County Judge Reasner has adjudged that Mrs. Nancy Clearwater, who has been under guardianship in Jackson County since last Spring, owing to ill health, is now compos and is capable of attending to her estate and person. Mrs. Clearwater's brother, John Minter, was the guardian, and he was only too glad that Mrs. Clearwater regained her health sufficient to enable her to handle her property. Dr. F. A. Bailey made the medical examination and submitted his findings that her mind was capable in every way. Mrs. Clearwater is the widow of the late Jacob Clearwater, and has property here and near Buxton.
