Mrs. C. V. Wilkins is enjoying a vacation at Rockaway. Martin Vandehey, of Newton, was in town the first of the week. C. L. Crocker and family were up from Newton, the last of the week. Ben Brown, of near Laurel, was over to Hillsboro the last of the week. E. E. Ling returned from a trip to San Francisco, the last of the week.

A complete line of wall papers, the newest patterns, at Grover Combs' Furniture Store. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stevens have returned from an outing at Netarts and Barview. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parker returned from the Tillamook beaches, Saturday.

Largest stock of wall papers and decorations in the city, at Grover Combs' Furniture Store. J. H. Simpson and family, of South Tualatin, spent Sunday on Gales Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miltenberger returned from an outing at Rockaway, Friday. Thomas Talbot, of Cornelius, was down to the county seat the first of the week.

Dr. Ira E. Barrett, of Beaverton, was in the city Monday morning. Sheriff Reeves went to Salem, Monday, conveying Earl McCoy to the penitentiary. Peter Gotlieb, of near Jolly Plains, was in the city Monday, greeting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott, of Forest Grove, was down to the city the first of the week. Chas. Wescott, of Gaston, was down to Hillsboro, Monday morning, on business. Mrs. R. K. Simpson, of this city, went to Rockaway, Monday, to remain a fortnight.

Dr. Ed. Wheeler and wife, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger, Sunday. The German Speaking Society will meet at the Wm. Schendel place, 2 miles south of Cornelius, Sunday, August 2.

Geo. R. Bagley was in Salem, Monday, appearing before the Supreme Court in the Tillamook hotel litigation. Geo. Russell, of Gaston, and deputy game warden, Parker, of Yamhill, were in the city the last of the week.

The court recently decreed that J. A. Baker, of Gaston, was entitled to the liquor taken in a raid. It is still in the sheriff's office. Virgil Cooper and Carey Houseman were out from Portland, Friday, and remained over night as the result of a broken auto axle.

Geo. Darey, of North Plains, was over Saturday afternoon. He has been engaged in work on the new Pythian Hall. The building will be ready for occupancy by Fall. W. N. Barrett came over from Rockaway, Sunday, remaining for a day or so to look after his legal affairs. He says there is a big Hillsboro colony over at that popular beach.

Jos. Hickenbottom and wife have gone to Vernonia, where Mr. Hickenbottom owns a fine farm, right at the town. They were married at Kalama, Wash., July 20, 1914, Rev. Boggess officiating. L. W. House and party, while returning from Gales Creek last Sunday evening, passed a doe and a fawn on the edge of the county road. The youngster was taking its supper, and was a very pretty, as well as an unusual sight.

D. B. Roe and Arthur Bacon, of above Mountandale, were in town Saturday, getting hunting licenses. D. B. says that does and fawns have been imposing on the settlers up his way, and thinks there is a buck or so out in the timber. Levi Dixon, of Forest Grove, was bound over to appear before the grand jury, by Judge Smith, Saturday, the charge being exposing obscene pictures. Two other boys were in custody—Fred Woodhouse and Geo. McPherson—on the same charge, but was allowed to go, as it was shown that Dixon was the boy who was the chief offender.

The Huntman ranch delivered some fine late strawberries at the Morton & Freeman store, the last of the week, from their irrigated garden. The farm will soon have a lot of these fine berries for the market, and it shows that Summer irrigation pays in the Willamette Valley. Adolph Siegrist, L. P. Adams, Guy Powers and Chas. Lang went to Sheridan, Sunday, to witness the ball game between Sheridan and Dallas. Ed. Henderson and Duke McCurdy, of the local team, played second base and shortstop for Sheridan, and the team beat Dallas by a score of 7 to 1.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.
Ruth Dickinson, Plaintiff
vs
W. J. Dickinson, Defendant.
To W. J. Dickinson, the above named defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified to appear in the above entitled Court and cause on or before Friday, the 28th day of August, 1914, which is six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons and first publication of the complaint filed against you, and if you fail to appear and answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between you and the plaintiff upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, for the care and custody of the minor children of this marriage and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.
This summons is served upon you by publication in the Hillsboro Argus by virtue of an order of the Hon. B. R. Remoner, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Washington and State of Oregon, and said order pronounced the 27th day of July, 1914, and first publication as July 16th, 1914, and the date of the last publication as August 27th, 1914.
