COURT HOUSE AND BANKS CLOSE

Suthing Doing at Court House Everybody Visits City

Governor West has issued a proclamation naming Friday, June 12 as a legal holiday, and the court house and banks, and some of the business houses in Hillshere will close for the day. The making of a holiday at this time was done upon the request of the citizens of Portland, in behalf of the Rose Festival.

Hundreds will go from here to witness the big electric parade will visit the Rose City during the day. Scores have been taking in the festivities from Washington county, and nearly every train into and out of the city is crowded to capacity.

Beaverton reports more autonobiles passing through that city this week than ever before in its history which means all reads lead to the big rose show
