UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1594; calves, 85; hogs, 1542; sheep, 6889.

Cattle liquidation has been of fair volume, this week. The market is about steady. Top steers selling around 7 cents. Cows 6; heifers 6 25; tops on bulls 4 50.

Extremely light receipts of hogs for the week. Business active, outlet broad. Demand exceeded supply and the market held the highest position of any other American market.

A comparatively small supply of mutton offering. A thousand fancy yearling wethers selling at 5 was the outstanding feature. Ewe trade sluggish and quality of the lambs offering was medium; they brought 5.

An auto driven by a Mr. Frost, containing Geo. Hunter and wife and Mr. Dunlap and wife and children, North Plains, turned turtle Saturday morning, near the Glencoe road, just turning out of town, a quarter mile west of the P. R. & N. crossing. Mrs. Dunlap had one rib broken badly and two fractured, and suffered some internal injuries. Dr. Bailey attended her. Geo. Hunter had an ankle sprained, but was able to get along with crutches and get into the Odd Fellows parade. The four year old son of the Dunhops sustained a dislocation of the collar bone. The other child and Mr. Dunlap, and the driver and Mrs. Hunter were not injured. After all it was rather a "lucky accident."

Dr. Erwin was called to reduce a fracture for Miss Carrie Cady, of near Newberg, who fell from a wagon, while going to a dance, one evening last week. She had started to get out to fix the tail-gate of the vehicle, when the team pitched forward, throwing her out. She was in company of her brother and mother. The dance was postponed.
