City Recorder of Forest Grove Fines Lawyer Five Dollars

THORNEY WILL SUE WRIT REVIEW

Charged With Using Profane Language. Which Hoffman Donies

City Marshal P. W. Watkins and his deputy, of Forest Grove, after a skirmish of several minutes duration, arrested and lodged Attorney J. N. Hoffman in jail, last Saturday night. Frank Bear, the deputy, had, according to current account, found a necklace belonging to a Mrs. Morris. Attorney Hoffman went with Mrs. Morris to secure the piece of lewelry, when an altercation enmed. The city marshal ordered Hoffman to relinquish his quest, and after hasty words the marshal and deputy proceeded to arrest the attorney, charging that After a struggle Hoffman was rahkburst? placed in the jail and the doors losed behind him. Hoffman was ater arraigned and pleaded not guilty, and his trial took place political boom. Monday afternoon, before a rowded court room, Watkins and Bear, according to report, testified that Hoffman used the ollowing language - "None of our G - D - business." This the attorney denied, and it is aid that a Mr. Cassidy and Mrs. Morris, who were present at the altercation, also testified that your neighbors will not feel like conbey heard no such language. After hearing the evidence the recorder fined Hoffman $5.

Hoffman says he keenly feels the disgrace of being lodged in ail, and he threatens to sue out a writ of review and have the case taken to circuit court. He There is good sense in the blea. also is taking under advisement the proposition of suing the city for false imprisonment.

Hoffman asked the city recorder to make the fine $25 so he could appeal it, but this the officer declined. The fine was suspended during good behavior.
