SOME INFLUENCE

Probably it has not escaped attention in Oregon that Senator Burton, who has been locally denounced as a buccaneer and a highwayman for his determined opposition to the proposed river and harbor bill, assented readily to a suggestion from Senator Chamberlain that he accept and approve $1,500,000 for a continuing contract for the Columbia River, as well as the $1,000,000 original appropriation. It appears also that all the Oregon items had been accepted by Senator Burton, and had found a place in his compromise measure.

—Oregonian.

As the bill passed carried but twenty millions, and Senator Chamberlain gets two and one-half millions for Oregon, it would appear that the Senator from Oregon has some influence, after all. The Columbia River gets over one-tenth of the so-called "pork." If Chamberlain has this prestige in Washington it would appear that it is well worth while to send him back—which Oregon will proceed promptly to do in November.

Larver, McNeil Roberts, and Jane Roberts his wife, Charis Stephens a minor, and John Roberts and Elmer Roberts his wife, and all other persons unknown, having or claiming an interest in the real estate hereinafter described.

You are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, at the court room thereof, at Hillsboro, in said County of Washington, on Monday, the 5th day of November, 1914, at ten o'clock, in the forenoon of that day, then and there show cause if any you have, why an order of said court should not be made authorizing and directing John Roberts, administrator of said estate, to sell at private sale for cash in hand or sell at public sale, the following described real estate belonging to said estate, situate in the County of Tillamook State of Oregon, and particularly described as follows:

The southeast quarter of the Northwest quarter; the East half of the Southwest quarter; and the Northwest quarter of the Southeast quarter of Section six (6) Township two (2) North, 10 Range nine (9) West of the Willamette Meridian, containing one hundred and sixty acres (160), as per plat in the petition of John Roberts filed herein.

Witness: The Hon. D. B. Hoagson, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, with the seal of said court affixed, this 21st day of September, A. D. 1914.

Attest: Edw. S. Sparks, Clerk of Washington County, Oregon.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Public notice is hereby given that from and after Saturday, October 31, 1914, I will, from day to day, at my office in the Post Office Building, in the City of Portland, Oregon, offer for sale and will sell at private sale and to the highest bidder for cash, all of the eight, little and interest which Frank Kiebel and Eugene V. Kiebel, his wife, had on the 9th day of May, 1914, or at any time thereafter, either in or to all of the following described real property, lying, being and situated in Washington County, Oregon, and being more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

An undivided one-half interest in and to the Lots Numbered Seven (7) and Eight (8) in Block Numbered Three (3) of Myers Addition to Hillsboro, Oregon, according to the recorded plat thereof in Washington County, in the State of Oregon.

Said property will be sold by me, free and clear from the operation of a certain judgment in favor of the United States and against the said Frank Kiebel, and there will be furnished to the purchaser at said sale a release signed by the proper officers of the United States recognizing all of the property herein described from the lien and operation of said judgment.

Dated at Portland, Oregon, this 15th day of September, A. D. 1914.

John Manning, United States Marshal for the District of Oregon.

VINDICATION

WHO MALIGNS?

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway has the respect of every man and woman in the State of Oregon who thinks out his or her own opinions. She is assailed only by a minority of those who allow other people to think out their opinions for them.

SHE SPEAKS

It has been brought to my attention that the Anti-Saloon League, following the same tactics it has followed in every campaign heretofore, is trying to besmirch this organization and to carry on a vicious campaign of untruths. No name seems to be too good to be dragged into the mud by them. I have reliable information that a statement has been made to the Anti-Saloon League and to the Committee of One Hundred by Mrs. Cora C. Talbot, former secretary of the Taxpayers' and Wage-Earners' League, that she was brought into this work by me under the impression that it was a Women's suffrage movement and her duties would be those of a physician while I made speeches throughout the state. I also understand that Mrs. Talbot makes the statement that funds have been collected without authority, and in some way the Brewers' Association has been collecting these funds. These statements are absolutely untrue. The collection of funds was authorized by me as president, and the secretary was ordered to have a letter sent out in connection with this work. I understand that Mrs. Talbot, in this purported letter, in the hands of the Anti-Saloon League and the Committee of One Hundred, states that she objected to the raising of funds under her signature as secretary. But did the good lady think the work of this league was to be carried on? Why did she think Mr. Dummeyer, cashier of the Scandinavian-American Bank, was appointed treasurer of this league? Did she think we would ask the brewers to put up the money surreptitiously? If so, she reckoned without her host. I have always fought in the open, and now, in my 66th year, and probably in my last campaign, I do not intend to change the principles I have always fought for, nor depart from my honesty of purpose in advocacy of equal rights for all the people—by no means excluding women for whose interests I have spent my life to obtain the ballot. My chief concern in their behalf has always been to secure for them their economic independence, as married mothers within the home, which also will enable any woman to quit the business of marrying lucre or raising drunkards.

The moneys collected are in the hands of Treasurer Dummeyer, and all those who have donated have received a letter acknowledging receipt thereof. Any one desiring may inquire from our treasurer as to whether the money has been put in his hands, and I am quite sure he will advise them of receipt of their donation. If there is any one who has paid their money into this organization, misapprehension as donation for carrying on this work this league will be only too glad to refund it.

It is indeed strange that Mrs. Talbot thought this was a suffrage movement when she was in the Portland Hotel, engaged the dining-room for our first luncheon for organization and arranged for the payment of this luncheon, and went so far as to get speakers to express their views against prohibition.

The real break between Mrs. Talbot and myself was caused when I found out that she had gone to the Brewers' Association and told them she could be of good service to them in connection with this league and asked and received a salary from the Brewers' Association on the ground that she was putting in her time and needed the money. On the 26th of August a meeting was held between Mrs. Talbot and myself for the purpose of getting matters straightened out before starting the present organization. At this meeting a statement was signed by myself as president and Mrs. Talbot as secretary that the two letters sent out by myself, as well as the letter sent out by the publicity department, were approved. This statement ended with the sentence: "After discussing generally the affairs of the league, the officers ratified all work that had been done up to date by the publicity bureau and officers of the association."

I have lived in this state for 50 years, during all of which time I have toiled and worked for the people of my state, and I am willing to leave it to the public to decide as to whether I would lend myself in any way to any organization or any act that could be construed as anything but honest. Every one in this state knows Mrs. Duniway and her family. I wish further to say that, if the session arises and I deem it necessary to go further into this matter, I will be glad to publish any additional facts in these same papers not necessary to publish now, and will meet the conditions they arise. If the Anti-Saloon League, by its paid foreign agitators or Committee of One Hundred, think they can besmear this issue by trying to drag into the mud my name or others, they are very much mistaken. I expect to carry this work on to the conclusion of this campaign and then allow the people to judge as to whether we will control our own affairs in the State of Oregon or allow our paid agitators of the East to show us what to do.

(Signed) Abigail Scott Duniway

Inasmuch as the officers and members of the Hop Growers' and Dealers' Association of Oregon have individually and collectively been assailed by the same designing politicians, 'reformers', quite as viciously and equally as unjustly as the attack on "Oregon's Grand Old Lady," we hereby give publicity to Mrs. Duniway's open letter, as an offering of tribute.
