NEXT SUNDAY'S BALL GAME

Next Sunday will witness a double header at the local ball grounds. The Knights of Pythias team will contest against the Tribe of Ben Hur nine, and this game will start at 2 o'clock sharp.

Fay Park and Mildred Foster were united in marriage, May 23, 1914. Rev. Valandigham officiating.

Mrs. Louisa Collins and son, Merritt Collins, and daughter, Mrs. Menquinta, of Portland, were guests at the J. A. Imbrie home, last week.

Valentine Franck

Valentine Franck died at his home near Blooming, Saturday, May 23, 1914. He was born in Mercer County, Ohio, in 1856, and was married to Elizabeth Schneider, in 1886. They came to Oregon in 1894, and settled in Cornelius.

Hon. S. B. Huston, of Portland, was out to circuit court, Monday. He is still indisposed, the result of a bad case of ptomaine poisoning a few days ago.

Johnette Selzer, the six year old daughter of Mrs. Rena Selzer, died at the home of Mrs. Riggs, Saturday morning, from an attack of scarlet fever.

H. L. Tolin, with the Evening Telegram's composing rooms, now a resident of Metzger, was in town Monday, on business for his school district. While in the city he fraternized with the Argus.

Alex Gordon, of North Plains, announces the coming marriage of his daughter, Anna Agnes, to Harry Bailey. The wedding will be at the Gordon home June 21, 1914, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The members and friends of the Congregational Church will give a reception to Rev. Harris and family, Tuesday evening, June 2, at the Commercial Club rooms. All friends invited.

Mrs. Allen Fraser, whose husband disappeared in February, was Monday ordered committed to the State Receiving Hospital, at Salem, where she will have treatment for a few weeks. If she shall recover she will be discharged, otherwise she will have to enter the main institution. She has been prostrated by the disappearance of her husband until she is not responsible for her actions. Dr. E. H. Smith made the examination before Judge Reasoner.

Miller, the Third Street restaurant man, received a letter in response to an advertisement for a cook the other day. The applicant said the wages were satisfactory, and all that, but wanted to know, if the position were given, if a "pet dog" could be brought along. Miller wrote the party that dogs and cooking didn't mix well—and he lost the services of the person wanting the job.

It is reported here that Attorney W. P. Dyke, of the Grove, fractured a leg yesterday.

Miss Letitia Imbrie visited in Portland, Tuesday, and returned with Miss Helen Zilly, who will visit for a week.

The Beavers are now playing in Portland—and the boys are now in a winning streak. McCredie says they will be at the top before the season closes.

The funeral of the late Miss Florence Olmstead, a former Hillsboro teacher, took place this afternoon, at the M. E. church, the remains arriving here from Idaho this morning.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met with Mrs. W. D. Wood yesterday, in regular social meeting. Strawberries and cream were served as refreshments. About 70 members were present.
