

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice of Final Settlement

In the Matter of the Estate of John W. Titus, deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the above-named estate as filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County her final account in the matter of the estate of James C. Snock, deceased, and said Court has designated Monday, the 6th day of July, 1914, at the County Court room in Hillsboro, Oregon, at ten o'clock A. M. of said day, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account, and for the final settlement of said estate.

Eva Titus Higgins, formerly Eva Titus, administratrix of said estate.
Bogley & Hale, Attorneys for administrator.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

I. A. LONG, Editor.

County Official Paper

Subscription: $1.00 per annum.

Issued Every Thursday

-BY-

LONG & MCKINNEY

Washington County's financial condition compares more than favorably with the state at large. This is some consolation, anyway, in this era of high taxation.

Death removed a man of excellent parts when John Milne was taken. He was the personification of honor and integrity, and leaves a name highly honored in the Oregon commercial world.

Senator Lane has joined with Senator Chamberlain in fighting the repeal of free tolls for American coastwise shipping. This is the logical position. Americans build the canal, pay for it, and American products consigned to American ports should have no restriction in the way of tolls. Senator Chamberlain is right, and the platform was right.

The Mexican situation remains the same—and the mediation congress at Niagara is going slowly. The jingoists wanting war may yet have their "satisfy"—but it is remarkable that those squealing the loudest for carnage are those who would not respond in case activities should commence. It's mighty easy to be an "indoors patriot."

For Sale: Team, Wagon and Harness, all in fine condition. Wagon full panelled, and almost new. A fine outfit for Mail, Milk or other delivery. We wish to sell on account of using automobile for our delivery work. Moore Laundry Co.

Mrs. E. G. Cox, of Oak Park, departed yesterday for Walla Walla for a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. N. A. Hawk, after which she will visit with relatives at Sheridan, Indiana.

Dr. J. P. Tamiesie was elected president of the U. of O. Alumni of the Medical Association, at a meeting in Portland this week.

L. M. Hesse, of Scholls, was a city caller yesterday.

For sale or exchange—Ninety-four acre dairy and hog ranch; all fenced with hog wire, and cross fenced into 7 pastures. Will consider small acreage in exchange and easy terms on difference.—Goodman & Ruggles, Gaston, Ore.

John Vanderwal
Agent
Hillsboro, Oregon

Pacific States
Fire Insurance Company of Portland, Oregon. The only big Oregon Old Line Company. Losses Promptly Paid

Children usually tell the truth at the wrong time.

It is better to be disappointed in love than in marriage.

Don't imagine the world is all wrong just because your liver is.

A hen doesn't quit scratching just because the worms are scarce.

How can the United States hope to retain the confidence and respect of its neighbors as long as it exports 100,000 gross of fountain pens every year?

A British aviator met a ghost in the clouds. That's flying high to bad trouble.

The trusted employee who embezzles funds is always caught sooner or later.

Most people who rob Peter to pay Paul forget the last part of the contract.

A silent man's reward is that he gets credit for knowing much that he will not tell.

Rather than bluntly call a man a fool it is better to break the news to him gradually.

Why in thunder don't they put the Carnegie Peace Foundation on a truck and haul it down to Mexico?

Mr. Frohman says the best comedy in Paris is the women's dresses. A laugh in every line, as it were.

Between 355 and 1,550 tons of soap to the square mile fall upon Pittsburgh every year. That ought to be plenty.

The way to eliminate mosquitoes is to drain their breeding place, which is vastly more pleasant than swatting.

"Population of the United States 98,000,000." It will take less than a year's increase to make up that missing 2 per cent.

Even a gold handled umbrella has its ups and downs.

Those who get into hot water have usually provided the heat.

Some genius may yet be able to make breakfast food of wild oats.

And the navy now recalls the Ancient Mariner's famous plaint.

Argus and Journal

Ulrich Kempf and Wm. Josse, of Helvetia, were in town today.

A great make-room sale for groceries going on at Greer's.

Miss Clara Rhoades, of Portland, was a guest of Mrs. E. G. Mitchell, the past week.

