JUDGE CAMPBELL SAYS CORNELIUS CITY LOSES

Reversed the Case of Cornelius Versus W. A. Bellinger

CELEBRATED LIQUOR CASE ALL OFF

Was Fined Two Hundred Dollars or One Hundred Days in Jail

The case of the City of Cornelius versus Wm. A. Bellinger, fined two hundred dollars by Recorder Phelps, for having liquor in his possession in the city, last Summer, was argued by T. H. Tongue Jr., before Judge Campbell, Monday, and thrown out of court.

The ordinance, under which Bellinger was tried, was passed for the control of transportation companies, and was not held to apply to a man who was merely passing through the city with liquor in his possession.

Bellinger, who was passing through town, and had some beer in his possession, stopped to call on his brother. He was arrested and taken before the Recorder. Mr. Tongue was employed to defend the case and the Recorder imposed the fine. Attorney Tongue then appealed it to the circuit court on a writ of review. Judge Campbell, after hearing Mr. Tongue to some length, stopped the argument and proceeded to reverse the decision of the recorder's court.

Elisha Baker, the attorney for the anti-saloon league, was present, but was not allowed to argue the case, the court having decided on the law, and held that further argument was unnecessary.

This is the second liquor case reversed by the circuit court, the other case being that of the City of Cornelius against John Koehnke, of above Blooming. Attorney T. H. Tongue handled both cases.

As the state and county have gone dry these things are echoes—but they could again come up until January, 1916.

NOTICE

I desire to call attention to the ordinance against begging and ask the assistance of the citizens of Hillsboro in its enforcement. A large number of idle persons pass through the city daily begging for money, food and clothing. Some are unfortunate and deserving, but many are vagrants and professional bums. The deserving will be willing to work for their food, while the undeserving will not, and I suggest that assistance be given to those only who will work, and all other cases reported immediately to me. I will endeavor to see that the professional bum does not find anything here to his liking. H. T. Bagley, Mayor.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 638; calves, 9; hogs, 712; sheep, 2469.

The cattle market opened up for the week very actively. Good quality of offerings was in evidence, choice steers going as high as 7 7/8; cows touched the 6 60 level. Since Monday the run has been below normal with good demand.

A very keen hog market started Monday with a run of nearly 6000, tops bringing 7 50. This market has maintained its supremacy in price over all other American markets for some time. With the exception of Monday's run the receipts continue light. The market on all classes of sheep is good and killers take all offerings readily. Shipping to the market could be materially increased without any decline in price.

The backbone of the Winter cold wave was broken early last Friday morning, and the gentle Oregon mist was here to celebrate Christmas with warmer temperature. The change was welcome, as a little rain is always more acceptable, and more in keeping with Oregon weather, than extreme cold.

H. B. Dauchy, of Banks, was in the city Saturday morning, after spending Christmas at Forest Grove.

The war tax also takes a whirl at the man who starts out on the matrimonial route, these days. First, besides the paying of the physician, there is a ten cent stamp to go on the health certificate; then when he goes before the county clerk and gets his license, another ten cent Uncle Sam stamp must be affixed—and, after that, when the preacher has said words that make man and woman one—no matter which one—before the affair is validated another ten cent stamp must be gummed on the certificate of return signed up by the preacher and sent back to the county clerk. Nowadays, when a man says he "feels like 30 cents" you have an inkling that he is about ready to get married.

Prices that save you money—10c outing flannel, now 8c per yard; 12c outing flannel, now 10c; 12c flannelettes, now 9c; 25c satteens, now 21c and 23c; 50c serges, now 42c; $1 serges, now 75c; 25c soiesette and poplins, now 19c. These prices are good until every yard has been sold.—Greens, Main St.

The county experts, supplied by the state, of course, only charged Marion County $1523.11 for the services, as against an average cost of $300 for the same service heretofore. Marion is almost two times as big a county as Washington, and yet they charged us nearly $1300. Clearly the matter of state accounting county affairs will have hard sledding in the coming legislature—it's a measly, poor county, anyway, which can't take care of its own business, and the law should get such a cracking that this kind of business will not rear its head in Oregon again.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 384. 28-45

Ten prisoners enjoyed Christmas cheer in the county jail-Friday. While it isn't at all a cheerful place to spend a Holiday, yet the boys were warm and comfortable and had a good dinner with which to celebrate the day. Deputy Applegate gave them a Christmas tree and it was decorated with nuts, candies and decorations, and while it wasn't what you would expect when boys, it brought back the good old days when Christmas meant

New Fall styles in men's suits, coats, and ties, ladies' suits, coats, and dresses, consisting of 60 styles, latest fabrics, are now on display at our new location south of the K. P. Hall, Second Street. Call and look at our samples.—Christ Wuest, the Tailor. Phone Main 863.

