

GOVERNOR WEST POINTS TO PEACE

PROCLAIMS A REAL THANKSGIVING DAY FOR OREGON

DRAWNS THE DEADLY PARALLEL

Executive Writes a Humanitarian Editorial

Salem, Or., Nov. 23.—Governor West today issued a proclamation, designating November 25 as Thanksgiving Day, and recommending that on this date the state's citizens cease their activities and give thanks for the blessings and bounties bestowed on them. In part it reads:

"When we pause, in this, the twilight of the closing year, and consider the blessings which have come to us as our portion, we are brought to realize that God, in his infinite wisdom, has blessed us with his hand of good fortune, and thrown his mantle of protection around us. For, while beyond the seas cities and fields are being laid waste, and death, closely followed by pestilence and famine, is knocking from door to door, peace and security are ours.

"Bountiful harvests have blessed the land and disease has stayed its hand. We have weathered the storm which, for a moment, threatened our industries through the closing of our markets by the foreign war, and are now facing what is bound to be an era of prosperity.

"It is fitting, therefore, that we cease, for a brief time, our daily activities and return our thanks to Almighty God for his mercy and his sustaining hand."

MRS. BRUNSWICK

Mrs. John Brunswick died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Keenon, in the Arcade District, Nov. 12, 1914. The funeral took place November 14, in the afternoon. Jemima Keenon Brunswick was born in Jewell County, Kansas, December 2, 1873, and at death was aged 35 years, 11 months and 10 days. She wedded John Brunswick Feb. 29, 1896, and nine children were born to the union, seven surviving: August, Henry, Grace, Paul, Minnie, Donald and Neil. Mrs. Brunswick united with the M. E. church when she was fifteen, and has always lived as an upright Christian. Besides the children, husband and parents, she leaves to mourn her loss the following brothers and sisters: Henry and Abraham Keenon, of the Arcade district; Mrs. J. F. Morgan, of Kelso, Wash.; Mrs. G. E. Miller and Mrs. O. H. Reed, Portland; Mrs. Margaret Griffin, Banks, and Mrs. Lauretta Lawrence, of Hillsboro.

SCHOOL MEETING

There will be a meeting at the High School Building, in Hillsboro, Saturday, Nov. 28, 2 p. m., at which time the legal voters of the district will vote for or against a nine months school, as well as for or against raising money to pay off a portion of the indebtedness. J. P. Tamesie, Chairman. Peter Boscow, Clerk.

GO. FISCHER

George Fischer, aged 74 years, died Monday evening, Nov. 23, 1914, at the Gardner Sanitarium, Hillsboro, after an illness of three weeks, following an indisposition of a year. His daughter, Miss Marie, was with him in his last hours. He leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters. For a number of years he has lived near Scholls.

SOME HOT SHOT

Banks, Nov. 21, 1914. The Argus: Does the Hillsboro Gun Club want to exterminate the China pheasants? They sure do, or they never would ask for an open season for the female birds. We had such a law a few years ago and it was only a short time until the Legislature had to make a closed season for three years. The male birds are just too foxy for the members of the Hillsboro Gun Club, and they want something easier to get. They get in their automobile and hike out through the country, and there are always some of the farmers that will let them hunt on their farms just for a shot out of the "family jug." And after the hunt (if they have any luck) they hike back to town and have some one to dress and cook the birds, and they all meet and sit around and pick bones, and puff and blow about the hunt, and how many they wounded. And all the satisfaction the farmer gets is burying the chickens the birds kill while they were plumping the jug. Jno. Dooley.

Filings for the city election in December are as follows: Mayor, W. N. Barrett, J. H. Garrett; council, Ward 1, Thos. Kerr and R. C. Vaught; council, 2nd ward, J. B. Trullinger; 3rd ward, H. W. Stauffer and E. W. Walsh; recorder, Leo Perkins and E. L. McCormick; treasurer, Fred J. Sewell. The election takes place the first Monday in December. A peculiar situation is that the charter provides that the outgoing mayor can appoint the chief of police, the city engineer, and the other appointed officers for the ensuing two years. The charter also formulated that only once in 7 years is this condition changed. If the election comes when the first day of December comes on Tuesday, then the newly elected mayor will make the appointment. When the attention of Mayor Bagley was called to this provision of the charter he was non-committal as to whether or not he would exercise that power.

