

NEW CITY OFFICERS HAVE FIRST MEETING

Outgoing Mayor Presented With Handsome Silver Loving Cup

REVIEWS WORK OF FOUR YEARS

Mayor Barrett Inducted into Office, and Takes up Gavel

The city hall was Tuesday night the scene of the shifting of city administrations. New councilmen in the persons of F. W. Welch and R. C. Vaught were sworn in and J. B. Trullinger, re-elected, also took the oath of office. Mayor H. T. Bagley stepped down and out, after a review of his four year's work as executive, and Mayor-elect Barrett was sworn in. E. L. McCormick, the newly elected city recorder, and F. J. Sewell, succeeding himself as treasurer, were also inducted into their duties.

A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful loving cup of solid silver to Mr. Bagley, by his associates of the past administration. Mayor Barrett appointed the following aides to his office: Herbert J. Flag, city engineer; H. T. Bagley, city attorney; John Hensley, street, sewer and drains superintendent; Eli Bowbeer, inspector of sewers; Dr. Elmer H. Smith, health officer; G. W. Pate, chief of police and assistant street commissioner; Grant Zumwalt, night watch; Ferd Hartrampf, chief of fire department.

The new mayor appointed committees as follows: Finance—R. C. Vaught, A. Jack, F. W. Welch; Water and light, J. B. Trullinger, Jack Roy, G. N. Taggart; Sanitary, Taggart, Jack, Welch; Park, Welch, Trullinger, Roy; Civic improvement, Welch, Trullinger, Taggart; Streets, Jack, Welch, Vaught.

F. W. SCHULTHEIZ

F. W. Schultzeiz, for over 20 years a resident of near Bethany, died Monday, Jan. 4, 1915, after an illness covering several months. Last year he made a trip to California in the quest of health, but on his return continued to fail. He was aged 48 years, and was married to Miss Bertha Ruffenach before coming to Washington County. The widow and seven children—three sons and four daughters, survive. The funeral took place today, Rev. Hoffman preaching the service.

MRS. WM. MACBETH

Mrs. Wm. Macbeth, well known here years ago, died at her son's home at Natchez, Wash., Jan. 1, 1915, aged 58 years. She was formerly Josephine Imbrie, a daughter of the late James and Mary Imbrie. She is survived by her husband, a son, Howard Macbeth, married, at Natchez, and a sister, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, of Seattle; two brothers, Ewin Imbrie, Oil Fields, Cal., and Wm. Imbrie, of Yakima, Wash. She was a cousin of Messrs. J. A., T. R. and Frank Imbrie, and Mrs. W. W. Williams, and Mrs. F. J. Williams, well known here.

Interment was at Riverview cemetery, Portland, and those attending from this county were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Imbrie, Frank Imbrie, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Williams, Hillsboro, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams, of Mountaineale.

A. V. Denny, of below Beaverton, was a county seat caller Tuesday.

Combs' Furniture store has added a fine line of dishes and crockery. See them before buying, and you will buy there.

Miss Dorena Andrews, the 17 year old daughter of James Andrews, of Tualatin, was the victim of a lock-shearer Monday night. Miss Andrews retired about 8 o'clock, going to bed in a sitting room, using a folding bed. The doors of the house were all locked, and her step-mother and grandfather were sleeping upstairs. Her father had gone to the Odd Fellows' Hall, where he was one of a class taking initiation. When the father returned he had trouble in awakening the daughter so that she might unlock the door. When Miss Andrews was returning to her bed she discovered that her hair had been snipped off, and called the attention of her father to the incident. Upon examination it was found that the window had been raised with an ax and the intruder had used chloroform, the fumes being in evidence. Miss Andrews was not awakened by the entrance, and has no idea of the identity of her assailant.

Drs. Lowe & Turner, Portland's well known opticians and optometrists, will be in Forest Grove, Friday, Jan. 22, and Hillsboro, Saturday, Jan. 23. They do not go from house to house. Have no agents. Beware of those claiming to be such. Don't fail to have them test your eyes for glasses. Remember the days and dates. The wise will wait for them.