All dry goods must go at cost and less—Greer.

Fred W. Schoen, of Cornelius, was a city caller Monday.

Andreas Bendler, of North Tualatin Plains, was in Hillsboro Tuesday. He has a big lot of hay down.

Francis Linklater sustained a fall the other day and fractured his arm at the old break. Dr. Robb attended the injury.

Thos. Elliott, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Elliott Sr., of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Melinda Cave and Mrs. L. Ingram, this week.

The New York board of health defines a sunrise as "communited meat." Heaven, is it so bad as that?

Mrs. F. Lutz and children, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Edw. Moore, Decoration Day. Mrs. Lutz was formerly Miss Mona Williams, of this city.

Henry Hesse, who has been carrying the mail here for many years, is at last taking a vacation. The Southern Pacific depot forces having taken over the delivery of mail.

Mrs. Thos. Humphreys, of Heppner, is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. A. Rood. Mrs. Bruce Wolverton, of Portland, was also a guest at the Rood home, Saturday.

M. C. Brickell and Miss Florence Jones were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Crandall, June 3, 1914. Rev. B. C. Cook officiating. The happy couple reside in the Sherwood section.

A trip across the country the first of the week disclosed the fact that a large acreage of early hay is cut—and this should be a good "coaxer" for a heavy rain, any time.

Marriage license has been granted to Herbert Hartill and Bertha Baker; Orval Hatchens, and Ella Garrigus. The latter were married at Forest Grove, Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. McDonald, of Edensberg, Wash., was the guest of Mrs. E. C. McKinney, Friday.

She was accompanied by Miss Martha Allen, of Forest Grove, at whose home Mr. and Mrs. McDonald visited last week.

For sale or exchange—Ninety-four acre dairy and hog ranch; all fenced with hog wire, and cross fenced into 7 pastures. Will consider small acreage in exchange and easy terms on difference.—Goodman & Ruggles, Gaston, Ore.

And now the doctors say that love is sometimes a fatal disease, but we've known a few severe cases entirely cured by marriage.

The foundation for the meanest man is laid when a small boy turns the wavy hole in an angle for his companion to sit on.

If a lawyer has discovered a tubercular cure some doctor should take up the question of simplification of legal procedure.

There are many whose aim seems to be immorality. But that quality, they should remember, is possessed by a wart on the nose.

A single seed of fact will produce in a season or two a harvest of calamity. But sensible men will pay no attention to them.

France is returning to the bicycle. The new danciers, at least, have returned to civilized countries the use of the legs.

A scientist says that human hair grows at the rate of 1000 of an inch a day. Some people who dye theirs seem to forget this.

If a lawyer has discovered a tubercular cure some doctor should take up the question of simplification of legal procedure.

A senator in the Dominion parliament seeks fame by introducing a bill which makes it an offense either to give or to receive a tip. Couldn't he think of something original?

A Chicago man testified in court that beating his wife was the only amusement he had. And yet that hard hearted woman was unreasonable enough to object. Women are strange creatures.

The New York surgeon's discovery of a new system in the body is probably a forerunner of a lot of new diseases.

To the poultry fan with his first incubator and a soft pencil and pad of paper the national debt seems a trivial obligation.

Still, the thought of a Pan-American baseball league with jumps from Terra del Fuego to Nome appalls the stoutest hearted fan.

After July 1 anybody can get a money order cashed at any post office in the United States—if he can get the money order.

Now that whales are said to be peaking into the portholes of Atlantic liners, why should not overseas travel be on the increase?

There are three kinds of men who don't know anything about women. They are old men, young men and middle-aged men.

Model your conduct after the man who does things and stop listening to the fellow who tells you how a thing should be done.

There are fears that the hopes entertained for radium as a means of cure will be as vain as those to which liquid air once gave rise.

While a man may entertain an angel unawares at rare intervals, nine times out of ten it is a common bore who takes up his time.

"Twould be great if people, when they want to air their views, could hang them on the clothesline in the back yard, as they do an old coat."

The club of the future, according to another feminist, will be for both men and women. Are they not going to leave man any place at all?

