A CARD

It having been brought to my attention that I have been accredited with saying that I had seen George Russell, deputy game warden, running deer with dogs, I take this means of stating that I never made any such statement.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mme. Alexandre Ribot, wife of a leading French statesman, was formerly Miss Minnie Burch of Chicago.

Mrs. Christina Huber of St. Louis, Mo., after twenty-two years in an insane asylum, at eighty-five years has recovered her reason.

Mrs. Mary Minors, aged fourteen, of New York, has been a wife for more than a year. She still has the appearance and manner of a child.

Miss Bessie Bently, a San Francisco newspaper reporter, has fallen heir to $20,000, to be used in behalf of poor children as Miss Bently sees fit.

The Ottoman government has conferred upon Dr. Mary Mills Patrick, president of Constantinople college, the order of the Shekaf in recognition of her splendid services in the cause of higher education for women.

Flippant Flings.

Water, water everywhere—and plenty on board to drink.—Boston Herald.

Dr. Anna Shaw favors cheaper divorces. pity the poor who have to get along happily together.—Detroit Free Press.

Most of our motion picture films come from Italy, France and the United States. You seldom see a Scottish reel in the picture palaces.—London Globe.

"Make room for your boy's energies," advises Edwin Markham. He will find the room if you will supply him with a bat, a catcher's mask, a ball and a glove. He simply doesn't want a lawn mower or a whitewash brush.—Houston Post.

Dress Hint.

White shoes can be dyed brown with ten drops of saffron mixed with three teaspoonfuls of olive oil, two coats being applied with flannel.

In making children's dresses it is a good idea to make a large hem at the bottom, making a tuck underneath in the hem, to be let out as needed.

To freshen black kid gloves mix a teaspoonful of salad oil with a few drops of black ink. Apply with a feather and then dry the gloves in the sun.

To keep a placket from tearing down sew a hook and eye at the very bottom of the placket on the wrong side. Hook together, pinching the hook down tightly, and it will never come unfastened.

THE TOLERANT SEX.

GEORGE was a fellow who never could see that women know more than their men. A. B. C.

The comment that always he'd chortle with glee
Was: "She does pretty well—for a woman."

A girl wrote a book, an astonishing hit. A model of style, to say nothing of wit. But all you could get that poor boob to admit
Was: "She writes pretty well—for a woman."

He married at last. Was his prejudice fled?
You've never met George. On the day he was wed
He yielded a lot, for I'm told that he said,
"She's a pretty good sort—for a woman."

They'd go to a lecture, they'd go to a play.
Where woman was "it" and where man was passe,
But all you could ever induce him to brag
Was: "She does pretty well—for a woman."

Their baby was born. As he stood at the side
Of the bed and looked down at his wife, happy eyed,
And the infant, I'm told he admitted with pride
That she'd done pretty well—"for a woman."

—Puck.
