

PLUNGES OFF BRIDGE, 3 IN MACHINE

Were Slight, Dutch Saved When Car Turns Turtle

STRIKES GROUND HEAD ON

of J. H. Hanson and Neeces was More Than Miraculous

Automobile of J. H. Hanson, Hanson driving, took a flying leap of fifteen feet on the approach of the Jackson...

Constable McQuilian went to Scoggin Valley, Tuesday, and searched the houses of Jas. Lee Sr. and Jr., and brought back to Hillsboro an army overcoat...

For sale—Having quit teaming I will sell the following: Brown gelding, 8 years, 1900; team black horse, 7 years, 1400 and bay mare, 8 years, 1500; 3 1/2 inch Cooper wagon, almost as good as new.

A double birthday party was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie, near Oreoso, Sunday, the celebrants being Mr. Imbrie and Mr. Long, of the Argus.

For sale or exchange—Ninety-four acre dairy and hog ranch, all fenced with hog wire, and cross fenced into 7 pastures.

Chester Hays, of St. Johns, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hays, former residents of 10th and Oak, Hillsboro, shared first prize on an essay for the W. C. T. U., in Portland Central Library, one day last week.

For Sale or Trade—A 3-year-old colt; weight about 1000; good fast buggy horse. Price $75. Will sell or trade for good cow.

The Reedville Federals and Regulars, between whom there is great rivalry, met Sunday for the Reedville championship. The Federals outclassed their opponents, allowing but two scores.

Notice is hereby given that the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks in the paved streets district is forbidden by order of the council.

Mrs. Merle Haines, Mrs. Richard Hornby and two children and Mrs. E. W. Wise spent a delightful day Wednesday, at the farm home of Mrs. Wise's parents, of south of Cornelius.

Dance at New Helvetic Hall, Saturday evening, June 20. Tickets, 75 cents. Everybody invited.—Feuerstein & Patton, Managers.

G. N. Taggart and family went to the Netarts, Saturday, via the Tillamook line. They expect to spend several weeks over at that beach.

Rhode Island Red eggs, for hatching purposes, Mrs. Max Crandall, on Maple between Second and Third, Telephone City 497.

John Earl, one of the pioneers of Tillamook County, accompanied by his niece, Miss Myrtle Earle, visited at the home of Mrs. M. A. Powell, the first of the week.

For Sale—Nearly new Winona 3-inch wagon, narrow tire. Will sell at a bargain.—Frank Wallace, Hillsboro Route 5; Tel. C. 7325.

Pasturage: Have pasturage for 25 head of cattle or horses. No. 1 range. Inquire at the C. C. Hancock store, Cornelius. 3t

Have pasturage for limited number of cattle. No horses.—Hawthorne Ranch, 3 miles east of Hillsboro.—J. Soper. 3tf Messrs. and Mesdames Merle Haines and E. W. Wise were Portland visitors, Friday, attending the Rose festival.

JURY GIVES MRS. STEVE A JUDGMENT OF $1250

Twelve Men Say Architect Ernest Kroner Must Pay Woman

CHARLES DAVIS GETS A PAROLE

Sentenced to Indeterminate of From 2 to 20 Years

Grand court has been grinding this week and the case of interest has been the suit of Mrs. Nettie Steve for damages, Ernest Kroner, the architect, being the defendant. Mrs. Steve testified that Kroner shoved her from the roof of a house at Tizard, and that she sustained damages and injuries for which she asked $5,000.

Frank Morey, with the McCumsey mill, beyond North Plains, was a city visitor Saturday evening.

For Sale—Hay baling outfit complete, with a big list of customers. A bargain.—Address P. O. Box 263, Hillsboro, Ore. 13-5

Mrs. Ed. Mizen, of Shady Brook, joined the annual veteran encampment at Tillamook, Tuesday.

Money to loan, on first mortgage.—Address X, care of the Argus. 12-4

Adam Hergert, of Blooming, and John Oppenlander, of Varley, were city visitors the last of the week.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

S. J. Galloway to Anton Lunow, $1000. Shute Savings to Marie E. Reed, $7 and 8. Borwick a. 10. August Krause to Gustav Krause, $6000. Oscar Hayer to A. O. Yates, 4 1/2 W. Portland Hts. 35.

WILLIAM H. VEACH

William H. Veach, a resident of Hillsboro in 1908, was shot through the heart at Sheridan, Wyoming, June 14, by Earl Forre, an ex-convict, while Veach, as a deputy sheriff, was endeavoring to arrest the murderer.