Our sale is a real sale—we are out to reduce our stock to make room for new lines, and the way we are selling at the sacrifice of profit is a money saver to all who buy from us. "Back to the soil" is now the predominant thought in the mind of P. P. Cornelius, who reserved 70 acres of his farm from lease, and expects to go out and do some oldtime farming this Winter and Spring. He and Wm. will keep bachelor hall in the new house. Neither will say who is to do the cooking but it is a safe bet that neither will fight the other away from the cook stove.

The State Inspector has given the Hillsboro Mercantile 18 out of a possible 20 points on the store meat plant—one of the finest in the state. Their shop, refrigerator, slaughter house, and all connected with the market scored but 17 points shy of absolute perfection—and that's going some.

L. H. Peters, of above Mountaineer, was in town Tuesday, and says that the Burbanks grew fine and large out his way this season. He states that two milk wagons started from Mountaineer the first of the week, owing to the fact that the Damascus people have quit taking cream out that way.

When in Portland stop at the Hotel Eaton, West Park and Morrison Streets, located in the heart of the theatre and shopping districts—with all the conveniences of a modern hotel, at reasonable rates.—Glen Hite, Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Krebs went to Rockaway Tuesday, to remain at their cottage a few weeks, enjoying winter weather and the pranks of old Neptune. Jake took along his bathing suit, and says that he is going to have a Thanksgiving swim, even if it be in a bathtub.

Place wanted—A girl eighteen years old wishes a place to assist in general housework. Address Nettie Van Blaricom, Hillsboro, Route 2, care Mrs. E. E. Watts.

The Hillsboro Booster Club will meet at the Commercial Club Rooms Friday evening, this week, instead of Thursday night, as usual. The change is made because of Thanksgiving Day. The Booster Club dance was well attended the last of the week, and the boys report a splendid time.

Olympic flour is the flour that makes your best bread and pastry. A fine hard wheat product.—Per sack, $1.50; barrel, $5.80.—Hillsboro Mercantile.

C. E. Koontz was in from Jolly Plains, the first of the week, and shipped a box of potatoes to Portland. They were Burbanks, and extra large. One of his tubers—and Chas. planted the seed himself—measured over 11 inches in length and weighed three and one-half pounds.

Greens sell the W. L. Douglas shoes for men, and the Red Goose and Walton shoes for children. Try them.

Claus Christiansen, who formerly lived near Buxton, and who later went to Tillamook, where he followed dairying for several years, was in town Tuesday. Claus is now living over on the Clackamas, eighteen miles out of Portland.

Ladies, attention! Greens have a few pieces of linen huck toweling at very low prices; buy early.

Alfred Morgan, who has been working for the Great Northern, at Tacoma, has received a promotion, and now has charge of the dining and sleeping supplies at Great Falls, Montana. Alfred is a son of Mrs. Henrietta Morgan.

VanKleeck, after a few days in session, made their final report to Judge Campbell, and retired the first of the week. They complimented the officials on the way the county offices are handled, and made special mention of the proper conducting of the jail. They found it clean and well kept and the prisoners well cared for. The report advises changes in the lighting and sanitary arrangements at the poor farm and advised an expenditure of several thousand dollars on the place. They state that under existing conditions Supt. Young is caring for the inmates nicely. They asked that lumber be furnished the farm so that the cows and swine could be kept separately. Complaint is made that the present quarters of the clerk are not adequate, but make no advice as new quarters are about to be given that official.

FROM C. E. CLINE

Portland, Nov. 21. To the Editor: Incidental knowledge of the worth and professional character of the late Dr. Linklater, came last week while visiting a home 8 miles southwest of Hillsboro, where a young father and mother related to me how that faithful physician at the birth of a husky, flaxen haired girl in their home, now 3 years old, saved the life of both mother and child by arriving at the lonely cabin, on the mountain, where he remained from six in the evening till noon next day, without sleep and little food, or till the crisis was passed, and the household made happy, because of the surgeon's devotion and skill.

As the mother, with tears in her eyes, related how for 18 long hours she lingered in the shadow of death, the good doctor remaining patiently at her bedside, because of his sympathetic nature, sharing in the ordeal till light and joy came, I felt glad that I had known such a man as Dr. Linklater and shared his friendship. Thanksgiving Day means little to the encamped soldiers on the continent of Europe—but as the day is an American institution, unlike that of Christmas, it will cause no thoughts of home and turkey. Christmas, which is a universal holiday the world over, wherever the Christian religion has a foothold, will be a mockery to those under arms.
