VOL. XXI

HILLSBORO, OREGON, OCTOBER 29, 1914

NO. 32

HILLSBORO THE CAPITAL LAST SATURDAY EVENING

Man Who Will be Elected Governor was Here in Address

BOTH SMITH AND WITHYCOMBE TALK

One Held Forth in Theatre, the Other in the Court House

Hillsboro was Oregon's political capital last Saturday night, and the old town was crowded with people who came in to hear the two champions talk on issues of the day. Mr. Withycombe talked at the Crescent Theatre, and was followed by R. A. Booth, candidate for Senator. Dr. C. J. Smith held forth at the court house. Withycombe and Booth had the larger crowd, as committeemen and citizens from Forest Grove, Buxton, Scholls, and other county points were in, the managers making a special effort to make the meeting a county affair. Dr. Smith spoke to about 200. He touched on all issues confronting the voter, and dwelt upon the necessity of a single item veto in order to hold down the legislative expenditures. He told why taxes were high, and said if elected governor he would use the veto knife to protect the taxpayers.

Dr. Withycombe defended his record as the main part of his address, and criticized the attacks made on him by the press opposing him. Mr. Booth appealed for election on the grounds of the tariff measure.

The Orenco band was in attendance to furnish music for the Booth-Withycombe meeting, and quite a delegation came up from the nursery town.

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Campbell's court has disposed of the following business: Judgments rendered—Nealeigh vs Wohlschlegel; Ritter v Urbach. Decrees of divorce: Hartman vs Hartman; Mason vs Mason.

Confirmation of sheriff's sale: Redmond vs Lane; Wehrung vs Glencoe Land Co.

Default and referred to take evidence—Browne v Browne; W D Walker vs Frances Walker.

Freeman vs Donahue, plaintiff gets verdict for money for timber, and damages in the sum of $127.20, the jury being Jno Conzelman, J C Latta, W B Peterson, Cornelius Vandehey, J L Barnegrove, Geo N Harris, Chas Bate-man, S H Bullock, G J Palmateer, Carl Grubner, Henry Hesse, Thos Kerr. This case came under the provisions of the law where owners can collect $3 for $1 where timber is wrongfully cut. Bagley & Hare were attorneys for Mrs. Freeman.

REEDVILLE

The Reedville C. E. Society gave a pie social recently, and a goodly sum was realized. The following program was rendered:

Trio, by the Misses Dant, Swalley and Olinger; recitation "My First Recital," Miss Edith Hagg; bass solo, Adrian Dant; "The Bob o' link," Mrs. Mann, Portland; a play, entitled "A Bunch of Roses." The cast:

Mr. Petlove, of Petlove Court—Thomas Kirkwood. Mrs. Petlove, his wife—Wil-hony Olinger.

Higgs, the romantic maid—El-Dant. Hobson, the butler—Chas. Im-lay.

Hilda, a charming young guest—Hazel Swalley. Geo. Hargrove, another guest—Alfred Millar.

Malvina Pilkington, a maiden guest—Ruth Swalley. Mason, guest—Henry Lowry. Thomas Kirkwood, as the irate Mr. Petlove, was a complete transformation, while Miss Olinger played her part to perfection.

Miss Dant was at her best, captivating her audience as usual, and Chas. Imlay made a decided hit. Miss Hazel Swalley was indeed "a charming young guest," while Al. Millar proved a splendid match for her. Miss Ruth Swalley did some good acting, also Henry Lowry, as Mason.

Miss Anna Hyland, of Beaver-ton, was a city caller, Friday, a guest of Mrs. E. I. Kurathi.

Z. M. LaRue, of Forest Grove, was in town Saturday, and says his campaign for commissioner is meeting with favor every place he visits.

The county court made several new road districts last Saturday, and appointed supervisors. District 48 was formed below Scholls, with John Schmeltzer as supervisor; the city of Cornelius was formed as district No. 49. Thos. Tallot, supervisor; Gaston village, District 52, with Harry Wescott, supervisor; Orenco, a mile square, with H. V. Meade, supervisor; District No. 50 was formed by cutting off the east portion of the old Hillsboro district, north. The section line near the P. R. & N. is the west boundary, the line running north to the south line of Section 18, thence east to 23, thence south two miles; thence back west a mile; thence south to Rock Creek, thence down Rock Creek to Section 4's center, thence west to the city boundary, and then following the city boundary to the starting point. F. J. Williams was named as supervisor, and the new district will vote at a special meeting on rock road, with the view of getting the macadam road through to join at Cedar Mill, provided the districts to the east will take hold of the matter.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored-made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.

October weather has been of a beautiful type in Oregon, this Fall, and the oldtimers say that this is the way it was fifty years ago—plenty of sunshine, and with but little frosts. Potatoes are about done for up in the hills, however, for the frost has caught the tops in many sections. The acreage of Fall sown grain is large, and the ranchers are still seeding.

For sale: Three fresh milk cows, one Jersey and two part Holstein, good dairy cows; four brood sows, 2 with pigs and 2 to farrow in about a month.—Mrs. L. C. Brown, Cornelius, Ore., Route 2; telephone Hillsboro 25-Line 9.

