

VERBOORT'S FOUNDERS DEAD

Verboort Passed Away at Home, Last Week

OF BEHAAR, HOLLAND

Verboort in 1875 From Brown County, Wisconsin

Verboort, one of the real characters of his home at his home at Tuesday, June 30.

Verboort was born at De Land, June 23, 1836.

Verboort came to Wisconsin, in Brown County, near River. He was married to Mrs. Martens shortly after his arrival in Wisconsin.

Verboort and his wife had several children: a son, Verboort, and a daughter, Mrs. Louis McManville.

Verboort passed away Tuesday evening, June 30, at his home at Hillsboro, Oregon.

Verboort was a fine character and had many friends, not only in Hillsboro, but in the county where he was born.

Verboort was a traveling salesman and was in Hillsboro on his last trip.

Verboort was a member of the Lutheran church and was a very active member.

Verboort was a very kind and generous man and was loved by all who knew him.

Verboort was a very successful businessman and was well known in his community.

Verboort was a very good father and was very devoted to his family.

Verboort was a very good citizen and was very active in his community.

Farmers everywhere are now into the hay with vengeance, and much timothy is being laid to the earth.

For sale—Span mules, 8 and 9 years old, weighing 2,500, a fine team, and good work animals.

Earl Stockdale, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stockdale who live at the Bagley hospital, fell from his horse the other day.

The Arcadian malleable, non-breakable ranges are made to last a lifetime.

Probate: Court confirms sale of D. H. Drug Store stock and fixtures in the matter of the estate of the late Dr. Linklater.

F. A. Everest received a letter the other day offering him $25 per pair for domestic mink.

Viola, the six year old daughter of Roy Heineck and wife, of this city, fell from a buggy at the Jake Messinger farm.

The Forest Grove Firemen are holding their carnival this week, and good crowds are enjoying the occasion.

Wm. Pranger, of Carlinville, Ill., arrived here the past week, accompanied by his sister, Miss Elizabeth.

Now listen! Just as you sit down to dinner tonight, or any other night, phone City 365 and ask to have sent up a Neapolitan brick, or any amount in bulk ice cream.

Contractors Engeldinger & Cook are getting along nicely with the Carnegie Library building, and if all material arrives on time it will be completed on schedule.

C. H. Brooks leaves for Newport this week to join his wife, who has been attending the bedside of her father, Mr. Prosser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Grabel and daughter, Miss Myrtle, are spending a week with Oliver Newton and family, near Vancouver, Wash.

Webster Phillips departed this week for Cottonwood, Idaho.

JAMES INNES TAKES PURSE AND SLOPES

Finally Comes Through, Pays Costs, Returns Money and Purse

IS ALLOWED TO GO ON HIS WAY

Yegman, Under Guise of Laborer, Has Bad Experience

James B. Innes, carrying a roll of blankets through the country, landed in the county jail, Friday night, the aftermath of picking up a mesh purse, dropped by Miss Gilkey, stenographer in County Clerk Luce's office.

Innes was taken from the train and brought back to jail. He had a bank note for ten and three gold pieces—fives—and claimed that he had given the purse to a woman in the store.

Innes yesterday came through and admitted the taking of the bag and money, and went with Attorney Valandigham down to east end of the city limits, in the canyon near the Richter place, where he resurrected the purse, minus the money.

The largest shipment of ranges from the East ever received by any one dealer.—D. Corwin.

F. A. Everest received a letter the other day offering him $25 per pair for domestic mink.

Viola, the six year old daughter of Roy Heineck and wife, of this city, fell from a buggy at the Jake Messinger farm.

The Forest Grove Firemen are holding their carnival this week, and good crowds are enjoying the occasion.

Wm. Pranger, of Carlinville, Ill., arrived here the past week, accompanied by his sister, Miss Elizabeth.

Now listen! Just as you sit down to dinner tonight, or any other night, phone City 365 and ask to have sent up a Neapolitan brick, or any amount in bulk ice cream.

Contractors Engeldinger & Cook are getting along nicely with the Carnegie Library building, and if all material arrives on time it will be completed on schedule.

C. H. Brooks leaves for Newport this week to join his wife, who has been attending the bedside of her father, Mr. Prosser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Grabel and daughter, Miss Myrtle, are spending a week with Oliver Newton and family, near Vancouver, Wash.

Webster Phillips departed this week for Cottonwood, Idaho.

CLERK AND SHERIFF DRAW CIRCUIT JURORS

Term Will Open at Hillsboro Monday Morning, July 20

ALL PARTS OF COUNTY REPRESENTED

Session will not Last Long as Docket is Not Lengthy

Clerk Luce and Sheriff Reeves yesterday drew the July circuit court jury list, to report here on July 20. The county is well represented in the venire, the majority being farmers.