News dispatches in the dailies, Sunday, told of the murder of an Eastern Oregon man, the slayer being named as Clarence Bettis. As the tragedy happened close to where Clarence Bettis, formerly of this place, resides, many here thought he might have been the slayer. This is not the case. The telegraph simply injected a wrong letter into the name. The killer's name was Clarence Pettis, instead of Bettis. Jake Bettis was in from Orengo today, and was much relieved when he telephoned and found that there had been a mistake. Clarence Bettis is now out with a bunch of stock, and has not been anywhere near the scene of the killing. Pettis gave himself up.

Notice: I take this means of informing my friends and users of Aetna Lime & Sulphur spray that I can now be reached by telephone. The Scholls Telephone Co., after years of constant pleading with its manager, has at last replaced the old one they installed when I became a stockholder—and which never gave satisfaction—for another, and I think it will give better service.—R. Leis, The Aetna Lime & Sulphur Spray Factory, Beaverton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Krebs entertained friends at a watch meeting Thursday evening, at their home on First and Washington. Five Hundred was the evening's enjoyment. All were seated to a delightful luncheon when the old year was brushed aside and the youngster, 1915, made his appearance. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames A. C. Shute, W. G. Hare, J. D. Anderson, L. A. Long, J. E. Reeves, David Kuratli, host and hostess; Mrs. E. C. McKinney, and Miss Louise Krebs and Miss Betty Kamna.

For Sale: Four good cows, fresh about three months. Will sell cheap, on account of moving; Also Moline 12-in. plow, new-Barker place, about 1 mile west of Bethany, on German-town road at the cross roads.—J. J. Oester, Holbrook, Ore., Rt. 1, Box 45.

Benjamin E. Boone & Co. will have charge of the Ford agency and Garage, the building now being under construction on Second Street, south of Washington. A. M. Ferguson, who is the Ford representative, may be seen at any time at the Hotel Washington. Anyone interested in the purchase of this universal car, on the cash or easy term plan, should see Mr. Ferguson and have him explain details.

Agents Wanted: Salary or commission; seven opportunities. Write for full particulars. Free. First-class lines for both men and women.—Oregon Sales Co., Hood River, Ore. 39-42

Kate Kurz, of Portland, has sued Chas. Kurz for divorce. They were married in Portland in 1891, and she alleges the husband deserted her in 1913. There are no minor children. Kurz is pretty nearly German for "short," but the two appeared to have lived together over a score of years.

Miss Betty Kamna, who is attending school in Portland, was out the last of the week, a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kamna, at Farmington.

We pay the highest market price for vea, hogs, poultry and eggs. Drop us a card.—D. H. Adams & Bro., 1386 Kelly Street (Fulton) Portland. 42-4

J. N. London, John Koehnke, Gerhard and Fred Goetze, of above Blooming, were in town Saturday.

Arthur Knox, of Gaston, was in town Tuesday.

The State Inspector has given the Hillsboro Mercantile 18 out of a possible 20 points on the store meat plant—one of the finest in the state. Their shop, refrigerator, slaughter house, and all connected with the market scored but 17 points shy of absolute perfection—and that's going some.

For Exchange: Good Portland business property on Union and Grand Avenues—for ranch or business property in some good valley town, or might consider a wheat ranch up to $10,000. Balance, mortgage for 3 years. Direct inquiries to P. O. Box 333, Hillsboro, or call Main 144, Hillsboro. 42-1f

Over 300 men went to work at the Southern Pacific shops in Portland, Monday. The order also started the Oakland and other coast shops on the same date, and it meant that 6,000 out of work the past month have again resumed their positions. It is also stated that the various railway lines will re-tie a good many miles of roadbed this season, having refrained the past two years. This will mean plenty of sawmill work, and things point to a "hummer of 1915."

