

FREDERICK HOLLISTER For Congress

When a paper like the Ashland Tidings, a republican paper for many years, supports Frederick Hollister for Congress, it means something. It is giving Mr. Hollister its heartiest support, and says Southern Oregon is going to roll up a big plurality for the North Bend candidate.

Hollister is a successful business man—Knows how to get things—will get them—and when he succeeds Mr. Hawley at Washington, the State will have a dignified representation in the House of Representatives. Mr. Hollister's friends are making his fight their fight, regardless of politics and it looks like election.

REPUBLICAN AND PROGRESSIVE NOMINEE FOR JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT

In 1901, at the age of 27 years, he was elected a member of the legislature from Lane County, and was re-elected to the same position in 1903, and was made speaker of the House during that session. In 1905 he was appointed by the Governor of the State, Circuit Judge for the second Judicial District, comprising of the counties of Lane, Benton, Douglas, Lincoln, Croos and Curry. In 1906 he was nominated and elected without opposition. In 1912 he was nominated to succeed himself by both the Republican and Democrat parties and was elected without opposition.

He is endorsed for the position of supreme Judge by the entire Lane County bar, comprising sixty-four members, with respect to party affiliations. He was nominated at the recent primaries by the Republican party, and Progressive party nominated him by writing his name on their ballots. His honor and integrity have never been questioned; in point of fitness he is the peer of any man in the state for Supreme Judge. He should be elected.

Reedville friends of J. B. Mc-New tell a good story on him.

Mc. has been acting as a juror, and when he comes to Hillsboro mornings he generally walks to Reedville. To do this, through the mud, he wears a pair of gum boots, and carries his shoes, wrapped in a paper, and when he reaches the station, makes the change. He was in a hurry the other morning, and grabbed his shoes in a twinkling. When he arrived at Reedville he started to make his change, and found that he had one shoe of one pair and one shoe of another. He thought he could make it through, anyway, and wear the misfits, until he donned them, when he discovered that they were both for the same foot. Whether or not he came up to jury service triggered out like this his neighbors will not say, and John just blinches when it is mentioned.

C. Blaser, Andrew Jack and Oscar Jacobs went over to Mohler the last of the week, on a fishing expedition. They had all kinds of a good time, and made a nice catch. Blaser says that Jack is one of the youngest oldest boys that he ever went out with, and that there are no blues when he is along, whether the fish bite or not.
