KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS DISTRICT CONVENTION

Over 300 Attend Festivities at Forest Grove

BEST SESSION FOR MANY YEARS

Lon Stinson, Veteran Grand Lodge Officer, Makes Touching Address

The Knights of Pythias of three counties—Washington, Yamhill and Tillamook—numbering three hundred strong, met at Forest Grove last Saturday evening in annual district convention, and the big delegation pronounce it the best session for the many years. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the boys turned out in force—John Zimmerman, of beyond North Plains, with his brother, George, walked seven miles to North Plains, and then drove the rest of the way, in order that he might be with the exercisers. Two hundred marched from the hall to the P. E. & E., at 8 o'clock, to meet three coach loads on a special from Mc-Minnville, North Yamhill and Gaston, led by a band they marched back to the splendid castle hall of Desphos Lodge, where Mayor Harry Goff, a member, turned over the keys of the city in a few well-chosen remarks. W. G. Hare, of Hillsboro, responded for the county seat lodge; Mayor Gist, of North Yamhill answered roll call for Yamhill; Attorney Hewitt, of McMinnville, for Diana; Harry Westcott, for Gaston; Thos. Talbot for Cornelius, and John E.
Zimmerman, for Glencoe—the lodge that had the honor of being the first in the Oregon domain to own its own hall. Past Chancellor John M. Wall and Geo. Schulerich, the latter of whom drove 150 miles in an auto from Creswell to attend, also made addresses. Ex-Senator Haines, who has missed but one convention since they were established, and Billy Vinton, of McMinnville, closed the addresses, after listening to Lou Stinson, Grand Keeper of Records & Seals, who told of his trip back to Washington D. C. to attend the fiftieth anniversary celebration last February.
Stinson told how the last Grand Lodge had appropriated money to give him the pleasure of enjoying the dream of his life—a trip back to the city where Py-thianism was founded.
Ed. Wirtz presided at the session, and announced at the close that the convention would be entertained at the Star Theatre, where the Hillsboro lodge staged a minstrel show. Every K. of P. in the district who had some slight peculiarity was roasted cently by the end men under the director, E. L. Moore, of Hillsboro, and the show was voted a big success. After this North Yamhill put on the "Ancient Mariner," with E. Cheyne as the sailor's musician.
Supper for 280 was then served, and the big convention closed with one of the best of contentment—all agreeing that it was a red letter day in the annals of the order.
