UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1053; calves, 95; hogs, 4188; sheep, 5099.

Livestock liquidation last week was somewhat lighter than for the same period a week ago, in all lines except hogs, which showed a considerable increase. Cattle prices were steadier and further declines were not registered. Buyers gave 7.50 to 7.75 for best light hay fed steers, 6.50 to 6.75 for good cows and all other cattle prices were equally steady. The feature of the session was one load of firm grain fed steers Monday at 8c.

Notwithstanding a liberal run of swine, prices held steady throughout. The best grades of light hogs selling at 8.25 for tops. Outlet broader.

Mutton receipts were smaller and mostly from Willamette Valley points. Top on best grade valley yearlings 5. Spring lambs sold Thursday at 6.00, but showed further weakness at close of week's business. Ewes were the firmest class in the layout selling steady 4 to 4.25.

Sep Sax was up from Tigard the first of the week, on business at the court house.

A. L. Holcomb, of Bethany, was in town Monday. A. L. says the rains have done a world of good out his way.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Ling, of Salem, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ling, Sunday.

Van Mead, the Oreno printer, was up to the county seat Monday evening.

Henry Kamna, of near Bloomington, was transacting business in the county seat the first of the week.

August Rossi, of Beaverton, was in town Monday. He says the garden city is progressing right along, and that business of all kinds is good down that way.

Postmaster Lamkin complains that there is a crowd of boys who make themselves nuisances with noise and scattering of litter in the lobby, and he says that misconduct must cease, as the rulings of the postal department are very severe in such cases. Boys who make the place a rendezvous, and are not careful, should put a curb on their conduct.

Cleveland Phillips, of Chicago, a locomotive engineer on the Chicago & East Illinois, is here, the guest of relatives, Mrs. Alice Ford and family, A. A. Phillips and wife, Web. Phillips, Hillsboro, and Mrs. G. Vickers, of Cornelius. This is his first trip to the coast, and he thinks Oregon is all to the good.

Farmington's nine played a double-header, Sunday, winning one from the Monarchs, Portland, and losing one to Reedville. The Monarchs were shut out, 8 to 0—batteries for Farmington, Donovan and Goodwin; Monarchs, O'Leary and Kent. The Reedville team won by a score of 7 to 6. Batteries—Reedville, Jack and Shane; Farmington, Rehse and Goodwin.

W. J. Cuddy, of Oreno, widely known as the editor of the Weekly Oregonian, was in town Monday, and called on the family journal. Bill is going to trade his Oreno rancho for a Rose City bungalow, so he will be closer to his work. He has also concluded that he is now too famous to remain out here, as hundreds acclaimed him as Buffalo Bill, while he was attending the circus in Portland the other day. Cuddy is almost an exact double for the famous old Indian fighter—excepting for nerve, and in this he has Buffalo backed off the boards. Buffalo Bill would never stock a poultry ranch of 3,000 hens without buying a few roosters, and this is what Cuddy did when he first started ranching.
