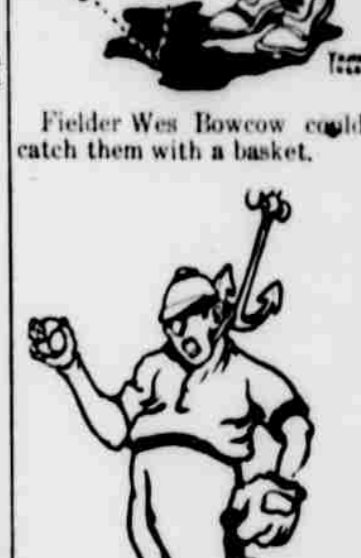

Wills was caught asleep at the switch at second.

Being lean, it is said that Umpire Dr. Smith got in Dutch with the fats.

Anderson and Connell fight over a ball which neither fielded.

And so Cal Jack ran him off the field.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County.

Cora P. V. Carlson, Plaintiff vs.

Carl E. Carlson, Defendant

To Carl E. Carlson, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear in or before the Circuit Court and cause on or before Friday, the 10th day of July, 1914, which is six weeks after the date of the publication of this summons, herein filed against you, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between you and the plaintiff upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem most and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication in The Hillsboro Argus by virtue of an order of the Hon. J. L. Campbell, Judge of the Circuit Court for Washington and State of Oregon, and said order prescribes the first publication as May 25, 1914, and the date of the last publication as July 10th, 1914.

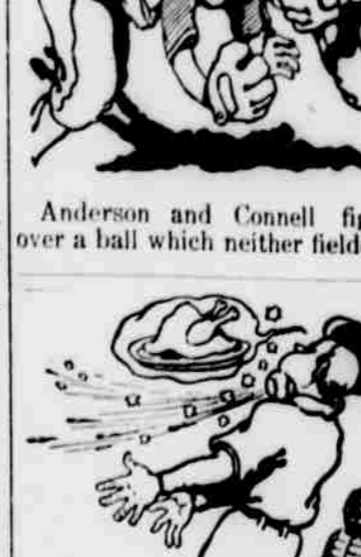

Harvey Vanekwith and E. V. Hillier, Attorneys for Plaintiff, an Oregonian Building, Portland, Oregon.

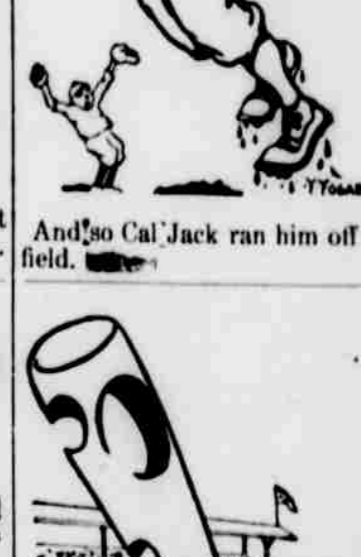

Grover Combs nearly lost a joint off his finger stopping the high ones.

Hodges' spitter worked like an April shower.

Board, a Fat, beamed by a ball, dreams of the banquet at the Hotel Washington.

Via Jack was sadly wronged—they gave him a bat with holes in it.
