UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 690; calves, 8; hogs, 2899; sheep, 1273.

That well finished cattle can bring good prices commensurate with their quality was amply demonstrated Monday when steers went to 8 and cows to 6 85. There has not been much of a run this week, receipts showing light no doubt on account of the usual holidays.

Light runs of hogs were general all week, prices remaining steady with last week's closing. Tops are today 7 30.

A few more sheep are coming forward than for previous weeks although receipts are still far below normal. Buyers are willing to pay 7 50 for good lambs, 5 25 for ewes and 6 50 for yearling wethers.
