CORNELIUS CLUB

The Ladies' Civic Improvement Club of Cornelius had their open meeting last Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, and in connection gave a reception to the teachers of the public school. About one hundred and fifty were present and partook of the sumptuous banquet. It was one of the most enjoyable events that has taken place for some time, as well as a successful get-together meeting.

Mrs. Leiter, in behalf of the Club, welcomed the teachers, and the response was given by Mr. Mooberry, principal of the school. Mrs. Benj. Schofield, president of the Club, then called upon others, and the following responded with live wire speeches: Prof. Yoder, Prof. Peabody, Messrs. Sherbrooke, Schofield and Waggoner, Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. Tedrow.

Mr. Schofield gave a brief review of the first schools in Washington County in which he attended school and the way in which they were conducted.

During the evening the following program was given:

Vocal solo, Mr. Mooberry; reading, Miss Eva Newman; duet, Messrs. Sherbrooke and Yoder; solo, Miss Anna Newman; solo, Mr. Peabody; solo, Mr. Yoder; quartet, teachers.

The Club is starting out on its third year of work and under the direction of its capable president, Mrs. Schofield, will work for the interest of the town. The work done by them in the past gives every assurance that this will be a banner year.