John Haskins, farmer, Beaverton R. 2; Walter Z. Sisson, Beaverton R. 1; Charles E. Helge, merchant, Beaverton; Wm. Lichly, farmer, Hillsboro R. 4; Geo. W. Clark, Hillsboro R. 2; Corneilus Vanhey, Banks R. 3; Wm. A. Johnson, farmer, Gaston; W. H. Petersen, Redwood; H. J. Goff, merchant, Forest Grove; J. E. Loomis, merchant, Sherwood; J. H. Berger, farmer, Hillsboro R. 1; J. L. Ransgrove, Hillsboro R. 2; J. C. Latta, fuel dealer, Forest Grove; Fred Wilcox, farmer, Banks R. 2; W. J. Turnbow, Mountaineer; Emil I. Korath, real estate, Hillsboro; Wm. Canino, farmer, Sherwood R. 1; John Corwin, Hillsboro R. 4; Geo. N. Harris, Gaston R. 1; G. W. McNamee, lawyer, Forest Grove; Stephen Bullock, farmer, Banks R. 2; J. J. VenKloek, Beaverton R. 3; John Corneilus, Corvallis R. 2; Charles Bateman, Gales Creek; John Gray, Gracem; E. W. Hines, banker, Forest Grove; John B. McNew, farmer, Beaverton R. 4; J. W. Bailey, banker, Hillsboro.

Wanted—Two good boys to learn a lucrative trade. Inquire of John Becker, Third street.

Wanted—A second-hand roll-top desk, if a bargain.—Box 182, Hillsboro.

Mrs. W. D. Wood and son, James, departed today for Rockaway, for an extended vacation.

Master Jack Glascoe departed today to join his father at Almirra, Wash.

T. W. Sain, of Scoggin Valley, passed through the city Tuesday, enroute to Portland, on a business trip.

Elmer Ling, Wells Fargo agent, departed Tuesday evening for a trip to San Francisco, for a short rest from his duties.

Mrs. R. Alexander, of Portland, was a guest this week at the homes of G. J. Palmateer and R. H. Greer.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. F. T. Spicker, Tuesday, July 14, at 2:30 p. m. The topic—patriotism.

Laurel M. Hoyt returned Tuesday from an extended trip to Eugene, Mrs. Hoyt and children remaining in the South.

Thos. Tucker, of Woodstock, Portland, was out the Fourth, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. U. G. Gardner.

Mrs. J. W. Connell is enjoying an outing at the home of her mother, Mrs. Essner, above Mountaineer.

Chas. Lang, one of the meat cutters at the Mercantile, went to St. Martins Springs for a few days rest, leaving the first of the week.

REPORT

Of the condition of the Hillsboro Commercial Bank, at Hillsboro, in the State of Oregon, at the close of business June 30, 1914

Table with columns: RESOURCES, LIABILITIES. Includes items like Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, secured and unsecured, Bonds and warrants, Furniture and fixtures, Other real estate owned, Due from approved reserve banks, Checks and other cash items, Cash on hand.

German Lutheran services, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, at the Congregational church. English Sunday school at 2:00.—E. W. Luecke, Pastor.

P. J. Krieger, of McMinnville, was down to Hillsboro, Tuesday, having been called to Verboort through the death of his father, the late Antone Krieger.

F. Unger, of Chehalis Mountain, was in the city Tuesday. He says that grain is looking fine on the hills, and that harvest will soon begin.

Dr. G. W. Via and wife, of Buxton, were in the city yesterday morning and returned home on the P. R. & N. The Doctor had been to Portland with a patient for a surgical operation.

Ervin Burkhalter, of South Tualatin, was in town yesterday, feeling good over the fact that out of his four-mile trip to the city he has about three miles of rock roads on which to ramble.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Blaser and Inez Reauser, accompanied by Mrs. Louisa Hostetler and daughter, Etta, depart Saturday for an outing at Tillamook, where they will visit with Mrs. Wade Everest.

A. L. Grebe Monday sold four acres of orchard at Tualatin, the selling price being $2,000. Maurice Bluestone was the purchaser. Land down in the Tualatin country has some value these days.

J. T. Rice, of Varley, was in the city yesterday. He reports that onions are doing nicely on the beaverdam sections, but that a little rain would not be amiss at this time—particularly for onion growers.

Miss Hazel Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart, while picking apples at the South Tualatin ranch, last evening, fell from a tree, and was unconscious for a half hour. Dr. Robb attended, and found but a few minor injuries.

Hillsboro Planing Mill for sale. Rare business opportunity. Cash or terms.—W. E. Wheeler, Hillsboro, Ore.

