Firestone Announcement

This is to announce that Wilkes Auto Co. Hillsboro, Oregon, will now supply all motor car owners of this community with Firestone Tires Tubes and Accessories

An ever growing demand for Firestones in this locality and every locality where quality is appreciated has made it necessary to establish headquarters here.

The Firestone factory—the Largest Exclusive Tire Factory in the World—has again increased greatly and the output has jumped 78%.

This enormous output, made under perfect factory conditions, makes it possible to sell Firestones at a price no greater than others are forced to charge for tires made in less economical factories.

Senator Chamberlain will not be able to come to Oregon until late in September, owing to his committee work in Washington. He will then take the field in the interests of his candidacy, and meantime his friends are working faithfully for him. He is entitled to re-election, for his defeat would mean a distinct loss to Oregon. Chamberlain has made good as the Oregon representative in the Senate, and his positions on committees are more than important.

RIVER ROAD NOTES

A very pleasant time was had at the home of Mrs. Carl Skow, on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 5, 1914, when a few ladies of the neighborhood gathered there in honor of Mr. Skow's birthday. As this is a very busy season the visit was enjoyed by all, and far too soon the afternoon came to an end, when all were seated to a bountiful supper. All regretted that Mr. Skow could not be there as he was away with Thorngy Holmes threshing outfit. Those present were Mesdames Carl Skow, J. Sarason, M. Borden, M. Solgard, J. Zimmerman, Emma Adams, Gas Kemper, George Graves, L. Deleye, Misses Helen Scott, Lillian Johnson, Genevieve Adams and Margaret Skow; Masters Allan and Sterling Adams.

Miss Nellie Robinson, of Portland, is a guest at the W. J. Ingram home.

J. Q. Johnson departed last week on a three weeks' hunting and fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kearney gave a very pleasant party for their son on Friday evening, Aug. 7. The evening was spent with music and games on the lawn. At midnight all were given a treat of ice cream and cake. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kearney and Mrs. Geo. S. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Ingram; Eva Ingram, Nellie Robinson, Emma Adams, Lillian Johnson, Mary Robinson, Elvira Anderson, Elsie Batehlar, Edna Hogrefe, Rosa Kramer; Francis Kearney, Elmer Sturdevant, John Worthington, Eugene Johnson, Alford Keimers, Raymond Way, Ross and Harvey Jack, Riley Ingram, Walter Horace and Marvin Robinson, Arnold Ehrig, Edwin Burshalter and Oscar Johansen.

Martin E. Haley, of Portland, spent the week end at the F. H. Kearney home.

Notice to Farmers

The Registered Percheron stallion, advertised for season by J. Otto, in this paper, will make the Fall season, beginning August 21 as follows: Beaverton, Fridays, Hillsboro, Saturdays at Second St. Livory. At home, 1 1/2 miles east of Laurel, Mondays, Sherwood, Tuesday evenings and Wednesdays. Terms—$15 to insure with foal. Geo. Chambers, Owner.

Dr. Leon Hyde will leave Saturday to spend the week-end at the Tillamook beaches.

Dance at Helvetia Hall, Saturday evening, Aug. 22. Tickets, 75 cents. Dancing until midnight.—Committee, by J. T. Ford.

Mrs. Jos. Wolfersperger departed Saturday for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Commons, at Opa, in Lincoln county.

Henry Matthes, of near Laurel, recently lost a valuable Holstein bull, the animal being shot by hunters. Hunting is now prohibited on his place, and the John Matthes place, which he rents.

Anton Gross, near Blomington, was in yesterday. He says the re-decking of the Jackson Bottom bridge makes considerable travel for residents in South Tualatin these days. The bridge is closed from 8 in the morning until 5 in the evening.

Geo. H. Ingram, of Nesmith, was held up by two highwaymen Monday night, and relieved of $25 in cash, a gold watch, and his ticket on the Oregon Electric. Ingram works at the Globe Theatre, Portland, and Monday was his pay day. It is thought that some one conversant with the fact is responsible for the robbery.

Notice to Property Owners

With the concurrence of the Council, I desire to make a final and earnest appeal to the property owners of Hillsboro to immediately repair all defective sidewalks and place the same in a safe condition for city use. An emergency exists and the city may be called upon at any time to pay large judgments for damages and costs if this is not done. It is the duty of the property owner to repair and maintain his sidewalk in good condition and to make good any damage caused by the same. I shall convene the Council in extra session on the 20th inst and will advise that all sidewalks in need of repair and destroyed and new sidewalks ordered built and that such measures be taken with reference to any grass and weeds as may be necessary. I ask the co-operation of all property owners.
