

FREDERICK HOLLISTER For Congress

When a paper like the Ashland Tidings, a publican paper for many years, supports Frederick Hollister for Congress, it means something. It is giving Mr. Hollister its heartiest support, and says Southern Oregon is going to roll up a plurality for the North Bend candidate.

Hollister is a successful business man—Knows how to get things—will get them—and when he succeeds Mr. Hawley at Washington, the State will have a dignified representation in the House of Representatives. Mr. Hollister's friends are making his fight their fight, regardless of politics and looks like election.

SHERIFF TO START AFTER PERSONAL TAX

Law Compels Him to Levy Upon Chattels—Take Possession and Sell
REFUSAL BY SHERIFF MEANS FINE
Liable to $1,000 Fine if Official Does not do His Duty

Sheriff Reeves will start the collection of tax on personal property next week. The laws says: "On or as soon as practicable after the first day of September in each year the sheriff shall proceed to collect all taxes levied in his county upon personal property which have not been paid before said day, together with penalty and interest thereon. He shall levy upon sufficient goods and chattels, belonging to the person, firm, corporation or association charged with such taxes, if the firm can be found in the county, by taking them into his possession, to pay such delinquent taxes, together with interest, accruing interest, penalties and all other lawful taxes, and shall immediately advertise such goods and chattels for sale by posting written or printed notices of the time and place of sale in three public places in his county not less than 10 days prior to such sale, etc."

The law also provides that the tax can be charged against real property owned by the same parties, and such tax, after charging, shall become a lien.

The sheriff who refuses to follow the law is liable to indictment, and upon conviction may be punished by not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 fine, or by imprisonment of not less than six months nor more than six years—which is some penalty.

No person can justify complain if the sheriff seeks to evade and avoid either the fine or imprisonment.

He can also be charged 10 per centum damages and 12 per centum interest, and this is collectible upon the officer's bond.

There are hundreds of people on the roll who have not paid their personal tax.