Dr. Carlos Smith, of Aberdeen, Wash., was over Sunday, a guest of his brother, Dr. E. H. Smith.

Mrs. H. E. McKinney, of Portland, was in the city this week, the guest of her sister, Miss Pearl Smith, at the Mrs. Emma McKinney home.

J. J. Hartley and wife, of Banks, start this week for a trip through Eastern and Southern Oregon. They will make the trip in their auto, and expect to be gone until the last of August.

Hostetler & Anderson, of Portland, report the following recent sales of Washington County farm land—the W. E. Smith place of 60 acres in South Tualatin, to F. A. Kubat, recently of Wisconsin; the J. C. Bills place of 29 acres, at North Plains, to W. W. Winkie, of Walla Walla; and the Brown place of 20 acres, near Blooming, to F. J. Downey, recently of California.

For sale or rent: Ranch of 16 acres with 6 acres clear; 100 fruit trees in bearing; good onion ground on quarter acre; good pasture; all slashed; house and barn and chicken house, and on-ion house. Running stream through place. Good spring, and well. Five miles S. E. of Hillsboro, on river road. Terms.—J. O. Johnson, Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 2.

The Jolly Neighbors met last Thursday evening and tendered a surprise to Richard Morton, of Fifth and Main, the occasion being the 41st birthday of Mr. Morton. The evening was enjoyed with music, games, etc., and at a late hour light refreshments were served.

John M. Wall and family returned Monday evening from their trip to Tillamook via Sheridan and the Grand Ronde. Mr. Wall says the trip a fine one, with good motoring all the way with the exception of about eight miles through the reservation, where the going is sufficiently rough to take an hour and a half for the distance.

We are agent for the following stoves—Steiger & Kerr stoves and ranges; Arcadian ranges; Alcazar and Brighton, Quality and Diamond ranges.—D. Corwin, 13-1f

Dewey Johnson, the fifteen year old son of Chris Johnson, of Mason Hill, beyond North Plains, was severely injured one day last week, while handling a pulley on a hayfork. His hand was caught in the wheel, one finger dislocated, one fractured, and the entire nail torn from three.

Alcazar ranges are strictly new, up-to-date, Colonial style, typifying simplicity and beauty, highest quality and mechanical perfection.—D. Corwin. 13-1f

Dr. Hyde, assisted by Dr. Robb, wired together a shoulder blade for Joseph Novotne, of Scholds, the first of the week. The bone was fractured some days ago, and would not heal, so the two parts were brought together and wire-stitched.

Rhode Island Red eggs, for hatching purposes. Mrs. Max Crandall, on Maple between Second and Third. Telephone City 497.

Mark Woodruff, with the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, was in Hillsboro, yesterday, spending the day, talking over matters with business men. Mr. Woodruff is the publicity man for the electric line, and his duties keep him more than busy.

Dance at New Helvetia Hall, July 18, from 8 p. m. to 12 p. m. Tickets, 75c. Allen's orchestra, Feuerstein and Patton, managers. 15-7

John Peters and wife, of Verboort, were in the city Monday, and Mr. Peters called on the Argon for another year of reading. He says that crops are looking fairly good up his way, and that but very little damage was done to the hay.

For sale: Jersey cow, 4 years old in fall; gentle, sound; tests 5 per cent.; 4 gallons daily. Price, $80.—L. G. McNew, Beaverton.

E. Simmons, charged with insanity, was brought down from near Groveland, Sunday, and after examination by Dr. F. A. Bailey, was discharged from custody and the costs taxed up to the complaining witness.

Several thousand fine kale plants for sale.—Orville Prickett, Banks, Ore., Route 3. 15-7

Dr. Leon W. Hyde attended the autopsy on the body of Wm. Veach, Monday, and attested, through affidavit, as to the proceedings, so that the Sheridan, Wyoming, physicians could verify their findings.

PROFESSIONAL

F. A. BAILEY, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

R. M. ERWIN, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

ELMER H. SMITH M. D. D. O. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

J. O. ROBB, M. D. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

DR. B. L. SEARS Physician and Surgeon

BAGLEY & HARE ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

E. B. TONGUE ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

JOHN M. WALL ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

W. N. BARRETT ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

THOS. H. TONGUE, JR. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

DR. L. W. HYDE Successor to Dr. Linklater

Frederick Andersen, M. D. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

SCHNABEL & LaROCHE

DR. W. E. PITTENGER Dentist

DR. J. R. MARSHALL, DENTIST

DR. C. H. POLLOCK, Dentist

BOWMAN & VALLANDIGHAM Attorneys-At-Law

COMMERCIAL BANK BLOCK

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore

Hillsboro - - - - - Ore