Rain is badly needed for the potato crop, and if the dry spell holds two weeks longer it will mean a short crop.

Oregon should this year get a crack at the present millage bill for the Universities, passed by the last legislature. Enough is enough, but too much is a burden—and the money now being taken from taxpayers for university purposes is a calamity.

The prospects for the election of Senator Chamberlain to succeed himself are more than bright. He has Portland almost solidly behind him, and he is gaining every day in the state at large. His wide experience in the Senate, and his devotion to duty has made him a tower of strength.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson, of No. 708 East Taylor, Portland, were host and hostess at a birthday surprise, August 12, the guest of honor being Joseph Verbiske, the fiancee of Miss Helen Nelson. The evening was enjoyed with music and dancing, and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Elin, Frank Verbiske, H. D. Emerick, A. Taylor, Miss Emerick, Miss Verbiske, Mrs. Voegel, Miss Helen Nelson, J. Verbiske Sr. and Jos. Verbiske, both of Portland, and Miss Burns, of Spokane. Mr. Verbiske was the recipient of several nice presents.

Probate: The McNulty estate has filed an order asking the court to authorize the payment of $106.38 with interest since December, 1907, at six per cent. to the state, as inheritance tax, and to distribute the balance of the estate, the total being over $11,000, to the three heirs, Thos McNulty, of Ireland, and Mary McNicholas, of the Eastern United States. The estate of J. A. Foote, deed, has been finally closed of record. The estate of Caroline Wagner, deed, has been set for Sept 21.

Mrs. Anna Quinn has sued W. J. Quinn for divorce, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to provide. They were married in Seattle in 1911 and have been residents of Oregon for over two years. Olive E. Hartman has sued F. B. Hartman for divorce, alleging that the husband has called her insulting names, and that he beat her. She has three minor children over which she wants guardianship.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Christian Fowley, Plaintiff, vs.

F. F. Fowley, Defendant.

To F. F. Fowley answer named defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause, or to file your answer thereto, on or before Friday, the 13th day of August, 1914, which is six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Saturday the 29th day of July, 1914, and if you fail to appear and answer the Complaint for said period of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, the Court will decree that you are to be held in default of answer and that the Plaintiff and her sureties shall further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable and as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint.

This summons is published by order of the Hon. D. H. Reasoner, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, and said order was made and stated on the 27th day of July, 1914, and directs the publication of this summons for six consecutive weeks in the Hillsboro Argus, and the date of the first publication is Thursday, the 27th day of July, 1914, and the date of the last publication is Thursday, the 13th day of August, 1914.

Clyde Richardson, Attorney for Plaintiff, 318 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

Executor's Notice

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, duly appointed and confirmed Executor of the last Will and Testament of Nathan J. Goodwin, deceased, and is duly qualified as such.

Now, therefore, all persons having claims against the estate of Nathan J. Goodwin, deceased, are hereby required to present the same to the undersigned Executor at the law office of Bagley & Hare, in Hillsboro, Oregon, together with proper vouchers, within six months from the date of this notice.

Dated this July 28, 1914.

Robert C. Goodwin, Executor of the last Will and Testament of Nathan J. Goodwin, deceased.

Bagley & Hare, Attorneys for Executor.

Notice to the Public

Notice is hereby given that the County Surveyor of Washington County, Oregon, has filed in the office of the County Clerk, at Hillsboro, Oregon, a certain map of the county, to-wit: a map of the completion of the contract of J. H. Herndon in grading and constructing a county road in sec. 31, T. 2 S., R. 12 E., M. and any firm or corporation having objections to the contents of said map, or persons interested in the same, shall file the same within two weeks from the date of the first publication of this notice, at the office of the county clerk, at Hillsboro, Oregon.

Dated at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 14th day of August, 1914.

Edw. C. Lane, County Clerk.

Notice to Property Owners

With the concurrence of the Council, I desire to make a final and earnest appeal to the property owners of Hillsboro to immediately repair all defective sidewalks and place the same in a safe condition for travel. An emergency exists and the city may be called upon at any time to pay large judgments for damages and suits from this it is neither desirable nor just that pedestrians should be rendered liable to injury.

Attention is called to dry weak and grass which at this time are a great nuisance and liable to cause dangerous fire. I shall convene the Council in extra session on the 20th inst and will advise that all sidewalks in need of repair and not repaired by that date be condemned and destroyed and new sidewalks ordered built and that such measures be taken with reference to dry grass and weeds as may be necessary. I ask the co-operation of all property owners.

H. T. Bagley, Mayor.

Notice of Final Accounts

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has this day filed his final account and report in the estate of Malinda Claren, deceased, and that the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, has appointed Monday, the 17th day of September, A. D. 1914, at 10 o'clock of the forenoon of said day at the court room in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, for the hearing of the said final account and report and for the settlement of said estate, if any party has any objections to the same, they may file the same with the County Clerk at Hillsboro, Oregon, on or before the 7th day of August, 1914.

Dated this 7th day of August, 1914.

John McArthur, Attorney.

E. B. Tongue, Attorney.

E. T. Turner, the undersigned, was in town the last week.