C. F. Grabel, of South of Minister Bridge, was an Argus caller Saturday. He says that his school district has just completed a play-shed for the children, the place being 12x30, with but one side open. This school will soon be standardized, and will receive its certificate as soon as two or three utilities are added.

See our new non-breakable range—the Arcadian. The best range made and at a price that is inside of economy. A splendid baker and one that pleases every housewife.—Corwin.

Sydney Luce, a brother of County Clerk Luce, arrived up from Lake County, where he has resided for several years, having taken up and received a patent for some land. He recently sold for a good figure, and will now spend a few months in Northern Oregon, with relatives and friends.

Found: Strayed into my pasture, 3 1/2 miles south of Hillsboro, a yearling heifer. Owner prove property and pay advertisement, etc.—Henry Brocks. 39-1

Mrs. Leonard Brown visited with her parents, at Vancouver, Christmas. She was accompanied by her brother, Will Helms, who is attending high school here.

F. M. Wadsworth, of North Plains, was over to the county seat Saturday, arranging to get statistics on some school district boundary changes in the town on the United.

CLERK LUCE RECEIVES STATE TAX STATEMENT

Shows How Much County Must Pay to Universities and Normal

NEARLY TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Corvallis Gets Over Ten Thousand and Eugene Over Eight

Clerk Luce last week received the statement of taxation, estimates of county valuations, etc., from the State Tax Commission, and incidentally the amount of college and Normal taxation which must be paid by Washington County at the coming tax payment.

The millage bill gives the colleges and Normal the following amounts:

Oregon Ag'l College, $10,730.53
Eugene, 8,047.64
Monmouth Normal, 1,073.06

Total for three, $19,851.58. The valuation of the county for state purposes was fixed at $26,826,712 which is less than $300 of the value estimated by the Argus some weeks ago. Last year the valuation was at twenty-five and one-half millions, and with the increase of the rolls over last year the Argus figured that the state valuation would run to twenty-seven millions.

The total state tax to be paid by our county is $89,600. More than one-fifth of this goes to the support of the universities and Normal. This is taxation with a vengeance, eh?

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAINS

Agent Shinnaberger states that the Southern Pacific Company will have an imposing two-story structure at the Panama Exposition. The building will be 76 feet in height, with a ground space almost equal to San Francisco's new million dollar auditorium. The structure will be in the heart of the grounds, and there will be plenty of room for the company's exhibits. The theatre will seat 400 people. The exhibit room will be 200 feet square, and while the nature of their exhibit is not revealed it promises to be unique.

The Company has stipulated with the exposition people to reserve between thirteen and fourteen thousand feet of space in one wing of the structure for such space as may be desired by other transportation companies, rail or steamer, and offices of this kind will be confined to this building. The convenience to exposition visitors of concentrating the transportation offices in this manner is obvious.

In addition the building, which was designed by the Southern Pacific Maintenance of Way Department, will have rest rooms for men and women, a smoking room for men, and an information bureau for the convenience of all visitors, and a ticket office. The exterior will be prettily set off by a parking arrangement for the exploitation of California's trees and flowers.

Marriage license was issued to Gustav Kager and Ellen Zuercher, of near Elmonica, December 26. The prospective bride is a daughter of Peter Zuercher.

Thos. Marlin, of Portland, was out the first of the week.

F. A. Retzel, of South Tualatin, was a city caller Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lard visited with relatives in Portland, Christmas.

W. Matzke, of Beaverton, was in the city Saturday, conferring with the county court.

R. F. Lepschat, of Forest Grove, was in the city Saturday, visiting with home folks.

Grover Combs has been putting down the lineoleum in the clerk's new quarters in the court house annex.

Judde McGahey, of Gaston, came down the last of the week to spend Christmas with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Christenson, of Newberg, are spending Holiday week with their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Duncan.

The railways report heavy travel for the holiday season—not much indication that times are so severe.

Mrs. Gheen and son, Vincent, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schultz, at Oregon City, the last of the week, returning Monday.

At a recent bazaar, held by the German Lutheran Church, at Cornelius, the sum of $124.45 was realized for the Red Cross fund, to be sent to the German lines.

