HILLSBORO GETS TANGO LET SLIDE THREE GAMES

Banks Captures Both Games, Friday and Saturday, Banks and Here

Columbia Hardware Nine Take Locals Measure, II to 10

After winning every game but one up to July 3, Hillsboro's valnants took the toboggan for three games straight, and there is some soreness in the hearts of the boys, for they all worked that's any of your business, but I am the claim agent of this road." Harhard in every game that spelled per's Magazine. defeat.

The boys went up to Banks, Friday, and the huskies of the little P. R. & N. town defeated them by a score of 10 to 9.

On the Fourth Banks came down for the return game, and while is was the prettiest game of the year, league ball being played, the visitors trimmed the locals by a score of two to one, Martin did the pitching for the locals and Reiben for Banks, Errers figured in both games, but errors always will be in evidence even in the best of games. Banks put up good ball, and their pitcher, Lefty Goddard, a southpaw, had the boys' eyes on the blink.

Martin pitched good ball, but errors from him to Aiken and a half error by Aiken started the run for Banks that meant vie-

Sunday's game with the Columbia Hardware Co. nine was a thriller, but there was overmuch hitting on both sides. The visitors broke away with the game, which went eleven innings, by a score of 11 to 10. The game was marked by ar unfortunate circumstance. First Baseman Aiken, for Hillsboro, in running to second, dislocated his ankle and ter, the little fellow said: also broke his leg just above the ankle. Dr. Smith, who was umpiring, and Dr. Sears, helped him o the F. J. Sewell auto, and Aiken was taken to Dr. Smith's hospital, where Smith soon had nim resting comfortable. Dr. Sears finished as umpire.

The game next Sunday will be between Hillsboro and the Pied-mont Maroons. The Maroons come with a reputation-and Hillsboro hopes to get down to
