And now, notwithstanding the universities get about seven hundred thousand dollars of the peoples money the coming year, $100,000 for a new building, and Forest Grove, by jumping from the Monmouth Normal wants 50 per cent. for a new building. Just as the Argus stated a few months ago-these institutions are never satisfied.

The greatest of world holidays is tomorrow, and its celebration follows in every land where the sign of the cross has traveled. The day celebrates the name of the meek and lowly Jesus, and the precepts he has given to the human race have been ennobling, always, and debasing never. While there are millions who reject the divinity of the name, and all that it implies, yet all know that it has a million homes and dried the schools. tears of adversity and shame on the faces of countless millions. The name of Jesus has brought hope to the crime-sodden soul in all climes -- and that is enough to make Christmas an open season to Some fine individual bull calves, all mankind.
