HILLSBORO PYTHIANS SEND JUBILEE MEN

Grand Chancellor Grant Asks Boys to Entertain Grand Lodge
DOWN TO ROSE CITY MONDAY EVE
Boys Had New Repertoire and Gave Fine Evening's Entertainment

Upon request of Grand Chancellor Frank S. Grant, the Pythian Jubilee Singers and Minstrels went to Portland, Monday night, and pulled off an entertainment for the Grand Lodge Body. The boys were in fine fettle, and Director Moore had them well drilled. The fame of the company has gone all over the state since the Grand Lodge officials heard them at the Forest Grove district convention last Fall. Their work at Portland won them much applause, and they are wanted again at the next year's Grand Lodge. The members of the company and their repertoire appears with this "take."

The Portland Commercial Club and the Oregon Development League, realizing the critical situation of the apple market, intend to throw all the strength of their support in promoting a "Buy a Box of Apples" campaign in conjunction with the National Apple Day, which occurs on Oct. 20 this year. Over a dozen committees have already been appointed. Among the numerous features which have been proposed are the following: Hotels, restaurants and theatres will feature apples in many novel and attractive ways. Newspapers and public speakers will unite in a chorus, praising the beauty, virtue and utility of the apple. Public officials, clubs and societies will lend their sanction and approval to the movement.

For Sale Cheap—Light team geldings, about 2100; double harness; 1 1/2 inch Milburn Tubular axle wagon; buggy and buggy harness; 3 1/2 heavy truck farm wagon with flat hay-rack; nearly new John Deere Pivotal riding double row cultivator, 10-shovel; John Deere 12-in walking plow, 3 lays; good 50-tooth drag harrow; 9-ft hayrake; 150 ft new 1-inch Manila rope, 125 ft 1/2-inch steel cable and blocks. Can be seen at my home at Witch Hazel Station, on the S. P. R. R.—W. C. Bolton, Beaverton, Ore., Rt. D. 4. 28-30

Mrs. E. A. Mellen died at Orenco, last Thursday morning, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. McDonald, with whom she made her home for a number of years. She was one of the first white children born in Oregon, being a daughter of the late Stephen Statts. Her parents moved to Oregon in 1844, settling first in Portland, where she was born January 21, 1849. She was married to W. A. K. Mellen, of Salem. Mrs. Mellen is survived by two brothers, W. K. Statts, of Bend, Ore., and C. S. Statts, of Toppenish, Wash., and by two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Hubbard, of Independence, Ore., and Mrs. Cal Johnson, of San Francisco, Cal.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.

Rufus Waggener and wife, for years connected with the Hotel Tualatin, both of them being well known in Hillsboro and the county, came over from Newport, Friday, for a two weeks visit with their children and families. While here they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates. They will visit their son in Portland, and their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Kindt, at Kinton.

Herb Matteson, of Gaston, was in the city Saturday, greeting friends. Matteson has traveled in the big woods in quest of game, and enforcing the law, perhaps more than any other man in the county, unless it should be the Russell boys, of Gaston.

Taken up: Three heifer calves. Owner prove property, pay charges and cost of advertising, and take same away.—Ted Schallenger, Beaverton, Ore., Rt. 2. About 1 1/2 mile North of Beaverton, on Walker road. 28-30

Game Wardens Parker and Chas. Russell were down from Gaston, Monday. They report but few Washington County violations of the game law, so far, this season, but found eight smashers of the statute up in Linn County, the other day.

For sale: Three fresh milk cows, one Jersey and two part Holstein, good dairy cows; four to brood sows, 2 with pigs and 2 farrow in about a month.—Mrs. L. C. Brown, Cornelius, Ore., Route 2; telephone Hillsboro 25-Line 9. 30-32

Geo. Zeigler, of near Newberg, has bought the Tip Smith home from W. O. Donelson, and will soon move here with his family. The house is now occupied by J. S. Lorsche.

Ninety men are at work at the condenser construction work—a pretty good payroll, even if it be only temporary.