Contractor Loring has a crew of men at work fixing up the old court house building, which was scorched a few days ago. The roof has been newly covered, and the entire building will be put into shape and newly painted. The council, it appears, concluded to raise the embargo against repairing the building.

For sale: Full-blood Holstein bull, not registered, 2 years old. Sire registered, mother a graded Holstein. Price reasonable.—G. W. Baker, Beaverton, Oregon, Route 3.

Night boards are appointed on all election boards this year, and the vote will be slow in counting, as there are so many amendments to be counted. Where election officials do not show up the board will fill vacancies. Where election officials have signed acceptances they are liable to a fine if they do not appear.

Shooting match—First Sunday in November—Nov. 1—near the Thatcher school house, 2 1/2 miles from Forest Grove. Ducks, 100, other poultry, and beef. 30-2

Lost: Heifer, about 3 months ago. Age, 2 1/2 years; red and white spotted; white face; one crooked horn. To be fresh while lost. No brands, no ear marks. Anyone knowing of this heifer please let me know at once.—Arnold Schallberger, Hillsdale, Ore., R. 1, Box 83. 32-4

J. Moline, of below Reedville, was in town Saturday, on road supervisor business. His road district will have a meeting to vote for or against a special road levy for rock roads.

For sale, cheap: King of the Woods drag saw, without engine, good condition, $60, cash.—Felix Cabella, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 4; 1 mile north of Oak Park 30-3

F. C. Hoecker, an attorney of Portland, was out Monday, on a case in circuit court. He is associated with Mr. Beck, who owns property down near Elmonica.

Chas. Geiberger, of near Tualatin, was a city caller, Monday. He says his district is out for good roads, even if they do cost money.

Rodell Matteson, of Forest Grove, was down to the county seat Monday.

Herman Rannow, near Farmington, was up to the county seat Monday.

COUNTY JUDGE HOLDS FOR SIX YEAR TERM

Judge Reasoner's Term Will Run Until 1916 Election

CONSTITUTION OF STATE SAYS SO

Judge Cleeton Goes Back to Office in Multnomah County—Well Known Here

The 1910 general election added a constitutional amendment to the constitution which is import to every county in the state—and as a matter of fact embarrasses sixteen counties now having election on candidates for county judge. This amendment says that county judges hold office for a term of six years from time of election, instead of four years, as formerly.

Judge Reasoner was elected in 1912, and amendment means that his term of office will not expire until six years after that date. The Multnomah legal fight over Judge Cleeton brought this fact to the attention of the authorities, and research shows that the amendment is very plain in this matter. That the county court holds under this measure and provision of the organic law is the consensus of opinion of bench and bar everywhere in the state and the Supreme Court practically admits it in the Cleeton case.

T. J. Cleeton, who was county judge of Multnomah, has been displaced as circuit judge on faulty legislation, but the Supreme court decision puts him back as county judge, and he will hold two years yet.

The six year term of a circuit or county judge therefore stands, and the counties in the state, where a judge-election is being held, will find the ballot worth but little. The amendment reads: "The judicial power of the State shall be vested in one Supreme court and in such other courts as may from time to time be created by law. The judges of the Supreme court and other courts shall be elected by the legal voters of their respective districts for a term of six years, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law, which compensation shall not be diminished during the term for which they are elected."

HILLSBORO HIGH WINS

Hillsboro High School defeated the Jefferson High, Second Team, at football, in this city, last Saturday, score of 13 to 0. Forward passes were used to advantage by both sides. Taggart, for Hillsboro, end, made a spectacular gain of 25 yards. Taggart and Fisher starred for Hillsboro. Those playing for Hillsboro were Sigler, right end; right tackle, Lepeschatt; r guard, Roy; center, Zumwalt; left half, Connell; full-back, Fisher; left guard, Deichman. Howard Clyde, of Jefferson, sustained a broken collar bone.

The Second High School team defeated the Hillsboro public school, in the preliminary, 26 to 0.

Next Saturday Hillsboro will meet Gresham High at the High School grounds, at 2 p. m. Hillsboro defeated this team Oct. 17, 7 to 0, and the return game will be spiritedly contested. There will be a preliminary between Forest Grove Second and the Hillsboro Second elevens.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1447; calves, 25; hogs, 6739; sheep, 6758.

Receipts of cattle only moderate during the past week showing a decline of over 400 head compared with same week, a year ago. Prices were strong for well finished steers, going as high as 7.50. Feeders in good demand from 5.75 to 6.25. All lines finishing strong at end of week.

Hog receipts over 6500. Demand fair and quality poor. Light and half fat stuff that should be in the feed lots again present in profusion. T o p s closing at 6.90.

Receipts comparatively good. Trading in yearling stuff brisk. A few head of feeding sheep changing hands. All lines closing firm and strong at last week's quotations.

Quite a number of Washington County people attended the West-Booth debate, in Portland, Friday evening. Hundreds were turned away.

Dr. Lowe, Nov. 14, at the Hotel Washington.