Force was wanted for stealing a horse and another deputy was with Veach when the resistance to the arrest took place.

Veach was a popular officer and had been deputy for four years. Mr. Veach was born in Iowa, Feb. 5, 1872. He is survived by a widow and two daughters, aged 17 and 11.

Greer's for groceries. Carl Pfahl, of above Blooming, was in the city yesterday.

Greer sells groceries at right prices.

Emil Duyck, of above Mountaineale, was a city caller the last of the week.

Groceries, dry goods and shoes, at Greers.

Ralph Withycombe, of South Tualatin, was over to the city Monday evening.

For Rent—Seven room house, Third and Lincoln.—Kerr Bros.

A steady, two-hour laugh when "Hello Bill" appears at the Crescent Theatre, June 26.

Palmer Tucker, of above Mountaineale, was in town the last of the week.

Greer's—Main 82—is the place to get Albany butter and Log Cabin bread.

Attorney A. S. Dresser, of Portland, was out Monday, attending to a case in circuit court.

Just received a new lot of Patent Sun Proof paint.—D. Corwin.

F. O. Sipprell, of Farmington, was in town Saturday, loading ties for shipment from Newton station, on the P. E. & E.

Those who have eaten Albany butter know what it is. You try a roll and you will like it. Greer keeps it.

Frank Morey, with the McCumsey mill, beyond North Plains, was a city visitor Saturday evening.

For Sale—Hay baling outfit complete, with a big list of customers. A bargain.—Address P. O. Box 263, Hillsboro, Ore. 13-5

Mrs. Ed. Mizen, of Shady Brook, joined the annual veteran encampment at Tillamook, Tuesday.

Money to loan, on first mortgage.—Address X, care of the Argus. 12-4

Adam Hergert, of Blooming, and John Oppenlander, of Varley, were city visitors the last of the week.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

S. J. Galloway to Anton Lunow, $1000. Shute Savings to Marie E. Reed, $7 and 8. Borwick a. 10. August Krause to Gustav Krause, $6000. Oscar Hayer to A. O. Yates, 4 1/2 W. Portland Hts. 35.

WILLIAM H. VEACH

William H. Veach, a resident of Hillsboro in 1908, was shot through the heart at Sheridan, Wyoming, June 14, by Earl Forre, an ex-convict, while Veach, as a deputy sheriff, was endeavoring to arrest the murderer.

Force was wanted for stealing a horse and another deputy was with Veach when the resistance to the arrest took place.

Veach was a popular officer and had been deputy for four years. Mr. Veach was born in Iowa, Feb. 5, 1872. He is survived by a widow and two daughters, aged 17 and 11.

CELEBRATION WILL HAVE MANY FEATURES

Many Concessions Taken, and Many Free Amusements Billied

FIREWORKS AT CLOSE OF THE DAY

Big Basket Picnic Will Follow in the City Park, Sunday, July 5

W. W. Boscow reports that arrangements are now perfected for a splendid celebration in the county seat July 4. Many concessionaires have signed up, and many free features have been added to the program.

The prize list is as follows—Fat Man's race, 1st prize, $250. Second prize, 100 yd. race, free for all, 1st prize, 500. Shoe race, 1st prize, 350.

The Hillsboro band will furnish music with 20 pieces, and there will be a band concert in the evening, beginning at eight o'clock.

There will be free moving pictures, free dancing, and free acrobatic performances.

Banks will play Hillsboro in the afternoon, in the baseball park.

On the Sunday following the Fourth there will be a big basket picnic by the members of the churches of Hillsboro, and services will be held in the forenoon.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSE

Free Demonstrations, June 29, 30 and July 1, at High School Bldg.

The Coffee Club has arranged for a series of free demonstrations and lectures on domestic science, etc., to be given by Mrs. Robbins, of the O. A. C. Extension Division, June 29, 30 and July 1, at the domestic science room of the High School building.

All ladies and school girls in the community are cordially invited to attend this free course, which is very interesting and instructive.

A full program of the three-days' course will be published next week.

THE BULGIN MEETINGS

We the ministers of Hillsboro, whose names are signed below wish to express ourselves as being in hearty co-operation with the Evangelist Dr. E. J. Bulgin and his splendid assistants, in the great tent meeting that is being held in this city, we believe that Dr. Bulgin is both modern and just in his teaching and preaching of the Gospel of the Saviour of mankind, while some come to criticize, and do criticize, we believe that every honest thinker will say that the truths that are being proclaimed from night to night in the big tent has never been surpassed by any evangelist that ever came to this city, and that all who hear him will be benefited.