If the average man stops and reflects when he is ready to go to bed at night he will be reminded that he didn't do many smart things during the day.

Bottle green is to be the favorite that among advanced dressers, according to the men's tailors. Bottle green evidently has something to do with the glass of fashion.

After a long series of trials it has been conclusively proved that a pedestrian cannot stop an automobile going forty miles the hour and remember anything about it.

The two-wheeled gyro-motorcar tested in London can run only four miles an hour. At that pace it is welcome to round corners without tipping or slowing up as much as it please.

We are hardly prepared to believe the story that a distinguished opera singer declared she had left this country for good. When she gets short of pocket money she will be back again.

It is pointed out that the sending of an American boat to get gasoline led to the arrest of the marines and the present crisis. It is not the first time that gasoline has caused an explosion.

The record made by Poulet, the French aviator, by remaining in the air 16 hours and 20 minutes is worth all the looping the loop and fancy diving performances of crack brained flying men. It serves a practical purpose.

Of course she thinks many a dollar on hats that are simply a dream. She always buys fruit out of season and game of the costliest kind. Their very expense is the reason.

That those things appeal to her mind, things any one else might be buying, like books on heartiest scores, And that's why just now she is trying The radium cure on her cuts.

—Judge.

Polly's Break.

Mrs. Bensonhurst (calling)—Oh, this is your parrot, is it?

Mrs. Flatbush—Yes, that's Polly.

"I understand she repeats everything you say."

"Yes, she does. Now say something for the lady, Polly."

Polly—Hateful thing! I'm glad she's gone!—Yonkers Statesman.

Of course she thinks many a dollar on hats that are simply a dream.

She always buys fruit out of season and game of the costliest kind.

Their very expense is the reason.

That those things appeal to her mind, things any one else might be buying, like books on heartiest scores,

And that's why just now she is trying The radium cure on her cuts.

—Judge.

Polly's Break.

Mrs. Bensonhurst (calling)—Oh, this is your parrot, is it?

Mrs. Flatbush—Yes, that's Polly.

"I understand she repeats everything you say."

"Yes, she does. Now say something for the lady, Polly."

Polly—Hateful thing! I'm glad she's gone!—Yonkers Statesman.

Love and Time.

1.

"Time, like a river
Running to the sea,
Won't you let my sweetheart
Run along with me?"

2.

Old Time made answer:
"She would not go that way.
Love demands an auto
To race with Time today."
—Atlanta Constitution.

Not Such a Simple Matter.

"You don't believe in peace," said

Mr. Dolan.

"I do, indeed," replied Mr. Rafferty.

"I admire peace greatly, but the process of securing it may be difficult. If often takes a fight to determine who shall do the talkin' and layin' down the law while peace reigns."—Washington Star.

Various Courtships.

He wished to join the congressmen
And soon got in the game.
I used to see him now and then
When he was wooing Fannie.

He isn't wooing Fannie today:

He'll hit her, you see—
Want after spills, and now they say
He's courts an inquiry."—San Francisco Chronicle.

In the Upper Set.

"Mrs. Plympton Todgers is very proud of the fashionable illegibility of her handwriting."

"But I thought it was the secretary's writing?"

"Of course. It took Mrs. Plympton Todgers three years to find such a secretary."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A senator in the Dominion parliament seeks fame by introducing a bill which makes it an offense either to give or to receive a tip. Couldn't he think of something original?

A Chicago man testified in court that beating his wife was the only amusement he had. And yet that hard hearted woman was unreasonable enough to object. Women are strange creatures.

The New York surgeon's discovery of a new system in the body is probably a forerunner of a lot of new diseases.

To the poultry fan with his first incubator and a soft pencil and pad of paper the national debt seems a trivial obligation.

Still, the thought of a Pan-American baseball league with jumps from Terra del Fuego to Nome appalls the stoutest hearted fan.

Dated this 26th day of May, 1914.

J. E. Reeves, Sheriff of Washington County, Oregon.

By J. C. Applegate, Deputy.

Sheriff Sale On Attachment Executed

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of