M. Sussauer, of Cornelius, a pioneer in the hop business in his district, was a city caller Saturday.

E. C. Mulloy, of Laurel, was a county seat visitor Monday morning.

J. B. Inlay, of Reedville, was a city caller Monday.

HISTORIC BUILDING SCORCHED BY FIRE

Hillsboro Court House, Now Business Building, Has Sunday Blaze
UPPER STORY IS GUTTED BY FIRE
Was Built by Contractor Wm. Green in Fall of 1852

The old Washington County court house building, constructed in 1852, caught fire in the upper story Sunday morning at seven o'clock, and was practically gutted. The fire burned the roof through in places, and all the furniture in the rooms was rendered worthless. The upper part was used by Louis Stoller and wife as a home, and the lower story was occupied by the Stoller restaurant and Adams' barber shop. Aside from water damage the lower story did not suffer. Adams was in his shop Monday morning ready for business. Stoller carried some insurance on his furniture, which has been adjusted and paid. The loss was several hundred dollars.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Wm. Smith, the cook. She was upstairs in her room when she noticed the smoke. By this time it was so thick that she was bewildered. She called to her husband, who was down in the kitchen. He rushed upstairs, only to find his wife in a dazed condition. The flames scorched his face and hair, but he fought his way through, and let his wife down from a rear window, hanging to her bathrobe to ease her fall. She lost $10 in the melee, but found it where it had fallen. Ole Dalheim, who roomed in the building, lost some currency.

The structure is owned by E. J. Lyons, of Turlock, Cal. It was built, in 1852, by William Green, contractor, and William Kane, of Forest Grove, was the foreman carpenter in charge. Henry Wehrung, the pioneer who died last year, also worked on the structure. Green built it for $3300, and the court accepted the building Dec. 8, 1852, paying him $2500, and $800 to Chas. W. Pierce, who had a lien of $800 for material and labor furnished.

The painting on the building was not done until Spring. T. J. Dyer, of the Oregonian, was paid $21 for advertising for painters' bids.

Whether the building will be repaired, or whether Lyons will tear the two structures down and build a brick, is not known. The place has always had renters because of its location, on Main Street, opposite the Hotel Tualatin.

Ulrich Kempf, of Helvetia, was in Saturday. Notwithstanding he is hovering around the 70-year mark, Mr. Kempf thinks nothing of walking in to the county seat when he feels up-to-average.

F. L. Brown, of near Laurel, was a city caller Saturday, conferring with the county court. He and his neighbors have raised money to build the stretch of road by the Leisy place, about three-quarters of a mile long, and work was commenced on the highway the last of the week. Over $300 in cash was raised and the labor will be volunteer. This will give the public a rock all the way from Hillsboro to Laurel, a distance of seven and one-half miles. That section has spent a number of special levies on this road, and they are determined to have good roads. The volunteer work has met with success, very few people living out that way refusing to sign up. The rock came from the Burkhalter quarry and work will proceed, rain or shine, so they will have their winter road.

MRS. PETER RUECKER

Mrs. Ida Ruecker, wife of Peter Ruecker, of Bloomington, was buried at Bloomington, Oct. 8, 1914, Rev. L. Stuebe conducting the services. Her maiden name was Ida Wiebke, and she was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, Oct. 10, 1868. She married Peter Ruecker, April 8, 1888, and moved to Nebraska, making that state her home until March 17, 1914, when the family started for Oregon. Arriving at Cornelius they bought a tract from the August Krause farm. She leaves to mourn her loss the husband and the following children: Henry L., the teacher in the German school, Bloomington, Martin, Gustave, Herman, Ernest and the Misses Minnie and Emma, at home.

Mrs. Ruecker was a loving wife and mother, and her loss is deeply felt.

Velden Boge, of Farmington, won the silver medal at the young men's contest given by the managers of the entertainment at the Christian church at that place, Friday evening.

Herman Luck, of Mountaindale, was in Saturday. He has his Fall plowing and seeding finished.

POSITIVE PROOF
YOUR CHECK IS YOUR RECEIPT

HAVE you ever had the annoyance of having a bill presented for payment twice? Most people have, and if no receipt has been taken there is apt to be trouble. All this difficulty can be avoided if the bill is paid by check. The endorsement on the back of the check is proof positive that the bill has been paid. There is no getting away from it.