J. J. Kurathi, of Phillips, was an Argus caller, Monday.

New and second-hand barrels at Greer's.

Ernest Kroner, the architect for the Carnegie library, was in the city, Saturday.

The very freshest of fruits and vegetables are kept at Greer's. Combs' Furniture store has added a fine line of dishes and crockery. See them before buying, and you will buy there. If Auto travel was very heavy Sunday, hundreds taking advantage of the good roads and the pleasant weather.

Thos. Durham, well known here years ago, was out from Portland, the first of the week, greeting friends.

Web Phillips returned this week from a visit over at Fishhawk, in the Nehalem, and goes to Cottonwood, Idaho, this week, on a business trip.

Judge Slater, of Salem, was in town Monday, arguing a case before Judge Campbell. Judge Slater is a son of the late United States Senator, and is well known throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schuimerich, of Creswell, arrived Saturday, for a short stay in the North. Geo. came down to go up to the Arlington country for his annual wild goose hunt, and he received the word that the feathered fellows were coming in finely.

The next meeting of the German Speaking Society of Washington County will be held at the Fred Bulling home, east of the city park, Saturday, Oct. 31, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. All members are cordially invited to be in attendance.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro, Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

John Powell, in the train service in the Walla Walla country, is down for a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Powell. He says that things are moving nicely up that way this Fall, and that there was a big wheat crop, with good prices for the cereal.

Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, will speak at Forest Grove, this Friday evening. Judge Bennett carried Washington County in the primaries, last Spring, and as he is an oldtime county resident his appearance will mean a big attendance.

Washington County has sued Earl J. Lutz for taxes in the sum of $46.20, double the amount of the tax against merchandise at Forest Grove. The complaint says Lutz may remove the merchandise from Washington County. The tax was properly placed on the tax roll. This is the first suit filed to collect personal property tax.

J. D. Koch, of District No. 5, was in the city Saturday, with a notice for a special road meeting to vote for or against a special tax for road purposes. The citizens south of Cornelius are becoming interested in good roads, and the requisite number signed up for the meeting. The court decided adversely and sale will take place next Monday.

Well, well, baseball fans are again pleased, here in Oregon, that Portland has again won the pennant for the Pacific Coast league. McCredie has now won five pennants, a record not yet gained by any major league. Higganbotham will stay with the Beavers another year, having signed up his 1915 contract. Hig has won the big majority of his games, and is in the old reliable class.

Portland attorneys Saturday filed an injunction suit in circuit court, with Ernest Kroner, plaintiff, asking that Sheriff Reeves and Nettie Steve be restrained from selling Kroner's eight acres at Tigard. The sheriff's sale was advertised for Monday of this week, and Kroner asked for no sale, claiming the property was exempt of execution sale, being his family home.

The Gaston Garden Co. is feeding the first stock for the market in Washington County, having received 107 head from Eastern Oregon, the other day. The cattle will be fattened for the market at the Portland stockyards. The experiment will be watched with interest and this will become quite an industry if proven successful. The cattle are Devons and Herefords. Ensilage will largely be used in feeding.

BOOSTERS DINE AND PROMOTE FELLOWSHIP

Are Guests of Sam Weil, at the Hotel Washington, Thursday Eve

WORK FOR GOOD OF COUNTY SEAT

All Join Hands and Start Campaign for Better Conditions

Sam Weil, of Weil's Department Store, was the host at a dinner at the Hotel Washington, last Thursday evening, the guest list being members of the Boosters' Club and business men of the city. There were thirty at table, and festivities and speech making held until the midnight hour.

F. G. Mitchell, president of the Club, made the boys feel at home, while the host of the evening presided at the head of the table.

Mr. Weil was Toast Master, and the following toasts were heard with interest:

Welcome.....F. G. Mitchell
Booster Club, It's Meaning.....Dr. Erwin
Good Fellowship.....W. Mahon

The guest list signed the Booster membership, and when the assembly dispersed all were associated with the institution which promises an era of good feeling for Hillsboro. The Club will take up a series of entertainments of this nature at which the farmers will be guests. Residents of one section will be asked to one dinner, and then at the next those from another locality will be entertained.

The affair was one long to be remembered and Mr. Weil did the honors of the evening nicely. It was surprising how many excellent after-dinner speakers Hillsboro can produce, and the addresses given were full of interest and enthusiasm.

One of the pleasant features was the rendition of several musical numbers by an orchestra consisting of Earl Donelson, violin; Vincent Engeldinger, piano, and Wade Zumwalt, cornet.

The meeting dispersed after three cheers and a tiger for Mr. Weil.

Those present were: J W Connell, Dr Erwin, N R Greer, O Phelps, C C Frick, Dr Marshall, Kenneth Robb, Julius Sorenson, E M Ward, S C Killen, J H Garrett, Grover Combs, E L McCormick, Percy Long, J H Foote, L A Long, E L Moore, L M Hoyt, Fred Sewell, W N Harris, Leonard Brown, W Mahon, Sam and Jake Weil, W C Gifford, C H Michele, Wm Nelson, F G Mitchell, Geo McGee and Glen Payne.