Again we wish to endorse the methods, and teachings of Dr. Bulgin.

FRED PFAHL

Frederick Edward Pfahl died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfahl, of south of Cornelius, Tuesday, June 16, 1914, after an illness of several months, his affliction being tuberculosis.

We are agent for the following stoves—Steiger & Kerr stoves and ranges; Arcadian ranges; Alcazar and Brighton, Quality and Diamond ranges.—D. Corwin. 13-tf

Dr. F. A. Bailey was at Salem the first of the week, where he called to minister to Mrs. Gertrude Marsh Wilcox, whose husband was killed in Portland several months ago.

Alcazar ranges are strictly new, up-to-date, Colonial style, typifying simplicity and beauty, highest quality and mechanical perfection.—D. Corwin. 13tf

The Ladies' Aid, of Scholls, will give an Ice Cream Social at the home of S. P. Taylor, Saturday evening, June 20. All are invited.

Glasses fitted by Drs. Lowe & Turner do not need the guarantee that goes with them. There's a reason. Argus and Journal $2.25.

Underlying certain symptoms of eye trouble may be given disturbances of the general health. A searching and accurate examinations will reveal to the trained eye specialist what the causes are.

For sale, cheap, if taken at once: Driving horse, buggy and harness; horse is black, about 1200, and is safe, guaranteed driver and work animal.—E. W. Ogiesby, Roy, Ore. 10-12

The decision of the circuit court, in the suit for criminal libel, brought by the Benedictine Sisters of Mt. Angel, Oregon, against J. E. Hosmer, editor of the Silverton Journal, was sustained recently, by the Supreme Court.

Pasturage in plenty for cattle. Figures on large number. Plenty of grass and water.—Angelo Corrieri, Forest Grove, Route 1, place on Lousignont Lake. 12-4

Chas. R. LaFollett, of Cornelius, has sued his wife, Mary Kavanaugh LaFollett for divorce, alleging that she had struck him over the head with a broomstick, one day not long ago.

The Arcadian malleable, non-breakable ranges are made to last a lifetime.—D. Corwin.

Rev. E. J. Bulgin, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rose, under the auspices of five of Hillsboro's churches, is holding a revival meeting in a big tent south of the city hall, on Second street.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market—made in Oregon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a Grand Marca.

Two slaughter houses, on Dairy Creek, just south of the east approach of the long bridge, burned this morning about three o'clock. The Hillsboro Mercantile Co. lost a lot of hides, a lot of tools and about a ton of giant powder, while Emmott & Hoard also lost some tools, boilers, etc.

Dance at Hendrick's Hall, Cornelius, Saturday evening June 20. Walkers' Orchestra. Always a good time. McCurdy & VanLom, Managers.

Wm. Schulmerich, who just returned from Southern Oregon, says he has never seen crops looking better to the south of us. Grass and grain look especially fine down in the Creswell-Yoncalla country.

We are agent for the following stoves—Steiger & Kerr stoves and ranges; Arcadian ranges; Alcazar and Brighton, Quality and Diamond ranges.—D. Corwin. 13-tf

Dr. F. A. Bailey was at Salem the first of the week, where he called to minister to Mrs. Gertrude Marsh Wilcox, whose husband was killed in Portland several months ago.

Alcazar ranges are strictly new, up-to-date, Colonial style, typifying simplicity and beauty, highest quality and mechanical perfection.—D. Corwin. 13tf

The Ladies' Aid, of Scholls, will give an Ice Cream Social at the home of S. P. Taylor, Saturday evening, June 20. All are invited.

Glasses fitted by Drs. Lowe & Turner do not need the guarantee that goes with them. There's a reason. Argus and Journal $2.25.

PROFESSIONAL F. A. BAILEY, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

R. M. ERWIN, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

ELMER H. SMITH M. D. D. O. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

J. O. ROBB, M. D. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

BAGLEY & HARE ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

E. B. TONGUE ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

JOHN M. WALL ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

W. N. BARRETT ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

THOS. H. TONGUE, JR. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

SCHNABEL & LAROCHE

DR. W. E. PITTENGER Dentist

DR. J. R. MARSHALL, DENTIST

DR. C. H. POLLOCK, Dentist

BOWMAN & VALLANDIGHAM Attorneys-At-Law