KILL THE GRAFT

As the Argus has heretofore said, the state school-college graft should be killed off, and at once. Under the present law, enacted by the last legislature, Washington County alone must pay an annual tax of over twenty thousand dollars for the upkeep of O. A. C. and the University of Oregon. It is too much—it is an outrage—it is robbery of the first water. On top of the fact that the people killed the millage bill only the election before the legislature met, that same legislature, elected at the same time, enacted the seven-tenths of a mill for the support of the two colleges. With this comes the increase of valuations, and now we shall see the two schools get a million dollars each year. This means over a dollar each for every man, woman and child in the state. The law should be repealed. W. G. Hara, on the legislative ticket for this county, says he will support a repeal measure. Let every representative-candidate make the same pledge. Washington County can't stand burdens like this. The "school-gang" and the Multimomah "ringster-gang" stand together—each helps the other—and the taxpayer must pay. Let Oregon do its full duty to these schools, but let the state rebel at robbery, for that is all that the present law means.

Weston wants a state Normal. The measure now on the ballot, and for which you will vote for or against, asks for one-fortieth of a mill. The Argus believes that Eastern Oregon is entitled to a Normal school. Geography demands it. It believes the Normals are a good thing for the uplift of the public school system. The Argus insists that the measure is reputable. The state already has buildings, and Weston asks for this small support. Monmouth already has an established Normal. Let Weston have one. Give the Weston Normal support—but do not forget to see to it that your representatives-elect pledge themselves to repeal the enfarious university millage bill. Then you will have accomplished something.

HERE ARE TRUE FACTS

Read through this LETTER and see if it is not fair then THINK OUT YOUR OWN OPINION

By JOHN D. TURNER, Attorney and Ex-Councilman, Salem, Ore., Sept. 21

FOR a statement concerning the effect of the dry policy on Salem, and in answer to the article by E. B. Lockhart, published in the Salem Statesman August 23, 1914, and in the New Republic under date of September 11, 1914, I submit the following:

December 1, 1913, Salem closed her fifteen saloons, three restaurants, two wholesale houses and withdrew liquor permits from eight drug stores, thus denying herself the annual revenue of $15,499. The saloons employed sixty-five men, the restaurants twenty-five. Together they had a payroll of $5,700 per month. Practically all those who conducted saloons and those employed by the saloons and restaurants have left town. All the buildings occupied a year ago by saloons are vacant, except six that have been occupied by tenants who left another building vacant, moving only to better their location. Several of the best buildings in town have their windows boarded up to serve as billboards. There are now more than five hundred modern dwellings for rent in Salem.

Rental returns have greatly depreciated. Store property on State Street, which for five years had rented for $185 per month, was re-leased within four months after the city went "dry" for two years at the rate of $119 per month. This is but a fair sample of the reduction all through the business section on property that was up for re-leasing or renting since the city went "dry."

BUSINESS UNBEARABLE. Every merchant in town, except one—a radical Prohl, has complained of the poor business done this year, and in order to keep going has dispensed with all their surplus help, thus throwing a good many clerks out of their regular monthly stipend. Many of these have now left Salem, seeking work some place else. Three shoe stores have been closed, two by the sheriff and one voluntarily. One of the largest dry goods stores has been sued for the first time in its twenty years' existence. Salem has been the closing of fourteen places of business, other than saloons, since the first of January, 1914. Does this look like big improvement?

Now I will show you how Mr. Lockhart fixed up his prohibition article. The $20,000 public market building had the roof on before the town went dry. The only work that has been done on the building since the town went dry has been the plastering of one room, which is now occupied by four stalls constituting the public market. The $40,000 insurance block is being built by Geo. F. Rodgers under a permit which gives the estimated valuation at $39,000, and for which the contract was less for less than $13,900.

BUILDING DURING DRY PERIOD. Compare these facts with Mr. Lockhart's statement: For the last wet year the building permits from January to August, inclusive, totaled $388,925, and from the first of November, 1913, to the twentieth day of September, 1914, $268,160. I start with November first in order to show some real prohibition facts. During the campaign of 1913 J. G. Vogel, a howling prohibitionist, published a statement that if the town went dry he would build sixteen new houses. So immediately after the election in November, 1913, he procured from the City Recorder sixteen permits, and under those sixteen permits he began the construction of nine houses of three and four rooms each. Only two were completed far enough to receive the windows and doors, and they have never been finished. No work of any kind has been done on these frames since last December.

I met Mr. Lockhart last Saturday night in Mr. Bechtel's real estate office, whom he was trying to induce to give him an exaggerated statement as to the amount of deposits in Salem banks showing a decrease of $369,942.69 since the town went dry, and this in spite of the fact that $485,000 reserved for bonds sold in Boston was on deposit in the banks in January, 1914, statement. This money was distributed to Salem people and left here. It was used to pay a refund on sewer assessments and to cover warrants outstanding.

NO WAGES TO GO. A leading schoolman told me that he did not know how the children would be equipped this year, but that he expected many of them would have to be clothed with books, owing to the fact that so many parents have been unable to secure work this summer. The contractor mentioned by Mr. Lockhart I have been unable to find. A prominent—but why continue? The Hat could be extended indefinitely.

I have shown enough to those who will see. Clarence True Wilson is reported to have said in a prohibition speech that Salem last year had sixteen policemen and this year has only one. Common sense would tell anyone this statement was false. Just remember that it is the hypocrite, "the wolf in sheep's clothing," that always gets your goat.

I regret very much the necessity of making public to the world the business condition of Salem, because I expect to live here for several years to come, but with the hope that others may be saved I want the city's future a sacrifice upon the altar of the State of Oregon.

Are you going to vote to kill the Hop Industry, to bring about these conditions? Don't you feel that times are hard enough now?