Geo. Russell, of Gaston, was in town Monday, on business connected with game laws. He says he was out hunting a few days ago, and shot a fox. When he picked up the animal it had a collar around its neck. Russell says it probably had been a pet some years ago, as it showed no evidence of domesticity—excepting that it could run like a grayhound. The collar was nearly worn from its neck, and George thinks it had been picked up by some homesteader in the hills, when it was a whelp, and had later returned to the "call of the wild."

COUNTY HOP MEN TO HAVE MEETINGS

Sessions to be Held at Various Points Soon

NINETY PER CENT. OF GROWERS HAVE ORGANIZED

THE OREGON HOP GROWERS ASSOCIATION IS MEETING WITH PROUNOUNCED SUCCESS ALL OVER THE STATE AND MEETINGS ALREADY HELD IN YAMHILL, LINN, LANE, POLK, MARION AND OTHER COUNTIES HAVE BEEN LARGELY ATTENDED BY THE GROWERS, AND OVER 90 PER CENT. HAVE JOINED THE ASSOCIATION, WHICH IS PURELY CO-OPERATIVE AND WHICH PROMISES SO MUCH FOR THE HOP GROWER.

Every grower knows the unfortunate conditions under which he has struggled to make ends meet during the past years by reason of the short-seller and the middleman and the evils of the contracting system. We have at last an opportunity to change all this and the only hope for the grower is to join a powerful Co-operative association which is an assured success.

Every grower should attend these meetings and bring every other grower he can. The full plan of the association will be explained, and we hope that Washington County will turn out in force to learn the facts. Do not let anything interfere with your being present at these meetings which will be held in Hillsboro, Monday, Jan. 11, at 1 p. m.; Banks, Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 1 p. m., and at Forest Grove, Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 1 p. m. Speakers will be present from other counties, and a permanent local association will be formed at the above places. You owe it to your future, your family and your bank account to be present.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank all who so kindly assisted us during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late Geo. Zetzman, and we return especial thanks for the beautiful floral tributes. Walter Zetzman, Harry Zetzman, Mrs. Benj. Sahnaw, Miss Wilma Zetzman.

NOTICE

We wish to announce to our customers that milk will be the usual price after Jan. 15—$2.00 a month per quart.

W. S. Gillenwater, E. A. Larrance, G. H. Carter, H. Delsman.

GEORGE ZETZMAN

George Zetzman, aged 60 years, 2 months and 20 days, died at North Tualatin Plains, Jan. 3, 1915, after an illness covering a number of years. He was born in Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13, 1854, and was married to Miss Anna Bierdorf, at Zumbrota, Minn., March 24, 1885. They came to Oregon about 22 years ago, and settled in Washington County. To the union seven children were born, three dying in infancy. Mrs. Zetzman died in June, 1910.

The surviving children are Walter Zetzman, North Tualatin Plains; Harry Zetzman, in California; Mrs. Benj. Sahnaw, of North Hillsboro, and Miss Wilma Zetzman, of North Tualatin Plains.

Mr. Zetzman has one sister living, Mrs. Lena Stecher, of Gordonsville, Virginia. The funeral took place Jan. 5, and interment was in the Blooming cemetery. Those from abroad attending the services were Mrs. King and Frank Frohreich, Silverton; Fred Kamrath, Geo. Steben, Mrs. Tracy Mink and Mrs. Arthur Steben, of Oregon City.

Mr. Zetzman had always been active in farming and dairying until two years ago, when he turned over his ranch to his son. His health first failed about that time and his decline has been gradual until his death came.

There were but few changes in the officialdom of the court house, with the advent of the year. Rodell Matteson, of Gaston, now residing at Forest Grove, was sworn in as commissioner to succeed John Nyberg, of Tualatin, who has served eight years in the chair. James H. Davis, of North Plains, was sworn in Monday to succeed E. L. Perkins, who has served two terms as recorder of conveyances. His deputy is W. F. Boley, of North Plains, a man who has had considerable clerical experience. Sheriff Reeves and Clerk Luce, as well as Treasurer Sappington, have filed their bonds and continue in the even tenor of their ways. J. C. Applegate was appointed as deputy in the sheriff's office, and H. A. Kuratli remains as the assistant in the clerk's office.

