

ROBBERS TOUCH STORE AND THEN LAND IN JAIL

Trio Burglarize Cedar Mill Place of Nearly Fifty Dollars

SHERIFF REEVES HEADS THEM OFF

Through Co-operation With the Police Force of Portland

Three men entered the store of Clarence Mays, at Cedar Mill, about 6 o'clock, Monday night, while Clyde Mays, aged about 12 years, and a shoemaker by the name of Osterheimer were alone, and burglarized the place of nearly $50 in cash. They ordered the two occupants to "back up" and then rifled the cash drawer. They then left the building, and Sheriff Reeves was notified. He concluded that they would take the Cornell road into town, and notified the Portland police to send out a squad. Policemen were sent out past St. Vincent's Hospital about a mile, and after a wait the trio came in sight. One of them drew a revolver, but it was not loaded. The officers gathered them in and later they confessed.

There was some quick work in landing the robbers, and the guests that they would go to Portland on that road saved the day. The men entered the store without masks. All are young fellows. They gave their names to the police as Arthur Manning, John Seaton and Geo. Baldwin.

The boy and Mr. Osterheimer identify the three, but this is not essential, as they admit the crime.

The thieves left Portland late in the afternoon, and went out on a street car as far as it would take them. They had evidently been at the village before and were sure of their ground.

Storekeepers in out-of-the-way places will hereafter take every precaution against robberies of this kind, as they are generally the objects of attacks of this kind by criminal gangs.

Sheriff Word, who was also notified, went to Cedar Mill in an auto, and passed the three men, who dodged aside in the brush when his machine lights came in sight. The Portland police are to be commended for their quick work, for their detail went immediately upon receipt of the news from Sheriff Reeves.

Seaton is a boiler maker; Manning is a bookkeeper, and is but 16 years old, while the other Baldwin, is a logger.

Sheriff Reeves has the trio in jail here, and it is thought they were implicated in robbing the Metzger store of about $12 the last of the week.

The ladies of the Saturday Evening club met with Miss Lillian Johnson Wednesday afternoon, December 9.

The Saturday Evening club with a few invited guests gave a very pleasant surprise on Eltona Sturdevant at the home of his father on Saturday evening, Dec. 12. Cards, music and games were the features of the evening after which a fine supper was served.

Mayor Bagley took occasion to compliment Mr. Bowbeer for his conscientious work and Mayor-elect Barrett intimated that the position would be held by Mr. Bowbeer under the new administration. Mine Host Foote sustained the reputation of the Tualatin with an elegant banquet. Those present were Mayor H. T. Bagley, Mayor-elect W. N. Barrett; Councilmen Jack and Trullinger, councilmen-elect F. JURY GIVES SOUTHER $1,500 IS DAMAGES

Suit Was for Injuries Sustained Sept. 24, 1913, on Washington St.

WORKING FOR TELEPHONE COMPANY

Pole fell, Causing Injuries to Both Feet; Alleged Negligence

W. E. Souther, a former lineman for the Hillsboro Telephone Company, was yesterday given a Christmas gift in the shape of a $1,500 verdict against the Hillsboro Telephone Company for damages sustained Sept. 24, 1913, while employed in taking down wires from poles on Washington Street. Souther was injured in both feet and his right ankle was fractured so badly that he will always have more or less of a permanent disability. The pole on which he was working was being abandoned by the company, and the lines were being taken down and placed on new-set poles. The particular pole on which Souther was working fell, precipitating him to the ground. He was laid up several weeks, and within a year brought suit for damages.

H. B. and Thos. H. Tongue were counsel for Souther, and Bagley & Hare and H. T. Bagley were handling the case for the telephone people. The complaint asked for $10,000.

Souther has been working for the J. H. Williams pool room for several months, and is well known here, his parents having made Hillsboro their home for a number of years.

The verdict, under agreement, affects only the Hillsboro Telephone Co. as it stood prior to the sale of the property to Mr. Wells. Geo. Stevens and O. G. Wilkes were the heaviest stock holders.

Whether or not the case will be appealed is not known. The jury hearing the case:

Wilber K. Newell, Henry Miller, Hans Kasmsen, F. Ungur, C. Reichen, John Kassebaum, J. T. York, Fred Stark, F. B. Clark, Garfield Raymond, Lewis Powers and Edw. Rivett.

Other case in court—State vs E. A. Kelsey, set for trial Dec 31; Rebecca Boudreau granted a divorce from Peter Boudreau. The Boudreaus lived at Forest Grove, and after trouble last Summer the husband was placed under bonds, but was finally permitted to go East.

James vs James, continued as to contempt proceedings, to Jan. 18. Mrs. Constantinus, wife of a Forest Grove restaurant keeper, pleaded guilty to giving liquor to a minor, and was sentenced to a year in the county jail, and to pay costs in the sum of $20. She was allowed a parole on the jail sentence upon payment of costs, and she must report monthly to Mrs. Barber, Juvenile court officer.

Geo. Peterson, a former Beaverton saloon keeper, was fined $250 for selling liquor to minors. Upon payment of $80 he was allowed suspension of the balance. Peterson is now out of the business.

Sheppard & Brock vs Edith Bowles, judgment for the plaintiff.

COUNTY COURT FIXES TAXATION FOR YEAR

Sixteen and One-Quarter Mills on $22,000,000

REDUCES FROM BUDGET RECOMMEND

Tax Reaches the Sum of $357,500—Less Than Last Year

County Judge Reasoner and Commissioners Nyberg and Hanley fixed the State and County tax levy, Tuesday, and it means a rate of 16 1/4 mills on valuation. The tax will amount to $357,500, besides the special levies, with which the court has nothing to do. The above tax is $52,897 less than last year's levy.

Funds
Roads and bridges.....5.5000
Machinery.....0.5000
Indigent soldiers.....0.0334
County.....3.0283
Library.....0.0383
State.....4.0800
School.....3.0700

Total Mills.....16.25
The valuation on which the levy is based is $22,000,000, and the taxation raised on the figures is:

Roads and bridges...$121,000 00
Machinery..... 11,000 00
Indigent soldiers..... 734 80
County..... 66,622 60
Library..... 842 60
State..... 89,760 00
School..... 67,540 00

Total general tax...$357,500 00
The court actually reduced the levy $4,906.07 lower than the figures asked at the budget meeting. It was then voted to ask a reduction of the county levy to $272,648.07, while the court levied, as above noted, in the sum of $267,740, which, with the state tax, and a small allowance for delinquents, makes the total county levy at $375,500.

Last year the levy was a total of 20 1/2 mills on a valuation of about $20,000,000, and the millage was: Roads and bridges, 6 mills; machinery, 1 mill; county, 5.16 mills; school, 3.27 mills; state, 5.57 mills, with funds as follows:

Roads and bridges...$120,977 44
Machinery..... 10,068 12
County..... 101,067 80
School..... 65,943 60
State..... 112,336 96

Total 1913 levy...$410,387 92
Because of the delinquent tax, of course, all the above was not collected, and the same will be more or less short.

Last year the county paid the state tax in the sum of $112,125.97, and this year we must pay $89,600.

They will be at home in Pembina after the first of the year.

NOTICE

I desire to call attention to the ordinance against begging and ask the assistance of the citizens of Hillsboro in its enforcement. A large number of idle persons pass through the city daily asking for money, food and clothing. Some are unfortunate and deserving, but many are vagrants and professional bums. The deserving will be willing to work for their food, while the undeserving will not, and I suggest that assistance be given to those only who will work, and all other cases reported immediately to me. I will endeavor to see that the professional bum does not find anything here to his liking.
