

For Oregon's United States Senator

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN

Has Earned Your Vote

Senator Chamberlain was one of Oregon's best Governor's.

As Governor

he saved millions for the State—No one questions this assertion, as it is fact. He fought for initiative and referendum. Vetted bills with emergency clauses. Opposed free railroad passes for legislators. Urged railroad commission bill. Secured abolition of child labor. Urged taxation of timber and corporations. Defended Popular government and Statement No. 1.

As United States Senator

he is a National figure. Passed Chamberlain Alaska Railway law. Secured funds for Umatilla reclamation. Secured funds for Oregon rivers and harbors. Cut Federal court fees in half. Fought for initiative and referendum in constitutions of Arizona, New Mexico, and Delaware. Fought for Woman's Suffrage. Voted for Direct election of U. S. Senators.

Senator Chamberlain secured two and one-half millions for the Columbia River improvements—Which is one-eighth of the total river and harbor appropriation this year.

Senator Chamberlain has made good. He is progressive in legislation, and has given Oregon a dignity among other states. The "stand-pat" newspapers are against him—One of the chiefest reasons that you as a voter, should be for him, rather than be for his timberland apponent.