Strayed or Stolen—Two heifers, one a yearling, Jersey color, white spot on side and spot in forehead; the other is a 2-year-old, black.—Notify Aug. Ege, Farmington, Hillsboro, Oregon, R. 5. 40-2

E. L. Perkins, for two terms county recorder, has opened a law office in Room 1, upstairs over the Commercial Bank, and during the absence of Mr. Bowman, at the legislature, will take care of both his own and Mr. Bowman's business. Attorney Perkins will practice in the county and circuit courts and will also handle conveyancing. Mr. Perkins has been admitted to the bar several years, studying for law when he was deputy, and finishing after he was elected. Having had a great deal of experience in the deed and mortgage departments he feels fully equipped to take care of anything of this nature that comes along, as well.

For sale: Ten O. I. C. pigs, 8 weeks old; also 10 shoats and 4 young sows. Bargains.—Address Mrs. W. B. Bolton, Witch Hazel station, Beaverton, Oregon, R. F. D. 4. 42-4

John McFeely, who yesterday finished a sentence in the county jail for stealing chickens down near Kinton, saw his hopes for release go glimmering several days ahead of time, when, Saturday, he was taken before Judge Smith to answer a charge of stealing a set of single harness from Roy Bierly. McFeely pleaded guilty and was given a fine of $25, in default of which he starts another jail sentence of 12 1/2 days.

Taken up: Found in my pasture, 6 miles south of Hillsboro, 2 yearling heifers. Owner prove property pay expenses and costs of advertising.—G. S. Campbell, Hillsboro, Route 2. 41-3

H. B. Morgan, 80 years of age, once sheriff of this county—in the seventies—died at his home in Portland, Jan. 5, 1915. He leaves the following children to mourn his loss: Hartley Morgan, Mrs. A. W. Moore, Mrs. L. F. Boscow, Mrs. Elizabeth Barker and Mrs. F. E. Bishop. Interment was in Lone Fir cemetery today.

To Loan—$5,000 on farm lands, at 8 per cent. No agents.—Address, under sealed envelope only, "A," care Argus, Hillsboro.

The Girls' Basket Ball team of Hillsboro will play St. Johns, at the Hillsboro Gym, Friday evening, Jan. 8, 1915, at 7:30. This is a return game and the Hillsboro High Girls hope to win on their own floor. Admission of 25 cents will be charged.

For Sale: High grade Jersey bull; and two cows, fresh.—Mrs. J. S. Steinke, Minter Bridge, 2 1/2 miles S. E. of Hillsboro. 41-3

The Progressive Five Hundred Club met last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Combs. Prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. V. Dahl. Mr. and Mrs. Dahl will entertain the Club at their home, Jan. 16.

Born, to Chas. Schomburg and wife, of Mountaineale, Jan. 5, 1915, a son. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schomburg, of Hillsboro, are for the first time wearing the honors of grandparents.

James Plumlee, of Gaston, appeared before Judge Smith, yesterday, to answer the charge of killing a deer out of season. He pleaded not guilty and bail was fixed at $100. He will have a jury trial later.

German Lutheran services, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, at the Congregational church. English Sunday school at 2:00.—E. W. Luecke, Pastor.

Samuel Medler, who was committed to the insane asylum from this county Oct. 29, 1899, died at the state hospital, Jan. 2, and the authorities have notified the court officials here of the demise.

F. E. Rowell, of the Groner & Rowell Co., and Lester Campbell, manager of the Campbell ranch, at Scholls, were in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Be sure and see Grace Cunard in "The Ghost of Smiling Jim," Friday and Saturday, at the Peoples Theatre.

Dr. Anita Bohnsack will soon leave for Cape Girardeau, Mo., for a short visit with relatives.