Miss Marie Tunzat, now practicing as a professional nurse at St. Vincent's and with Dr. Coffey, came out Christmas to enjoy the Yuletide with her parents and friends.

Reports reach the county seat that Winter wheat has been injured a little by the freeze in a few localities. The freezing of pests, however, will doubtless offset the injury to the stand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson went to Portland Christmas, to spend the day with Mr. Anderson's parents and his brother, Geo. Anderson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Utzinger, of Astoria, came up the middle of last week for a Holiday visit with Mrs. Utzinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stevens.

Paul Ridenour and Bessie Wilcox were united in marriage at Forest Grove, Dec. 24, 1914, Rev. J. M. Barber officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, of Gaston.

J. R. Bailey, of Buxton, came down Saturday evening to attend the Masonic exercise at Johns Day. He says that snowfall is not very heavy.

While people down here thought last week was cold, a glance at reports from Eastern Oregon, where mercury went from 2 to 18 below zero, shows that the Willamette Valley, after all, isn't in the cold belt.

All outstanding tickets on Johnson's Photo Studio will be good till March 1. Bring them in for sittings before remodeling of the building commences, or you may not find the Studio in its present location. 41-2

The plumbers were not so sorry to see the cold snap end, as it meant work without rest for a fortnight. Open plumbing will soon be a thing of the past if this section gets a few cold snaps in succession for a number of seasons.

Forest Grove's banks were represented in the county seat Monday morning when Geo. Hancock, of the First National, and J. A. Thornburgh, of the Forest Grove National, were in circuit court, as witnesses in a state case.

I am handling the Watson Remedies in the Northern portion of Washington County, and will visit patrons every three months. Territory is North of Baseline. All persons wishing orders can mail same to me at Forest Grove.—R. F. Lepschat Forest Grove, Ore.

D. M. McLaughlin, master mechanic for the branch lines of the S. P., was in town Saturday, meeting friends. He now has headquarters at Albany, and handles his affairs from that point. Mc. had just arrived from Portland, where he and his family enjoyed Christmas together in a good old-fashioned family reunion.

BUILDING OPERATIONS NOT SO BAD IN 1914

Condenser Alone Expends Over $125,000 in City of Hillsboro

CARNEGIE LIBRARY ADDED TO TOWN

Several Handsome Residences Built—Not Bad For an Off Year

While building operations have not been very extensive in Hillsboro for the year 1914, still, the old county seat has had no particular reason to complain. The building of the new condenser plant, in South Hillsboro, represents sufficient money to have erected several big buildings in the residence section. The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company is now nearing completion of the big brick, tile and cement structure, which will take care of their enormous Hillsboro product, at an expense of perhaps $125,000, when all the work is finished.

This building has taken a great deal of labor, and a large crew has been engaged in the work. The building is a credit to Hillsboro, and an honor to the institution that owns it.

The Carnegie Library, building, which represents an investment of $10,000, is the only building of prominence up town, although the Bump cement building, on Main, is a no mean expenditure. This office building is the best of its kind in the city. Walt Taylor did the concrete work, and the structure is absolutely fire-proof.

Ferd Hartrampf's new garage on Main Street is another new business structure.

The Food Products Co. have added some capital to the building plant, and this about covers the commercial building of the city. Several new residences have been built, however, chief of these being the splendid new home of Chas. E. Wells, near Fair Acres property. This is one of the Class A residences of the city, and will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks. Mr. Shannon, of the Hillsboro Mercantile, has also completed a fine new home on West Main, and it is a credit to the town.

Interested
George E. Chamberlain writes that at the earliest possible date he will have sent to the Hillsboro library all books and public documents, or copies thereof, available in his department. He will have them sent direct to the Library, and the contribution should prove a valuable reference to the student element.

Dr. Guy Via and wife, of Buxton, were Forest Grove visitors, Christmas.

J. A. Hobbs and son, Earl, of Varley, were in the county seat Saturday.

Fred Hamel, of West Union, was in town Saturday, greeting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Lilligard, of Laurel, visited with relatives and friends in Portland, over Christmas.

Wm. French, who has been in Portland for several months, came out to enjoy Christmas day in the old haunts.

Miss Priscilla Hobbs, who is attending High School, at Salem, is home for the holidays with her parents, at Varley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carstens, of Banks, passed through town the last of the week, enroute home from a Christmas visit with relatives at Forest Grove.
