VOL. XXI

HILLSBORO, OREGON, NOVEMBER 5, 1914

NO. 33

B. M. NORDIN GETS FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

Jury Makes Award for Injury Sustained in Timber

ACCIDENT TOOK PLACE YEAR BACK

Lavergren Lumber Company, Cherry Grove, Defendant

B. M. Nordin, a sniper in the Lavergren Lumber Co.'s camp, Cherry Grove, until Dec. 15, 1913, when he sustained an injury, was given a verdict against the employing company, Thursday last, in circuit court, for $5,000.

His complaint was that the foreman, Olaf Hedin, was negligent in handling logs by the donkey engine process, and that his carelessness caused Nordin to be struck by a vine maple, the plaintiff sustaining injuries to his head which are permanent in character. He alleged the regular sniper was absent that day, and that he was placed in the position wherein the injury befell him. Nordin was so badly injured that his skull was trephined in order to remedy a fracture, so his complaint reads:

He alleged that his earning power is gone forever, at the age of 38 years, and he asked for $35,000 damages and special damages at $1165.50.

The verdict read: "We the jury in the above cause duly empaneled and sworn, find for the plaintiff and against the defendant and assess plaintiff's damages in the sum of $5,000."

J. T. Young, Foreman.

Judge Campbell immediately signed the judgment order and gave the defendant 10 days in which to apply for a new trial. Olsen & Lofgren and E. B. Tongue prosecuted the case, and F. E. Senn was assisted by Bagley & Hare.

It is said the case will be appealed.

The jury: J. T. Young, Geo. N. Harris, Christian Peterson, Wm. Cimino, W. B. Peterson, Cornelius Vandehy, C. E. Hodge, J. B. McNew, Chas. Bateman, Wm. Lichty, J. C. Latta and A. Herzert.

G. A. LARSEN AND WIFE HOME FROM NORWAY

Have Been Visiting in Fatherland For Over Six Months

SAYS TIMES ARE PROSPEROUS THERE

Will Reside in Hillsboro For an Extended Period

G. A. Larsen and wife, who own a farm below Newton, and between that point and Farmington, returned from a six months trip to Norway and Sweden, where they visited Mr. Larsen's relatives, two sisters and two brothers, and Mr. Larsen's mother. Mr. Larsen says that times are progressing nicely over there and he witnessed many changes since his departure from his old home.

He says the war is having no deleterious effect on Norway and Sweden, and they visited many sections in both of those kingdoms. They are looking healthy, and say they enjoyed the trip immensely. They had no trouble at all with their bookings, and say that travel is absolutely safe notwithstanding all of Europe to the South of the two countries is involved in war.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen and their children, who accompanied them, will live in Hillsboro this winter, and, perhaps, for a couple of years. Larsen will spend part of his time down on his ranch, (which is leased) making improvements. He says he is glad to get back to the old U. S. A., and that it will probably be many years before he makes another trip to the home of his youth.

SHERWOOD JOURNAL TELLS OF TOWN SPIRIT

Christmas Boxes to Europe for Children

LEAVES BROOKLYN ON NOVEMBER 10

Generosity of Country Exhibited by County People

The Christmas Ship box was sent from Sherwood early this week carrying the gifts of generous Sherwoodites to the poor and destitute of Europe whom the war will this year rob of any semblance of a "merry Christmas." The children especially are to benefit by the consignment from Sherwood. Childrens clothing articles comprised the major portion of our box and many a little heart will beat quicker under a new cloak sent from Sherwood.

The movement throughout the eastern and central states met with much approval and a ready response and when the Steamer Jason leaves Brooklyn on Nov. 10 it will carry a bounteous cargo of aid for the sufferers.

Following the announcement of last week of the names of the Sherwood contributors other donations were received and the list as completed included the following:
